8. DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURES

8.1 If a dispute relates to:
    (a) a matter arising under this Agreement or
    (b) the National Employment Standards

this clause sets out the procedures to settle the dispute.

8.2 An Employee who is party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

8.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and the relevant supervisors and or management.

8.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission.

The Fair Work Commission may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:

(a) The Fair Work Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and

(b) If the Fair Work Commission is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the Fair Work Commission may then:

   i. arbitrate the dispute; and
   ii. make a determination that is binding on the parties.

(c) Note: If the Fair Work Commission arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that the Fair Work Commission makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

8.5 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety.

8.6 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the Fair Work Commission in accordance with this clause.

9. AGREEMENT FLEXIBILITY

9.1 An Employer and Employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of the following matters:
    (i) arrangements about when work is performed;
    (ii) overtime rates;
    (iii) penalty rates;
    (iv) allowances.

9.2 The arrangement must meet the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in 9.1.

9.3 The arrangement must have been genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee without coercion or duress.
9.4 The Employee is entitled to appoint a representative for the purposes of negotiating an Individual Flexibility Arrangement under this clause.

9.5 The Employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:
(a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and
(b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and
(c) result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

9.6 The Employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:
(a) is in writing; and
(b) includes the name of the Employer and Employee; and
(c) is signed by the Employer and Employee and if the Employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee; and
(d) includes details of:
   (i) the terms of the Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
   (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
   (iii) how the Employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
   (iv) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

9.7 The Employer must give the Employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

9.8 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement by giving 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or, if the Employer and Employee agree in writing, at any time.

10. CONSULTATION REGARDING MAJOR WORKPLACE CHANGE

10.1 This clause applies if the Employer:
(a) has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on Employees; or
(b) proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

10.2 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:
(a) the termination of the employment of Employees; or
(b) major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer’s workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or
(c) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or
(e) the need to retrain Employees; or
(f) the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or
(g) the restructuring of jobs.

10.3 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures set out in this clause. If a representative is appointed and the Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative, the Employer must recognise the representative.
10.4 Major workplace change

10.4.1 Subject to this clause 10.4, where the Employer has made a definite decision to introduce a major change as per clause 10.1(a), the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the decision to introduce the major change.

10.4.2 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must discuss with the relevant Employees:
(a) the introduction of the change; and
(b) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees; and
(c) measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees.

10.4.3 For the purposes of such discussion, the Employer must provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees all relevant information about the change including:
(a) the nature of the change proposed; and
(b) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and
(c) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

10.4.4 However, the Employer is not required to disclose any confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

10.4.5 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to any matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

10.4.6 If a clause in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in this clause 10.4 do not apply.

10.5 Change to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

10.5.1 Subject to this clause 10.5, where the Employer proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees as per clause 10.1(b), the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the proposed change.

10.5.2 The Employer must discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the proposed change and, for the purposes of such discussion, provide to the relevant Employees:
(i) information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the Employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence); and
(ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the proposed change on the Employees; and
(iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees.

10.5.3 However, the Employer is not required to disclose any confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

10.5.4 The Employer must invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).
10.5.5 The Employer must give genuine consideration to any views given or matters raised about the impact of the proposed change by the relevant Employees.

10.5.6 For the purposes of this clause 10.5, the Employer's educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:
(a) may operate on a term, semester or a School Year basis, and
(b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and
(c) may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster and therefore any change to such timetable will not in and of itself attract the provisions of this clause 10.5.

10.5.7 However, where a change to the School's educational timetable directly results in a change:
(a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or
(b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee's ordinary hours are required to be worked, or
(c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, the provision of this clause 10.5 will apply.

11. MODES OF EMPLOYMENT

The Employer may employ a Full Time, Part Time, Fixed Term or Casual Employee.

The Employer may direct an Employee to perform such duties as are within the limits of the Employee's skill, competence and training.

Prior to the commencement date of employment, new staff members will receive a letter of appointment, which provides information relating to:
(a) the date on which employment commences;
(b) the date on which employment ceases (in the case of fixed term appointments);
(c) commencing classification salary and mode of payment;
(d) annual leave entitlements;
(e) superannuation arrangements;
(f) a broad description of the job as at the commencement of employment.

11.1 Full Time Employees

The Employer may engage an Employee on a full time basis in accordance with this Agreement.

11.2 Part Time Employees

11.2.1 The Employer may employ an Employee on a part time basis in accordance with this Agreement.

11.2.2 To avoid doubt, commencement of part-time employment in accordance with this Agreement and return from part-time employment to full time employment in accordance with this Agreement does not break continuity of employment.

11.2.3 The Employer will set out in writing the part time hours required upon the engagement of the Employee and at any other time when a permanent variation occurs.
11.3 Variation of days and times of attendance for part-time Employees

11.3.1 The Employer will not generally vary the time fraction, days or times of attendance of a part-time Employee during the school year unless:

(a) the Employee consents

or

(b) it can be demonstrated that such a variation is required as a result of a change in funding/curriculum/enrolment needs.

In reaching this decision the school will consider:
- the needs of the school; and
- the family needs of the Employee

11.3.2 Where such a variation is required as a result of a change in funding, enrolment or curriculum, the Employer will provide 7 weeks notice in writing, or where the change would result in a reduction in salary, the Employee's salary will be maintained for a 7 week period.

11.3.3 Where a bona fide reduction of 25% or more of a part-time Employee's FTE is proposed, the Employee may choose to accept the new position at the reduced FTE fraction or be declared redundant and receive the appropriate payment under the Agreement.

11.4 Fixed Term Employees

11.4.1 The Employer may employ an Employee to work on a replacement basis or for a specified period of time as full time or part time:
- to replace one or more Employees who are on leave;
- to undertake a specified project for which funding has been made available;
- to undertake a specified task which has a limited period of operation;
- to replace an Employee whose employment has terminated after the commencement of the School Year. The period of the appointment must not exceed the end of that School Year.

11.4.2 A Fixed Term Employee is entitled to the benefits of this Agreement on a pro rata basis where the Employee is employed part time or where the Employee has been employed for a period of less than 12 months.

11.4.3 Before employing a Fixed Term Employee on a replacement basis, the Employer will inform the Fixed Term Employee of:
- the reason for the fixed nature of the employment;
- the date of commencement of the employment;
- the benefits which are applicable under this Agreement; and
- the rights of any Employee being replaced.

11.4.4 The termination of employment of a Fixed Term Employee will be the expiry of the period of employment or, where an Employee is replacing an Employee on parental leave, in accordance with the applicable notice of termination provisions in clause 22.

11.4.5 In cases of unsatisfactory performance or conduct, a contract may be terminated prior to its expiry date in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Agreement.
11.4.6 A Fixed Term Employee is not entitled to any period of notice of termination which extends beyond the expiry of the period of employment.

11.5 Casual employees

11.5.1 The Employer may employ an Employee as a Casual Employee in accordance with this Agreement.

11.5.2 A Casual Teacher will be paid no less than the rate set out in Schedule 1B. This rate of pay includes a loading in lieu of paid leave entitlements. A Casual Education Support Staff Member will be paid according to the formula contained at 11.5.5.

11.5.3 A Casual Employee is not entitled to any of the following benefits under this Agreement:
- notice of termination of employment
- redundancy

- annual leave
- school holidays
- leave loading
- public holidays
- paid personal leave
- paid compassionate leave
- accident make-up pay

11.5.4 A Casual Employee is entitled to unpaid carer's leave, unpaid parental leave and long service leave, where eligible under this Agreement.

11.5.5 A Casual Education Support Staff member will be paid an hourly rate of pay calculated as follows:

\text{Weekly salary for 1st year for the appropriate grade} \times 1.25
37.5

11.5.6 The Employer will engage a Casual Teacher for either a full day or a half day.

11.6.7 An Employer must not employ a Casual Teacher in such a capacity for more than fifteen consecutive school days.

11.5.8 An Employer must not employ a Casual Education Support Staff Member for longer than two concurrent school terms on relieving work or to complete a fixed project. Casuals should not be employed to perform work of an ongoing nature.
PART 2: CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL EMPLOYEES COVERED BY THE AGREEMENT

12. MINIMUM TERM EMPLOYMENT PERIOD

12.1 An Employee’s employment is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a six month Minimum Term Employment Period.

12.2 The Employer is entitled to terminate the Employee’s employment during the Minimum Term Employment Period upon provision of the required notice or payment in lieu. Where the Employer determines that it is not reasonable to allow the Employee to work for the full required notice period, a reduced notice period of 4 weeks within a term will apply.

12.3 The Employee is entitled to resign during the Minimum Term Employment Period upon provision of the reduced notice period.

12.4 The Employer is not required to provide any notice or payment in lieu where the Employee is guilty of serious misconduct such that the Employer could not be expected to allow the Employee to remain employed for any of the required notice period.

12.5 Where appropriate and at the Employer’s complete discretion, the Employer may choose to follow Due Process and Performance Management processes prior to terminating an Employee during the Minimum Term Employment Period; however, this is not required.

13. RATES OF PAY

13.1 Teachers

The rates of pay for Teachers will not be less than the rates of pay shown in Schedule 1B to this Agreement.

13.2 Education Support Staff

The rates of pay for Education Support Staff will increase by the same percentage over the life of this Agreement on and from the same date as the increases paid to Teachers employed by the Employer.

14. REMUNERATION PACKAGING

14.1 Upon receiving a written election for a remuneration packaging arrangement from the Employee and provided there is no additional cost to the Employer, the Employer is prepared to offer the Employee the opportunity to receive part of the Employee’s remuneration in the form of non-cash benefits in line with legislation and Australian Taxation Office rulings until otherwise advised.

14.2 Any arrangement between the Employer and the Employee in relation to remuneration packaging will be entered into by way of a written agreement varying the Employee’s conditions of employment.

14.3 Remuneration packaging will be offered in accordance with the College Policy entitled “Salary Packaging” most recently reviewed by the College Operations Committee in 2015. This policy can only be varied if the appropriate consultative processes set out in clause 36 of this Agreement are complied with.
15. SUPERANNUATION

The Employer shall continue to make an employer superannuation contribution in accordance with Superannuation Guarantee legislation, to a complying superannuation fund nominated by the Employee. Each employee shall be provided with a superannuation choice form upon commencement. Should the Employee not nominate a complying superannuation fund for this purpose, the contribution will be made to the College’s default fund, Combined Super.

16. PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

Salary will be paid by credit transfer to the Employee’s nominated financial institution account on a fortnightly basis.

17. PERSONAL LEAVE

Personal/carer’s leave is provided by the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

17.1 Entitlement

17.1.1 An Employee, other than a Casual Employee, is entitled to a paid personal leave entitlement, which includes both sick leave and carer’s leave.

17.1.2 Sick leave is to be taken by the Employee because of a personal illness or injury.

17.1.3 Carer’s leave is taken by the Employee to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s immediate family or household who requires care or support because of a personal illness, injury, or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

17.1.4 A Full-Time Employee is entitled to 18 days paid personal leave each year.

17.1.4.1 Within this entitlement of 18 days, a Full-Time Employee is entitled to 15 days of paid personal leave that can be used as either sick leave or carer’s leave in each year of service. Personal leave from this 15 day entitlement that is unused in each year of service will accrue.

17.1.4.2 Within this entitlement of 18 days, a Full-Time Employee is entitled to 3 days of designated paid carer’s leave in each year of service. Carer’s leave from this 3 day entitlement that is unused in each year of service will not accrue.

17.1.5 Where a Full-Time Employee has a need for personal leave that exceeds the Employee’s accrued entitlement at the time that leave is needed, the Employee is entitled to paid personal leave in advance of accrual up to the annual entitlement of 18 days, subject to meeting the evidentiary requirements in Clause 17.2.

17.1.6 Personal leave may be taken for part of a single day.

17.1.7 A Part-time Employee is entitled to paid personal leave on an equivalent pro-rata basis.

17.1.8 To avoid doubt there is no limit on the amount of accrued personal leave that an Employee is entitled to use as carer’s leave in any one period of time subject to meeting the evidentiary requirements in Clause 17.2.
17.1.9 Where an employee (including as Casual Employee) has exhausted the paid personal leave entitlement, the Employee may take up to three days unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to three days, or for any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

17.2 Evidence required

17.2.1 Where requested, an Employee is required to provide to the Employer a certificate from a registered health practitioner or statutory declaration or other evidence to the Employer’s reasonable satisfaction in the following circumstances:
- For any absence on sick or carer’s leave of more than two consecutive days;
- For any absence on sick or carer’s leave continuous with a holiday to which the Employee is entitled and which would otherwise not require the production of a certificate; and
- Where the number of days of paid sick or carer’s leave already taken without the production of a certificate, statutory declaration or other evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person exceeds five days in one school year.

18. COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

18.1 An Employee may take up to 3 days paid leave when a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household dies or when the Employee’s Immediate Family or household member contracts or develops a personal injury or illness that poses a serious threat to life.

18.2 This leave may be taken in a single unbroken period or in separate periods of one day each or as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

18.3 If requested to do so by the Employer, the Employee is required to give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the Employee is entitled to take compassionate leave.

19. INFECTIOUS DISEASES LEAVE

19.1 An Employee who is suffering from one of the following infectious diseases will be granted special leave without deduction of pay, provided the Employee can produce medical advice confirming that the disease was contracted through a contact at the School:
- German measles
- Chickenpox
- Measles
- Mumps
- Scarlet fever
- Whooping cough
- Rheumatic fever
- Hepatitis
- SARS, bird flu, swine flu or other contagious disease of similar severity.

19.2 The Employee must, at the request of the Employer, produce a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner which specifically names the disease as soon as is reasonably practicable.
20. INFECTIOUS DISEASES AND PREGNANT EMPLOYEES

20.1 Where a pregnant Employee is working in close proximity to a person who is found to have a contagious disease, the Employee will be either:

- Transferred to a safe work area if possible; or
- Sent home and placed on special leave with pay until the person is either no longer contagious or is removed from the area in which the Employee works.

21. PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

21.1 An Employee is entitled to public holidays as specified in the Public Holidays Act 1993 (Vic) and as gazetted by the Victorian Government from time to time.

These include the following:
- New Year’s Day, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, Easter Monday, Christmas Day and Boxing Day; and
- the following days, as prescribed in Victoria: Australia Day, Anzac Day, Queen's Birthday and Labour Day; and
- Melbourne Cup Day or any other day substituted by an Act of Parliament or Proclamation.

21.2 For Employees in receipt of paid School Holidays, public holidays that occur during School Holidays do not create an additional entitlement.

21.3 By agreement between the Employer and the majority of affected Employees, an alternative day may be taken as the public holiday in lieu of any of the specified days.

21.4 The Employer and an Employee may agree to the Employee taking another day as the public holiday in lieu of the specified day.

21.5 An agreement made in accordance with clause 21.4 must be recorded in writing and made available to every affected Employee.

22. PARENTAL LEAVE

22.1 Unpaid Parental Leave Entitlement

An Employee, upon the completion of 12 months of continuous service with the Employer, is entitled to up to 156 weeks unpaid parental leave in relation to the birth or adoption of a child.

22.1.1 Types of Parental Leave

22.1.1.1 Unpaid parental leave includes ordinary parental leave, special parental leave and adoption leave.

22.1.1.2 Ordinary parental leave is taken in connection with the birth of a child of the Employee or the Employee’s spouse.

22.1.1.3 Adoption leave is taken in connection with the adoption of a child by the Employee or the Employee’s spouse.
22.1.4 Special parental leave is taken:
- When the pregnancy of an Employee not already on parental leave terminates within 28 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child otherwise than by the birth of a living child,
- Where the Employee suffers a pregnancy related illness.

22.1.2 Eligibility

22.1.2.1 Unpaid parental leave applies to an Employee, other than a Casual Employee who is not an eligible casual employee, who has or will have responsibility for the care of the child.

22.1.2.2 The Employer must not fail to re-engage a Casual Employee because:
(a) the Employee or Employee's spouse is pregnant; or
(b) the Employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

22.1.2.3 The rights of the Employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of a Casual Employee is not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

22.1.3 Definitions

22.1.3.1 For the purposes of this clause, child means a child of the Employee under the age of five years or under school age, whichever applies first. Except that for the purposes of adoption, a child is an eligible child and means a person under the age of sixteen years who is placed with the Employee, other than a child or step-child of the Employee or of the spouse of the Employee or a child who has previously lived continuously with the Employee for a period of six months or more.

22.1.3.2 For the purposes of this clause, an eligible casual employee means a Casual Employee:

(a) who has been engaged by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment during a period of at least 12 months; and
(b) who, but for an expected birth or an expected placement of a child, would have a reasonable expectation of continuing engagement by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis.

22.1.3.3 For the purposes of this clause, continuous service includes a period during which the Casual Employee was engaged on a regular and systematic basis by the Employer and during the casual period, the Employee had a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the Employer. A period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Employee's continuity of employment but does not count as employment or service.

22.1.3.4 A spouse includes a former spouse, a de facto spouse and a former de facto spouse, whether of the opposite or same sex.
22.1.4 Concurrent Leave

22.1.4.1 Parental leave is available to both employees who are part of an "employee couple" (i.e. where both parents are employed, not necessarily by the same employer). When both members of an employee couple take parental leave at the same time, it is called "concurrent leave".

22.1.4.2 Parental leave is only available to one parent at a time in a single unbroken period, except that both parents are entitled to take an unbroken concurrent period of eight (8) weeks for ordinary parental leave and eight (8) weeks for adoption leave.

22.1.5 Subsequent Pregnancies

In the event that an Employee has a subsequent child within the 156 week period, the entitlement to parental leave will be the greater of an additional 52 weeks or to the end of the 156 week period, at the discretion of the Employer.

22.1.6 Variation of Leave

22.1.6.1 Where an Employee has commenced a period of parental leave of up to 156 weeks, the Employee may apply to the Employer to change the period of parental leave on one occasion.

22.1.6.2 Any such application must be received preferably seven (7) weeks but no less than four (4) weeks prior to the commencement of the changed arrangements.

22.1.6.3 The period of parental leave may be shortened or lengthened at any time by written agreement between the Employer and the Employee.

22.1.7 Ordinary Parental Leave

22.1.7.1 Unless agreed otherwise between the Employer and Employee, an Employee may commence ordinary parental leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth.

22.1.7.2 Where a pregnant Employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth of the child, the Employer may require the Employee to provide a medical certificate from a medical practitioner stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.

22.1.7.3 The Employer may require a pregnant Employee to start a continuous period of leave as soon as reasonably practicable if the Employee does not give the Employer a medical certificate within seven days after the request or if the Employee gives the Employer a medical certificate stating that the Employee is unfit to work.

22.1.7.4 Where a pregnant Employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, the Employer may require the Employee to provide a medical certificate from a medical practitioner stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.
22.1.8 Special Parental Leave

22.1.8.1 A Pregnant Female Employee is entitled to a period of special parental leave as stated in a medical certificate given to the Employer in accordance with clause 22.1.12.1. The Employee is not entitled to special parental leave for any period longer than that specified in the medical certificate.

22.1.8.2 Where an Employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the confinement, an Employee may take any paid sick leave to which she is entitled in lieu of, or in addition to, special parental leave.

22.1.8.3 Where an Employee not then on parental leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy, she may take any paid sick leave to which she is then entitled and such further unpaid special parental leave as a registered medical practitioner certifies as necessary before her return to work. The aggregate of paid sick leave, special parental leave, ordinary parental leave, and maternity leave taken may not exceed 156 weeks.

22.1.8.4 During a period of special parental leave, an Employee may return to work at any time as agreed between the Employer and the Employee, provided that time does not exceed four weeks from the recommencement date desired by the Employee.

22.1.8.5 A period of special parental leave must end before the Employee starts any continuous period of leave including (or constituted by) ordinary parental leave.

22.1.9 Adoption Leave

22.1.9.1 An Employee may take:
(a) adoption leave to which he or she is entitled at any time within the period of 3 weeks starting on the day of placement of the child, and/or
(b) adoption leave to which he or she is entitled at any time within 156 weeks of the day of placement of the child.

22.1.9.2 Where the placement of a child for adoption with an Employee
• does not commence, the Employee is not entitled to leave; or
• commences but is discontinued or cancelled,
the Employee's entitlement to adoption leave is not affected. However, the Employer may give the Employee written notice that, from a stated day no earlier than 4 weeks after the day the notice is given, any untaken long adoption leave that the Employee remains entitled to at the stated day is cancelled with effect from that day.

22.1.9.3 An Employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations which are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The Employee and the Employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the Employee is entitled to take up to two days unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the Employee, the Employer may require the Employee to take such leave instead.
22.1.10 Notice and Evidence Requirements

22.1.10.1 An Employee must provide notice and documentary evidence to the Employer in advance of the expected date of commencement of parental leave.

22.1.10.2 However, an Employee will not be in breach of any of the requirements of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by confinement occurring earlier than the presumed date or any other compelling reason. In such circumstances, notice and/or evidence required should be provided as soon as reasonably practicable.

22.1.11 Ordinary Parental Leave: Notice and Evidence Requirements

(a) No later than ten (10) weeks before the expected date of birth, the Employee must provide the Employer with:
   • notice in writing of the expected date of confinement; and
   • a certificate from a registered medical practitioner stating that the Employee or the Employee’s spouse is pregnant; and

(b) No later than four (4) weeks before the first day of the intended period of leave, the Employee must provide the Employer with:

(i) a medical certificate from a medical practitioner containing the following statements:
   • that the Employee was pregnant, but that the pregnancy has ended otherwise than by the birth of a living child;
   • what the expected date of birth would have been if the pregnancy had gone to full term;
   • that the pregnancy ended on a stated day within 28 weeks before the expected date of birth; and
   • that the Employee is, was, or will be unfit for work during a stated period, and, where requested:

pregnancy-related illness or the end of the pregnancy; and
• that the Employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with the contract of employment while on special parental leave.

22.1.12.2 An application for special parental leave required because of a pregnancy-related illness must:
• State the first and last days of the period of special parental leave; and
• Be accompanied by a medical certificate from a medical practitioner stating – o That the Employee is pregnant, o The expected date of birth; and o That the Employee is, was, or will be unfit to work for a stated period because of a pregnancy-related illness.

22.1.13 Adoption Leave: Notice and Evidence Requirements

22.1.13.1 As soon as reasonably practicable after receiving notice of the approval of the placement of an eligible child with the Employee (a placement approval notice) an Employee must give written notice to his or her Employer of the Employee's intention to apply for adoption leave.

22.1.13.2 As soon as reasonably practicable after receiving notice of the expected placement day of an eligible child with the Employee (a placement notice), an Employee must give written notice to his or her Employer of:
• The Employee's intention to apply for adoption leave;
• The day when the placement of an eligible child with the Employee is expected to start;
• The first and last days of the periods of adoption leave the Employee intends to apply for because of the placement:
  (a) if the Employee receives a placement notice about the placement within the period of 8 weeks after receiving the placement approval notice - before the end of that 8-week period; or
  (b) if the Employee receives a placement notice about the placement after the end of the period of 8 weeks after receiving the placement approval notice - as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the placement notice.

22.1.13.3 Where the Employee is applying for a period of concurrent leave of 8 weeks or less, the Employee must provide a written application to his or her Employer for adoption leave, stating the first and last dates of the period, no later than 14 days before the expected day of placement.

22.1.13.4 Where an Employee is the primary care-giver and is applying for a period of leave of 8 weeks or more, the Employee must provide a written application to his or her Employer for adoption leave, stating the first and last dates of the period, no later than 10 weeks before the first day of the proposed period of leave including (or constituted by) the adoption leave applied for.
22.1.13.5 The Employee must also give his or her Employer the following documents:

a) a statement from the adoption agency of the day when the placement is expected to start, and, where requested:

   (v) that the Employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his or her contract of employment while on adoption leave.

22.1.14 Parental Leave and Other Entitlements

An Employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which the Employee has accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 156 weeks, or a longer period if agreed.

22.1.15 Transfer to Safe Work

Where an Employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the Employee make it advisable for the Employee to continue at her present work, the Employee will, if the Employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

22.1.15.1 This subclause applies to an Employee if
(a) the Employee is entitled to ordinary parental leave; and
(b) the Employee has already complied with the documentation requirements set out in this Agreement; and
(c) the Employee gives her Employer a medical certificate from a medical practitioner containing a statement to the effect that, in the medical practitioner's opinion, the Employee is fit to work, but that it is inadvisable for her to continue in her present position for a stated period because of:
   (i) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy; or
   (ii) hazards connected with that position.

22.1.15.2 If the Employer does not think it to be reasonably practicable to transfer the Employee to a safe job:
(a) the Employee may take leave, at the rate of pay and conditions attaching to the job held prior to taking leave, immediately for a period ending at the time mentioned in clause 2.1.15.3 (b); or
(b) the Employer may require the Employee to take leave, at the rate of pay and conditions attaching to the job held prior to taking leave, immediately for a period ending at the time mentioned in clause 22.1.15.3 (b).
22.1.15.3 If the Employee takes paid leave:
(a) the entitlement to leave is in addition to any other leave entitlement she has; and
(b) the period of leave ends at the earliest of whichever of the following times is applicable:
(i) The end of the period stated in the medical certificate;
(ii) If the Employee’s pregnancy results in the birth of a living child - the end of the day before the date of birth;
(iii) If the Employee’s pregnancy ends otherwise than with the birth of a living child - the end of the day before the end of the pregnancy.

22.1.16 Return to Work

22.1.16.1 An Employee will give as much notice as possible of the Employee’s intention to return to work after a period of parental leave, but no less than four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

22.1.16.2 An Employee will be entitled to the position which the Employee held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an Employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 22.1.15, the Employee will be entitled to return to the position the Employee held immediately before such transfer. A part-time Teacher will be entitled to the same time fraction.

22.1.16.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the Employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the Employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the Employee’s former position.

22.1.16.4 For the purposes of this clause, position includes a position of responsibility for an Employee who is a Teacher but does not necessarily include the same classes and/or subjects.

22.1.17 Consultation During Parental Leave

22.1.17.1 Where an Employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the Employer shall take reasonable steps to:
(a) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave; and
(b) provide an opportunity for the Employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave.

22.1.17.2 The Employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Employee’s decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the Employee intends to return to work and whether the Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

22.1.17.3 The Employee shall also notify the Employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer’s capacity to comply with this clause.
22.1.18 Right to Request Flexible Working Arrangements

22.1.18.1 An Employee who is a parent or has responsibility for the care of a child and is returning to work after taking leave in relation to the birth or adoption of a child may ask the Employer to work part-time or for another change in working arrangements to assist the employee to care for the child.

22.1.18.2 Examples of other changes in working arrangements include, but are not limited to, changes in hours of work, changes in patterns of work and changes in location of work.

22.1.18.3 The request must be in writing and set out the details of the change sought and of the reasons for the change.

22.1.18.4 The Employer must give the Employee a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request.

22.1.18.5 The Employer shall consider any request for flexible arrangements made pursuant to this clause 22.1.18 having regard to the Employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the Employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the Employer's business. Such grounds might include (but are not limited to) cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

22.1.18.6 If the Employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

22.2 Paid Parental Leave

22.2.1 Where the College employs both parents of the child, only one parent will be entitled to receive payment pursuant to this clause.

22.2.2 Payment pursuant to this clause cannot be taken concurrently with any other paid leave entitlement.

22.2.3 Where an Employee is granted unpaid parental leave to be the primary caregiver of a child, the Employee is entitled to a payment equivalent to fourteen weeks wages at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay immediately prior to the commencement of parental leave provided that the leave would otherwise have been unpaid and is taken either before the child is 14 weeks old or, for adoption leave, during the first 14 weeks of the child's placement with the employee. If requested by the Employee, this entitlement may be taken as 28 weeks at half pay. This entitlement is in addition to any available Government provision.

Where an Employee is granted unpaid parental leave at the time of the birth of a child or placement of a child for adoption and is not the primary caregiver of the child, the Employee is entitled to a payment at the ordinary rate of pay of up to two weeks of parental or adoption leave that would otherwise have been unpaid leave, provided the leave is taken within 6 weeks of the child first arriving at the primary caregiver's residence.
22.2.4 Further Payment

22.2.4.1 An employee must return to work and complete a further period of at least 12 months service prior to being eligible for any subsequent period of paid parental leave.

22.2.4.2 Where an employee has less than 12 months service with the College following a period of parental leave, the employee may make application for payment, citing reasons in support of the payment.

22.4.2.3 Payment, on a pro-rata basis, may be made at the discretion of the Principal.

23. DOMESTIC VIOLENCE LEAVE PROVISION

23.1 General Principle:
The Employer recognises that Employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that may affect their attendance or performance at work. Therefore, the Employer is committed to providing support to Employees who experience family violence.

23.2 Definition of Family Violence:
For the purposes of this Agreement the Employer accepts the definition of family violence as stipulated in the Family Violence Protection Act 2008 (Vic). The definition of family violence includes physical, sexual, financial, verbal or emotional abuse by a family member.

23.3 General Measures

23.3.1 Proof of family violence may be required and can be in the form of an agreed document issued by the police service, a court, a doctor, district nurse, maternal and health care nurse, a family violence support service or lawyer. A signed statutory declaration may also be accepted as proof. The Employee must provide any proof requested prior to taking leave or where this is not possible as soon as is reasonably practicable after the leave has been taken.

23.3.2 All personal information concerning family violence will be kept confidential in line with the Employer’s policies and relevant legislation. The Employer will not disclose the information unless required by law or where it is necessary to ensure the safety of any Employee, student or visitor to the Employer.

23.3.3 The Employer will not discriminate against an Employee who has been subjected to domestic violence in terms of their existing employment or career development.

23.3.4 The Employer will identify contact/s trained in family violence and privacy issues, for example training in family violence risk assessment and risk management. The Employer will advertise the name of the contact within the school.
23.4 Leave

23.4.1 An Employee who is a victim of or a witness to family violence within their own family or household will have access to up to five (5) days per year of paid special leave for medical appointments, legal appointments or proceedings, counselling and other activities related to family violence. This leave will be in addition to existing leave entitlements and may be taken as consecutive or single days or as a fraction of a day (half day or quarter day) and can (subject to compliance with clause 23.3.1) be taken in an emergency situation without giving the Employer prior notice. Where the Employee knows in advance of the need to access this leave, the Employee will be expected to provide the Employer with reasonable notice.

23.4.2 If proof is requested, the Employee must comply with clause 23.3.1 in order to be paid for this leave.

23.4.3 This leave is not cumulative and expires at the end of each 12 month period of employment.

23.5 Individual Support

23.5.1 Subject to clause 23.5.2, in order to provide support to an Employee who is a victim of or a witness to family violence within their own family or household and to provide a safe work environment to all Employees, the Employer will approve any reasonable request from an Employee experiencing family violence for:

(a) Changes to their span of hours or pattern or hours
(b) Job redesign or changes to duties
(c) Relocation to suitable employment within the School
(d) A change to the Employee's work telephone number or email address to avoid harassing contact
(e) Any other appropriate measures.

23.5.2 Any request by an Employee must be made in writing and may be refused based on reasonable business grounds.

23.5.3 An Employee experiencing family violence will have access to the Employer’s Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and/or other local resources.

24. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

24.1 Eligibility

24.1.1 A Full-Time Employee accrues Long Service Leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks per year of service.

24.1.2 An Employee becomes entitled to access his or her pro-rata Long Service Leave accrual after 7 years of continuous service.

24.1.3 An Employee whose service has been all full-time or all at the same part-time fraction is paid during Long Service Leave at the Employee's normal salary.

24.1.4 For Employees with variations in employment fraction during the period of service, the following applies:

- Full-time service will accrue at full-time rates;
- Part-time service will accrue pro-rata on the basis of time fraction over the period of service.
24.1.5 Accrued Long Service Leave will be paid in lieu where an Employee's employment is terminated for any reason (except serious misconduct) after seven years of continuous employment.

24.1.6 Accrued Long Service Leave will be paid in lieu to an Employee's personal representative where the Employee dies at any point during the employment with Long Service Leave entitlements accrued but not yet taken.

24.2 Illness on Long Service Leave

24.2.1 Subject to the production of a supporting medical certificate, an Employee who becomes ill whilst on Long Service Leave is entitled to have the period of illness treated as sick leave but only to the extent that the Employee is entitled to sick leave.

24.2.2 Subject to clause 24.2.1, the Employee's Long Service Leave will either be extended by the period of illness, or the Employer and the Employee may agree that the Employee will return from Long Service Leave as planned with the period of illness increasing the Employee's accrued Long Service Leave entitlement.

24.2.3 The Employee's application under this clause must as far as practicable:
- be received by the Employer during the period of illness or injury;

51.4 The Employer and an Education Support Staff member may agree at any time upon the arrangement for the Education Support Staff member’s hours of work as follows:
   (a) Daily starting and finishing times
   (b) The time and duration of meal breaks, provided the meal break is not less than 30 minutes and is commenced not more than five hours after commencing work
   (c) Attendance at meetings

51.5 An Employee will not be required to work more than five hours without an unpaid break for a meal, totally free from any duties, of not less than 30 minutes.

51.6 At a time suitable for the Employer, an Employee is entitled to a rest break of 10 minutes which will be counted as time worked, for each period of three hours worked, with a maximum of two rest breaks per shift. The Employer and an Employee may agree to one rest break of 20 minutes in place of the two 10 minute rest breaks.
51.7 The Employer may require a full-time or part-time Employee to work reasonable additional hours. Any time worked in excess of ordinary hours on Monday – Saturday, will be paid the rate of 150% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first three hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay thereafter. Any time worked in excess of ordinary hours on Sunday will be paid the rate of 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay. Any time worked in excess of ordinary hours on public holidays will be paid the rate of 250% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay. In computing overtime each day’s work shall stand alone. The number of reasonable additional hours which an Employee may be required to work per week may only exceed three by mutual agreement.

51.8 An Employee and an Employer may agree that an Employee will be provided with time off instead of being paid an overtime payment for all authorised work performed outside of or in excess of the ordinary or rostered hours.

51.9 Overtime taken as time off during ordinary time hours must be taken at the ordinary time rate, that is, an hour for each hour worked.

51.10 Where an Employee and Employer have agreed to time off instead of overtime payment and such time has not been taken:
(i) within four weeks of accrual; or
(ii) during the non-term weeks agreed in writing between the Employer and the Employee, the Employer must, if requested by the Employee, provide payment at the rate provided for overtime, for any overtime worked.

51.11 The requirement to work beyond ordinary hours shall be determined by the Principal or Business Manager.

51.12 An Employee may elect with the consent of the Employer to work make-up time under which the Employee takes time off during ordinary hours, and works those hours at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours provided in the agreement.

51.13 Where the Employer requests an Education Support Staff member to work more than five hours in excess of the ordinary hours of work in any consecutive five day period, the Education Support Staff member may refuse to work all hours in excess of five hours.

52. ANNUAL LEAVE

An Annual Leave entitlement of 5 weeks, 6 weeks, 8 weeks, paid School Holidays or other entitlement will be determined by the Employer, according to the position occupied by the Education Support Staff member.

52.1 Annual leave for Education Support Staff in receipt of 5, 6 or 8 weeks annual leave.

52.1.1 An Education Support Staff member paid in accordance with Schedule 2A of this Agreement will, other than in circumstances prescribed in clause 49.1.3 be entitled to 5, 6 or 8 weeks Annual Leave exclusive of Public Holidays falling within such leave, and inclusive of College shut-down periods.

52.1.2 Annual leave will ordinarily be taken during school holidays other than with agreement of the Employer.

52.1.3 Where an Education Support Staff member takes leave without pay or unpaid carer’s leave in excess of ten working days in any school year, the Education Support Staff member’s entitlement to annual leave will be calculated on the basis of one twelfth of that Employee’s number of working weeks (excluding paid holiday periods already received, periods of leave without pay and unpaid carer’s leave).
52.1.4 Where an Education Support Staff member’s entitlement to paid annual leave has been reduced pursuant to clause 52.1.3 the period which, but for that reduction, would have been paid annual leave will be unpaid leave (other than leave without pay or unpaid carer’s leave) and will be counted as service for all purposes of the Agreement.

52.1.5 An Education Support Staff member who is employed for only part of a school year will be paid a pro-rata holiday entitlement calculated on the basis of one twelfth of that Education Support Staff member’s number of working weeks (excluding paid holiday periods) at the rate applicable at the time leave is taken or employment is terminated.

52.1.6 Where an Education Support Staff member is employed with an entitlement to 5, 6 or 8 weeks annual leave, leave must ordinarily be taken within 12 months of its accrual; otherwise the Employer may consult with the Employee about taking such accrued leave at a mutually agreeable time. Requests for annual leave to be carried over beyond this period may be approved at the discretion of the Principal.

52.2 Annual leave for Education Support Staff in receipt of paid school holidays

52.2.1 An Education Support Staff Member paid in accordance with Schedule 2A of this Agreement will other than in circumstances prescribed in clause 52.2.2 be entitled to School Holidays without deduction of pay. School Holidays are defined at clause 7.

52.2.2 Where an Education Support Staff member takes leave without pay or unpaid carer’s leave in excess of ten working days in any School Year, the Education Support Staff member’s entitlement to School Holidays will, at the discretion of the Principal, be calculated on the basis of one third of that Education Support Staff member’s number of working weeks (excluding paid holiday periods already, received, periods of leave without pay and unpaid carer’s leave).

52.2.3 Where an Education Support Staff Member’s entitlement to paid annual leave has been reduced pursuant to clause 52.2.2, the period which, but for that reduction, would have been paid annual leave will be unpaid leave (other than leave without pay or unpaid carer’s leave) and will be counted as service for all purposes of the Agreement.

52.2.4 An Education Support Staff Member who is employed for part only of a school year will be paid a pro-rata holiday entitlement calculated on the basis of one third of that Education Support Staff member’s number of working weeks (excluding paid holiday periods) at the rate of pay applicable at the time leave is taken or employment is terminated.

52.2.5 Public holidays that occur during a period of School Holidays for Employees do not create an additional entitlement.

53. NOTICE OF TERMINATION

53.1 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of an Education Support Staff member, 4 weeks notice in writing, or full payment in lieu, will be provided to the Education Support Staff member. Where an Education Support Staff member is entitled to School Holidays, notice is to be given wholly within the one school term.

53.2 In addition to the period of notice specified above, an Education Support Staff member over 45 years of age at the time of being given notice with not less than 2 years of continuous service will be entitled to an additional week’s notice.
53.3 Payment in lieu of notice is calculated by taking the amount of salary and rates of pay in Schedule 2A that an Education Support Staff member would have received by working during the notice period in the Education Support Staff member's employment had not been terminated.

53.4 An Education Support Staff member must provide the Employer with a minimum of 4 weeks notice in writing. Where an Education Support Staff Member is entitled to School Holidays, notice is to be given wholly within the one school term.

53.5 The notice period in clauses 53.1 and 53.2 does not apply where the Education Support Staff member is guilty of serious misconduct.

54. PART-TIME EDUCATION SUPPORT STAFF

54.1 A Part-Time Education Support Staff member's time fraction will be calculated as follows:

\text{Number of hours worked per week} = \frac{37.5}{\text{Number of hours worked per week}}

54.2 Part-time Education Support Staff members have pro-rata entitlement to annual and personal leave.

54.3 In the event of a particular meeting, excursion or other occasion at which the Employer deems attendance by a Part-Time Education Support Staff Member on a day off to be essential, the Employer will discuss the circumstances and the conditions with the Part-Time Education Support Staff Member prior to the event, with the aim of reaching a mutually satisfactory outcome.

54.4 Part-Time Education Support Staff Members are entitled to professional learning during school hours, and/or funded by the College, in proportion with their time fraction. Where approved professional learning falls on a Part-Time Education Support Staff Member's day off, it is the Part-Time Education Support Staff Member's decision whether or not to attend and application for special payment is not applicable.

1C.3.3 Positions of Responsibility Annual Allowance scale

| Positions of Responsibility allowances from first full pay period in February 2016 |

2A.3 Part Time Salary
A Part Time Education Support Staff member will be paid pro rata of the salary that the Education Support Staff member would be entitled to receive if employed as a Full Time Education Support Staff member. The pro rata weekly salary is calculated using the following formula:

2A.4 Incremental advancement

SCHEDULE 2C: DETAILS OF CLASSIFICATION STRUCTURE EDUCATION SUPPORT STAFF

(from Educational Services (Schools) General Staff Award 2010)

2C.1 Definitions

2C.1.1 Definition 1: Supervision

Close supervision: clear and detailed instructions are provided. Tasks are covered by standard procedures. Deviations from procedures or unfamiliar situations are referred to higher levels. Work is regularly checked.

Routine supervision: direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods. Guidance on the approach to standard circumstances is provided in procedures, guidance on the approach to non-standard circumstances is provided by a supervisor. Checking is selective rather than constant.

General direction: direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the employee determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. There is some scope to determine an approach in the absence of established procedures or detailed instructions, but guidance is readily available. When performance is checked, it is on assignment completion.

Broad direction: direction is provided in terms of objectives which may require the planning of staff, time and material resources for their completion. Limited detailed guidance will be available and the development or modification of procedures by the employee may be required. Performance will be measured against objectives.

2C.1.2 Definition 2: Qualifications

Within the Australian Qualifications Framework:

(a) Year 12
   Completion of a senior secondary certificate of education, usually in Year 12 of secondary school.

(b) Trade certificate
   Completion of an apprenticeship, normally of four years’ duration, or equivalent recognition, e.g. Certificate III.

(c) Post-trade certificate
   A course of study over and above a trade certificate and less than a Certificate IV.

(d) Certificates I and II
   Courses that recognise basic vocational skills and knowledge, without a Year 12 prerequisite.

(e) Certificate III
   A course that provides a range of well-developed skills and is comparable to a trade certificate.

(f) Certificate IV
   A course that provides greater breadth and depth of skill and knowledge and is comparable to a two year part-time post-Year 12 or post-trade certificate course.
(g) Diploma
A course at a higher education or vocational Education and training institution, typically equivalent to two years’ full-time post-Year 12 study.

(h) Advanced diploma
A course at a higher education or vocational Education and training institution, typically equivalent to three years’ full-time post-Year 12 study.

(i) Degree
A recognised degree from a higher education institution, often completed in three or four years, and sometimes combined with a one year diploma.

(j) Postgraduate degree
A recognised postgraduate degree, over and above a degree as defined above.

NOTE: Previously recognised qualifications obtained prior to the implementation of the Australian Qualifications Framework continue to be recognised. The above definitions also include equivalent recognised overseas qualifications.

2C.1.3 Definition 3: Classification dimensions

(a) Competency
The skill, complexity and responsibility of tasks typically required at each classification level.

(b) Judgment, independence and problem solving
Judgment is the ability to make sound decisions, recognising the consequences of decisions taken or actions performed. Independence is the extent to which an employee is able (or allowed) to work effectively without supervision or direction. Problem solving is the process of defining or selecting the appropriate course of action where alternative courses of actions are available. This dimension looks at how much of each of these three qualities applies at each classification level.

(c) Level of supervision
This dimension covers both the way in which employees are supervised or managed and the role of employees in supervising or managing others.

(d) Training level or qualifications
The type and duration of training which the duties of the classification level typically require for effective performance. Training is the process of acquiring skills and knowledge through formal education, on-the-job instruction or exposure to procedures.

(e) Occupational equivalent
Examples of occupations typically falling within each classification level.

(f) Typical activities
Examples of activities typically undertaken by employees in different roles at each of the classification levels. Examples of occupational equivalent positions are provided. Reference to small, medium and large schools is made, based upon student enrolment. A small school enrols less than 300 students, a medium school enrols between 300 and 600 students and a large school enrols more than 600 students.
2C.2 Classifications

2C.2.1 Level 1

An employee at this level will learn and gain competency in the basic skills required by the employer. In the event that the increased skills/competency are required and utilised by the employer, classification to a higher level within the structure may be possible.

Competency
Competency involves application of knowledge and skills to a limited range of tasks and roles. There is a specific range of contexts where the choice of actions is clear. The competencies are normally used within established routines, methods and procedures that are predictable. Judgments against established criteria may also be required.

Judgment, independence and problem solving
The employee follows standard procedures in a predefined order. The employee resolves problems where alternatives for the employee are limited and the required action is clear or can be readily referred to a more senior employee.

Level of supervision
Close supervision or, in the case of more experienced employees working alone, routine supervision.

Training level or qualifications
An employee is not required to have formal qualifications or work experience upon engagement. An employee will be provided with on-the-job training which will provide information about, and/or an introduction to, the conditions of employment, the school, the school’s policies and procedures in relation to the work environment and the employees with whom the employee will be working.

Typical activities

(i) Classroom support services grade 1
• Providing general assistance of a supportive nature to teachers, as directed
