8. Agreement flexibility

(b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a);

(c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee.

(c) result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

8.6 The Employee may choose to be represented by a person of their choice at any part of the negotiations.

Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

9. Consultation regarding major workplace change

9.1 This clause applies if the Employer:

(a) has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure, or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on Employees; or

(b) proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

In this clause: relevant Employees means the Employees who may be affected by a change referred to in cl.9.1(a) or (b).

Consultation regarding major workplace change

9.2 For a major change referred to in cl.9.1(a):

(a) the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the decision to introduce the major change; and

(b) cl.9.3 to 9.9 apply.

9.3 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

9.4 If:

(a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and

(b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative,

the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must:

(a) discuss with the relevant Employees:

(i) the introduction of the change; and

(ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees; and

(iii) measures the Employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees; and
East Preston Islamic College Enterprise Agreement 2015 – 2018

(b) for the purposes of the discussion — provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees:

(i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and

(ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and

(iii) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

9.6 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.7 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

9.8 If a clause in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in cl.9.2(a), 9.3 and 9.5 are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:

(a) the termination of the employment of Employees; or

(b) major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer’s workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or

(c) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or

(d) the alteration of hours of work; or

(e) the need to retrain Employees; or

(f) the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or

(g) the restructuring of jobs.

(b) cl.9.11 to 1.15 apply.

9.11 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.
East Preston Islamic College Enterprise Agreement 2015 – 2018

9.12 If:

(a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and

(b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative,

the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.13 The Employer must:

(a) discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change; and

(b) for the purposes of the discussion, provide to the relevant Employees:

(i) information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the Employee’s regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence); and

(ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees; and

(iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees; and

(c) invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

9.14 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.15 The Employer must give genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

9.16 For the purposes of clts.9.11 to 9.15, the Employer’s educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:

(a) may operate on a term, semester of a School year basis, and

(b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and

(c) may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster.

9.17 However, where a change to the Employer’s educational timetable directly results in a change:

(a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or

(b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee’s ordinary hours are required to be worked, or
(c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, cll.9.11 to 1.15 will apply.

10. Dispute resolution

10.1 If a dispute relates to:

(a) a matter arising under the Agreement, or

(b) the NES,

this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

10.2 An Employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

10.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

10.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

10.5 The FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages:

(a) the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute using one of more of the following methods: mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion and making a recommendation; and

(b) if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the FWC may then:

(i) in relation to the NES, arbitrate the dispute, or

(ii) in relation to all other matters in the Agreement, arbitrate the dispute only with the consent of both parties, and make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

10.6 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:

(a) an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and

(b) an Employee must comply with a direction given by the Employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
East Preston Islamic College Enterprise Agreement 2015 – 2018

(i) the work is not safe; or
(ii) the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (Vic.) would not permit the work to be performed; or
(iii) the work is not appropriate for the Employee to perform; or
(iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the Employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

10.7 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this clause.

Part 3—Conditions for all Employees

11. Remuneration packaging

11.1 Upon receiving a written election for a remuneration packaging arrangement from the Employee and provided there is no additional cost to the Employer, the Employer is prepared to offer the Employee the opportunity to receive part of the Employee’s remuneration in the form of non-cash benefits in line with legislation and Australian Taxation Office rulings until otherwise advised.

11.2 Any arrangement between the Employer and the Employee in relation to remuneration packaging will be entered into by way of a subsidiary written agreement varying the Employee’s conditions of employment.

12. Minimum employment period

12.1 An Employee’s employment is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a minimum employment period of six months.

12.2 If the Employer is to terminate the employment of an Employee during the first six months of the Employee’s employment, the Employer does not need to comply with any due process, performance or conduct management policies or procedures in place from time to time or cl.26 – Performance and conduct management.

13. Annual leave

13.1 Annual leave is provided for in the NES. This clause supplements the NES provisions.

13.2 Clauses 35 and 36 provide further details on conditions related to annual leave entitlements for Teachers.

13.3 Timing of annual leave

(a) A Teacher must take annual leave during Non-term weeks. Leave must generally be taken in the four-week period immediately following the final term week of the current school year, unless otherwise agreed with the Employer.

(b) The Employer may require a General Staff Employee to take their annual leave during Non-term weeks.

(c) The Employer may designate some of the Non-term weeks as a shutdown period in which the operations of the School may be closed or operate at minimum staffing levels. Unless alternative arrangements are agreed between the School and a particular employee/s, General Staff Employees are required to take annual leave during shutdown periods observed by the School.

13.4 Crediting of annual leave

(a) The Employer may allow a General Staff Employee to take annual leave before the leave has accrued. Where paid leave has been granted in excess of the accrued entitlement, and the General Staff Employee subsequently leaves, the Employer is entitled to deduct the amount of leave in advance still owing from any remuneration payable to the General Staff Employee upon termination of employment.

14. Personal/carer's leave

14.1 Personal/carer's leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

14.2 An Employee other than a casual Employee is entitled to a paid personal/carer's leave entitlement, which includes both sick and carer's leave.

14.3 A full-time Employee is entitled to 15 days personal/carer's leave per year of service from their commencement date, which accrues progressively. A part-time Employee is entitled to paid personal/carer's leave on a pro rata basis based on their ordinary hours of work. For a General Staff employee not classified in Classroom support services, Curriculum/resource services and Nursing services, the entitlements to 15 days personal/carer's leave, and the rate of accrual in advance of leave provided for in cl.14.4, become operative from the commencement of this agreement and as at the anniversary date of the Employee.

14.4 Where a full-time Employee requires personal/carer's leave in excess of the Employee's accrued entitlement, the Employee is entitled to be paid personal/carer's leave in advance of accrual as follows:

(a) six (6) days during the first term of employment, and a further three (3) days during each of the next three terms, if in the first year of employment with the Employer, or

(b) the annual entitlement of 15 days, if in the second or subsequent year of employment, provided that:

(i) the notice and evidentiary requirements are met, and

(ii) any paid leave provided in advance of accrual at the time of termination of employment is deducted from the Employee's final payment.

14.5 Paid personal leave is taken due to a personal illness or injury.

14.6 Paid carer’s leave is taken to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate family or a member of the Employee’s household, who requires care or support because of a personal illness, injury, or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

14.7 Where the Employee has exhausted the paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, the Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

14.8 A casual Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

14.9 Notice and evidentiary requirements

(a) An Employee must notify the Employer of the Employee’s absence as soon as reasonably practicable. The notice must be to the effect that the Employee requires the leave because of a personal illness or injury or to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household as the member is suffering either a personal illness or injury or an unexpected emergency.

(b) An Employee is entitled to personal/carer’s leave provided that:

(i) the Employee produces a medical certificate from a Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Employer for any absence of more than two consecutive days;

(ii) the Employee provides a medical certificate from a Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Employer for any absence continuous with a public holiday to which the Employee is entitled, or continuous with the first or last day of a term which would not otherwise require the provision of evidence;

(iii) the Employee produces a medical certificate from a Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Employer where the number of days of paid personal/carer’s leave already taken without the production of a medical certificate or a statutory declaration exceeds five days in the one School year.
15. Compassionate leave

15.1 Compassionate leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

15.2 An Employee may take:

(a) up to three (3) days’ paid leave per occasion when a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household dies; or

(b) up to two (2) days’ paid leave per occasion when a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household contracts or develops a personal injury or illness that poses a serious threat to life.

15.3 Compassionate leave may be taken in a single unbroken period or in separate periods of one day each or as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

15.4 The Employee is entitled to compassionate leave only if the Employee gives the Employer any evidence that the Employer reasonably requires of the illness, injury or death.

16. Community service leave

(ii) in all other cases the Employee will be entitled to payment at the appropriate overtime rate of pay for any additional hours worked.

(c) Where the Employee's hours are not averaged:

(i) the Employee will be paid for all such additional hours at the casual hourly rate of pay, provided that the additional hours worked fall within the applicable daily spread of hours in clause 40.3, and do not result in the Employee working more than eight hours on that day; and;

(ii) in all other cases the Employee will be entitled to payment at the appropriate overtime rate of pay for any additional hours worked.

(d) Where additional hours are worked on a day the Employee is already attending for work, the minimum casual engagement of two hours will not apply.

(e) Additional hours worked by a part-time Employee in accordance with this clause do not accrue leave entitlements under this award or the NES.

40.5 Breaks between periods of duty

(a) An Employee will be entitled to a minimum break of 10 consecutive hours between the end of one period of duty and the beginning of the next. This applies in relation to both ordinary hours and where overtime is worked.

(b) Where an Employer requires an Employee to continue or resume work without having a 10-hour break off duty, the Employee is entitled to be absent from duty without loss of pay until a 10-hour break has been taken, or be paid at 200% of the ordinary rate of pay until released from duty.

(c) The entitlements in clauses 40.5(a) and (b) do not apply to:

(i) an Employee who is provided with accommodation on the Employer’s premises or in the vicinity of the Employer’s premises;

(ii) an Employee who is attending a school camp or excursion; or

(d) at the rate of pay applicable to the work being performed.

(a) During a period of annual leave, an Employee will receive a loading calculated on the rate of wage prescribed in Schedule A of this Agreement. Annual leave loading is payable on leave accrued on the following bases:

(i) Employees who would have worked on day work only had they not been on leave - 17.5% of their ordinary rate of pay.

(ii) Employees who would have worked on shiftwork had they not been on leave - 17.5% of their ordinary rate of pay or the applicable shift loading, whichever is the greater.

(b) Except that the Employer may, at its election, pay:

(i) annual leave loading in respect of the school year to the Employee with the first salary payment in December of that school year at the rate of pay applicable on 1 December of that school year.

42. Leave without pay during non-term weeks

42.1 Arrangements

An Employee may be required to take leave without pay during non-term weeks, provided that:

(a) the Employee’s contract of employment specifies the arrangement in writing;

(b) all such periods count as service for the purpose of calculating accrued leave entitlements and do not break continuity of service;

(c) if appropriate work is available for an Employee during any such period, the existing Employee may be offered such employment (whether on a full-time, part-time or casual basis). The Employee who is on leave without pay may refuse an offer of employment without prejudice to their normal employment relationship; and

(d) appropriate work will mean such work as is available that is capable of being performed by the Employee. Remuneration for such work will be at the rate of pay applicable to the work being performed.

42.2 Calculating annual salary for an Employee on leave without pay during non-term weeks

(a) The formula in this subclause may be used to calculate an annual salary for an Employee whose contract of employment makes provision, in writing, for leave without pay during non-term weeks.

(b) The adjusted annual salary for an Employee is:
East Preston Islamic College Enterprise Agreement 2015 – 2018

\[ A = C \times \frac{\text{working weeks} + 4 \text{ weeks annual leave} + P}{52.18} \]

Where:

- \( A \) means the Employee’s adjusted annual salary
- \( C \) means the annual salary (as contained in Schedule B) for the Employee’s classification
- \( \text{Working weeks} \) means the number of weeks that the Employee is required to work
- \( P \) means the number of public holiday days the Employee would be entitled to during the period of annual leave

(c) For the purpose of calculating any allowance or penalty for an Employee, the allowance or penalty will be calculated on the ordinary hourly rate applicable before the adjustment provided for in this clause is applied.

(d) An Employee may elect, in writing, to be paid only for the time worked (and therefore not during non-term weeks) rather than to be paid an adjusted annual salary as provided by this clause.

43. Higher duties

43.1 The Employer may direct an Employee to temporarily perform duties applicable to a classification higher than their current classification.

43.2 Subject to cl.43.3 where the Employee performs such duties for more than five days and those duties constitute the whole or substantially the whole type of duties which would attract the higher classification, the Employee will be paid the rate of pay applicable to the higher classification for the whole period during which the duties are performed.

43.3 Where the Employee is a school operational services Employee, and they perform those duties for one day or more and those duties constitute the whole or substantially the whole type of duties which would attract the higher classification, the Employee will be paid the rate of pay applicable to the higher classification for the whole period during which the duties are performed.

44. Termination of employment

44.1 Notice of termination is provided for in the NES.

44.2 Notice of termination by an Employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an Employee is the same as that required of an Employer except that there is no requirement on the Employee to give additional notice based on the age of the Employee concerned.

44.3 Job search entitlement

45. Breaks

45.1 Meal break

An Employee will be entitled to an unpaid meal break of 30 minutes no later than five hours after commencing work.

45.2 Rest break

The Employer and an Employee may agree to one rest break of 20 minutes in place of the two 10 minute rest breaks.

(b) Notwithstanding cl.45.2(a), a Classroom support services Employee is entitled to one rest break of 20 minutes, which will be counted as time worked.

(b) An Employee may be rostered to work on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday and will be paid the appropriate penalty in accordance with cl.47—Penalty rates.

(c) A roster may be altered by mutual consent at any time or by amendment of the roster by the Employer on seven days’ notice.

(d) Notwithstanding cl.46.4(c) a roster may be altered at any time to enable the functions of the Employer to be carried out where another Employee is absent from work due to illness or in an emergency. In such circumstances, unless agreed between the Employer and the Employee, an Employee must be given 48 hours’ notice of a change to a rostered shift. If 48 hours’ notice is not provided, the Employee will be entitled to a penalty of 50% of the ordinary time rate instead of any other penalty that may apply.

(e) Where such alteration requires an Employee to work on a day which would otherwise have been the Employee’s day off, the day off instead will be arranged by mutual consent.

47. Penalty rates

(ii) for ordinary hours worked on a Sunday, 100% of the ordinary time rate.

47.3 The penalty rates within this clause and in cl.48—Overtime are not cumulative. Where an Employee is entitled to more than one penalty or overtime rate, the Employee will be entitled to the highest single penalty rate.

Checking is selective rather than constant.

General direction: direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the Employee determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. when full-time employment falls last, any leave taken from the full-time credit will be paid at the current full-time salary. Leave taken from the part-time credit will be paid on the basis of a proportion of the current full-time salary having regard to the ratio of average weekly hours over the last 12 months of part-time employment to current full-time weekly hours;

(iii) when part-time employment falls last, leave taken from the full-time credit will be paid at the salary applicable to the full-time equivalent of the present part-time employment category. Leave taken from part-time credit will be paid for at the current salary on the basis of average weekly hours over the last 12 months of part-time employment;

(iv) if a teacher can show that the teacher’s average weekly hours over the whole of the teacher’s part-time employment are greater than average weekly hours over the last 12 months of part-time employment the higher figure will be used in determining average weekly hours. Should part-time employment be less than 12 months, average weekly hours will be struck over the actual period of part-time employment.
