5. No Further Claims

The parties to this Agreement agree that until the nominal expiry date passes employees will not make any further claims in respect of salaries or other conditions of employment.

6. Definitions and Interpretation

6.1 In this Agreement, unless the contrary intention appears:

Act means the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)

7. The National Employment Standards and this Agreement

The NES and this Agreement contain the minimum conditions of employment for employees covered by this Agreement.

8. Agreement Flexibility

8.1 An employer and employee covered by this enterprise agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the agreement if:

(a) the agreement deals with 1 or more of the following matters:
   (i) arrangements about when work is performed;
   (ii) overtime rates;
   (iii) penalty rates; and
   (iv) allowances.

(b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the employer and employee in relation to 1 or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a); and

(c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the employer and employee.

8.2 The employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and

(b) are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Fair Work Act 2009; and

(c) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.

8.3 The employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) is in writing; and

(b) includes the name of the employer and employee; and

(c) is signed by the employer and employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and

(d) includes details of:
(i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
(iii) how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
(e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

8.4 The employer must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

8.5 The employer or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
(a) by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
(b) if the employer and employee agree in writing—at any time.

Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

9. Consultation

9.1 Consultation Regarding Major Workplace Change

(a) Employer to notify

(i) Where the employer has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on employees, the employer must notify the employees who may be affected by the proposed changes and their representatives, if any.

(ii) Significant effects include termination of employment; major changes in the composition, operation or size of the employer's workforce or in the skills required; the elimination or diminution of job opportunities, promotion opportunities or job tenure; the alteration of hours of work; the need for retraining or transfer of employees to other work or locations; and the restructuring of jobs. Provided that where this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of these matters an alteration is deemed not to have significant effect.

(b) Employer to discuss change

(i) The employer must discuss with the employees affected and their representatives, if any, the introduction of the changes referred to in clause 9.1(a), the effects the changes are likely to have on employees and measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on employees and must give prompt consideration to matters raised by the employees and/or their representatives in relation to the changes.

(ii) The discussions must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in clause 9.1(a).

(iii) For the purposes of such discussion, the employer must provide in writing to the employees concerned and their representatives, if any, all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on employees and any other matters likely to affect...
employees provided that no employer is required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be contrary to the employer's interests.

9.2 Consultation About Changes to Rosters or Hours of Work

(a) Where the employer proposes to change an employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work, the employer must consult with the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, about the proposed change.

(b) The employer must:
   (i) provide to the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence);
   (ii) invite the employee or employees affected and their representatives, if any, to give their views about the impact of the proposed change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities); and
   (iii) give consideration to any views about the impact of the proposed change that are given by the employee or employees concerned and/or their representatives.

(c) The requirement to consult under this clause does not apply where an employee has irregular, sporadic or unpredictable working hours.

(d) These provisions are to be read in conjunction with other Agreement provisions concerning the scheduling of work and notice requirements.

10. Dispute Resolution

10.1 In the event of a dispute about a matter under this Agreement, or a dispute in relation to the NES, in the first instance the parties must attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and the relevant supervisor. If such discussions do not resolve the dispute, the parties will endeavour to resolve the dispute in a timely manner by discussions between the employee or employees concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.

10.2 If a dispute about a matter arising under this Agreement or a dispute in relation to the NES is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all appropriate steps under clause 10.1 have been taken, a party to the dispute may refer the dispute to the Fair Work Commission.

10.3 The Fair Work Commission may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:

   (a) The Fair Work Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and

   (b) If the Fair Work Commission is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the Fair Work Commission may then:
       (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
       (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If Fair Work Commission arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.
A decision that Fair Work Commission makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Div 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

10.3 Where the matter in dispute remains unresolved the Fair Work Commission may exercise any method of dispute resolution permitted by the Act that it considers appropriate to ensure the settlement of the dispute.

10.4 The employer or employee may appoint at any time another person, organisation or association to accompany and/or represent them for the purposes of this clause.

10.5 While the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted, work must continue in accordance with this Agreement and the Act. Subject to applicable work health and safety legislation, an employee must not unreasonably fail to comply with a direction by the employer to perform work, whether at the same or another workplace that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

Part 3—Types of Employment and Conditions of Employment

11. Types of Employment

11.1 Employees under this Agreement will be employed in one of the following categories:

(a) full-time employment;
(b) part-time employment;
(c) fixed-term employment;
(c) casual employment; or
(d) casual sessional employment.

11.2 At the time of engagement, the employer will inform each employee whether they are employed on a full-time, part-time, fixed-term, casual or casual sessional basis and the employee’s classification.

11.3 Full-time Employment

A full-time employee is an employee engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week pursuant to clause 26—Ordinary Hours of Work.

11.4 Part-time Employment

(a) A part-time employee is a person engaged to work on a regular basis for less than 52 weeks a year and/or an average of less hours per day or week than those prescribed for full-time employees.

(b) A part-time employee will be paid an hourly rate determined by dividing the appropriate annual salary contained in clause 19 of this Agreement by 52.18 and by dividing the subsequent wage by 38.

(c) A part-time employee’s Agreement entitlements will be calculated on a pro rata basis.

(d) At the time of engagement, the employer and the part-time employee will agree in writing on a regular pattern of work, specifying the number of hours worked each day, the days of the week the employee will work, the number of weeks of the school year the employee will work and starting and finishing times each day. Any such agreement may contain, and rely upon, an averaging provision allowing the averaging of hours over a specified period.

(e) The terms of the agreement in clause 11.4(d) may be varied by agreement between the employer and an employee. Any such variation will be recorded in writing.

11.5 Fixed Term Employment

An employee may be employed for a fixed period of time on the following basis:

(a) to undertake a specified project;
(b) to undertake a specified task which has a limited period of operation; or
(c) to replace an employee who is on leave; or
(d) to meet the roster/staffing requirements of the curriculum for a specific term(s) or school year.

11.6 Casual Hourly Employment

(a) A casual hourly employee is a person who is employed to either:
   (i) perform work on an intermittent or irregular basis; or
   (ii) work uncertain hours; or
   (iii) replace a full time or part time employee who is absent, and who is engaged and paid on an hourly basis.

(b) The minimum period of engagement for a casual employee, apart from a casual sessional employee, shall be 1 hour.

(c) Apart from a casual sessional employee a casual employee’s hourly rate is determined by dividing the appropriate annual salary contained in clause 19 of this Agreement by 52.18 and by dividing the subsequent weekly wage by 38. In addition, all casual employees employed under the scope of this Agreement receive a 25% loading in lieu of all paid leave (this loading is not payable on overtime hours, which attract the normal overtime penalty determined by the overtime hours worked).

11.7 Casual Sessional Employment

(a) A casual sessional employee is a person employed under the Instructional and Musical Services Stream and is engaged and paid on a sessional basis.

(b) A casual sessional employee will be advised at the commencement of the school year, or when otherwise engaged, how many sessions they are likely to be engaged to deliver per week for the remainder of the year. The number of sessions may vary from week to week depending on the number of students wishing to undertake the activity and/or changes in the employer’s programs. A casual sessional employee will be notified when the number of actual sessions varies. Each sessional engagement shall stand alone.

If, due to insufficient demand for the tuition/training/service provided by a casual sessional employee (as determined by the employer) and/or changes in the employer’s program, it is necessary to terminate the employment of a casual sessional employee nothing in this Agreement shall prevent the employer from doing so.
(c) A casual sessional employee’s rate of pay is determined by having regard to the length of the session, and not by the time each session takes to complete. The sessional rates are for all work undertaken Monday to Sunday.

The Loaded Rates above include a loading assessed at 25% which is paid in lieu of all paid leave and separation payments.

(d) Given the sessional nature of the employment no minimum periods of engagement shall exist. Casual sessional employees will not ordinarily be required to work in excess of the ordinary hours set out in this Agreement, but if hours in excess of the ordinary hours are agreed upon the rate of pay set out in 11.5(c) shall apply to those hours.

11.8 Casual Outdoor Education Payment Rate

(a) This clause applies to employees covered by this Agreement who are engaged on a casual basis to support the outdoor education program of the School.

(b) For the purpose of calculating wages the following conditions apply to an employee engaged in accordance with the provisions of this clause:

- Employees are classified as shift workers.
- An employee’s hours may be averaged over a period of a fortnight.
- Daily hours shall be worked continually each shift (except for broken shifts and meal breaks).
- Daily rostered ordinary hours shall not exceed an average of 10 hours per day over the averaging period, inclusive of meal breaks.
- An employee’s “base rate of pay” is determined by reference to their classification under this Agreement and the applicable annual salary (determined by reference to sub-clause 19.3) expressed as an hourly rate (annual salary divided by 52.18, divided by 38).
- Provided that, an employee engaged under the terms of this clause shall work a maximum of eight rostered shifts, including both weekday and weekend shifts, in any one fortnight (pay period). In the event of the maximum number of shifts per fortnight being exceeded overtime rates shall apply for the additional hours worked.

(c) The following daily rates shall be paid for the fortnightly ordinary hours wages of an employee engaged in accordance with the provisions of this clause:

Weekdays (Other than Public Holidays)
A daily payment equal to 11.20 hours of the employee’s base rate of pay.

Saturdays
A daily payment equal to 14.60 hours of the employee’s base rate of pay.
Sundays
A daily payment equal to 19.45 hours of the employee’s base rate of pay.

Public Holidays
A daily payment equal to 24.50 hours of the employee’s base rate of pay.

No Further Payment
With the exception of payment for overtime worked in excess of the maximum number of fortnightly shifts employees engaged under this clause shall not be entitled to any further payments beyond those calculated in accordance with this clause.

12. Period of Probationary Employment

12.1 All full time and part-time employees, other than fixed term employees, will be required to complete a six month probation period on the commencement of their employment. Where an employee is absent, other than on paid leave, during the probationary period for any period(s) exceeding two consecutive weeks the employee’s probationary period shall be extended by the total period(s) of their absence. Subject to completion of a satisfactory performance review at the conclusion of the probationary period, employees will be granted permanent employment.

12.2 At the discretion of the employer, fixed term employees may be required to complete a probation period on the commencement of their employment. Where a probationary period of employment is required, the duration of the probationary period of employment will be determined by the employer and communicated to the prospective employee in their written offer of employment, and shall form part of their contract of employment. Where a fixed term employee is absent, other than on paid leave, during the probationary period for any period(s) exceeding two consecutive weeks, the employee’s probationary period shall be extended by the total period(s) of their absence. Where a probationary period is set for a fixed term employee, the continuation of their employment beyond the probationary period is subject to satisfactory completion of their probation.

13. Leave Without Pay During Non-Term Weeks

13.1 Arrangements

An employee may be required to take leave without pay during non-term weeks, provided that:

(a) the employee’s contract of employment specifies the arrangement in writing;

(b) all such periods count as service for the purpose of calculating accrued leave entitlements and do not break continuity of service;

(c) if appropriate work is available for an employee during any such period, the existing employee may be offered such paid work (whether on a full-time, part-time or casual basis). The employee who is on leave without pay may refuse an offer of employment without prejudice to their normal employment relationship; and

(d) appropriate work will mean such work as is available that is capable of being performed by the employee. Remuneration for such work will be at the rate of pay applicable to the work being performed.
13.2 Calculating Annual Salary for an Employee on Leave Without Pay During Non-Term Weeks

(a) The formula in this sub-clause may be used to calculate an annual salary for an employee whose contract of employment makes provision, in writing, for leave without pay during non-term weeks.

(b) The adjusted annual salary for an employee is:

\[ A = C \times \text{working weeks} + 4 \times \text{annual leave} \]

52.18

Where:

A means the employee’s adjusted annual salary
C means the annual salary (as contained in clause 19—Minimum Wages) for the employee’s classification

Working weeks means the number of weeks that the employee is required to work.

(c) For the purpose of calculating any allowance or penalty for an employee, the allowance or penalty will be calculated on the ordinary hourly rate applicable before the adjustment provided for in this clause is applied.

(d) An employee may elect, in writing, to be paid only for the time worked (and therefore not during non-term weeks) rather than to be paid an adjusted annual salary as provided by this clause.

(e) Where a person employed as at the date of making this Agreement is not employed on a contract which allows for leave without pay during non-term weeks or is not employed under an Agreement or a notional agreement preserving a State Award which permits an employee to be required to take leave without pay during non-term weeks (however expressed). That employee will not be required to take such leave or have their contract of employment changed as a result of this Agreement coming into operation.

(f) The making of this Agreement is not intended to prevent other arrangements for staff who are not required to work during non-term weeks to be agreed between the employer and majority of employees in the School.

14. Residential Supervisors

An employee employed as a residential supervisor shall:

(a) be engaged and paid in accordance with clause 26.3 of this Agreement; and

(b) be entitled to a classification determined by reference to Schedule A of this Agreement; and

(c) be entitled to a base rate of salary determined by reference to clause 19 of this Agreement; and

(d) be provided with reasonable on-site accommodation, including power and heating available for their exclusive use; and

(e) not be entitled to an on call or recall allowance (clause 20.4) when rostered for overnight duty.
15. Child Care

The employer has increased access to child care by way of additional after school child care places and commits to continue to explore ways to expand child care facilities over the life of this Agreement.

16. Termination of Employment

16.1 All employment, except for casual employment, may be terminated by the employer or the employee giving written notice, in accordance with the following schedule.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Period of Continuous Service with the Employer</th>
<th>Period of Notice</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>

</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>

<td>At least 4 weeks</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The period of notice is increased by 1 week if the employee is over 45 years of age and has completed at least 2 years' continuous service with the employer at the end of the day on which the notice is given. The employee is not required to provide this additional notice if they resign their employment.

16.2 Payment may be made in lieu of the appropriate period of notice.

16.3 Notice of Termination by an Employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an employee is the same as that required of the employer. If an employee fails to give the required notice the employer may withhold from any monies due to the employee on termination under this Agreement or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the employee would have been paid under this Agreement in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the employee.

16.4 Job Search Entitlement

Where the employer has given notice of termination to an employee, an employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the employee after consultation with the employer.

17. Involuntary Employment Separation

17.1 Involuntary separation may take place where the employer has determined that the work performed by an employee or employees is no longer required to be performed and cannot redeploy those employees in suitable and effective positions within the School.

17.2 Employees terminated on account of involuntary separation will be given at least 2 weeks’ notice if their continuous service is less than 12 months, or 4 weeks if 12 months or more.

17.3 The following separation payments will be made to full-time and part-time employees, in addition to payment for accrued annual leave, long service leave, and any other statutory entitlements:

17.4 Part-time employee entitlements under this clause are calculated on the basis of the average number of hours worked by the employee as a proportion of full-time weekly hours for the employee's previous 12 months of service.

17.5 Where the employer considers it appropriate for the particular circumstances of an employee, in addition to the separation payment payable pursuant to this clause, the employer will make available to employees terminated as a result of involuntary separation as described in sub-clause 17.2 of this clause, the following benefits and services—
- The provision of professional assistance in identifying appropriate career directions following separation; and / or
- Assistance in the preparation of an employment résumé and job applications; and / or
- Where appropriate, assistance in identifying and accessing appropriate work opportunities.

Part 4—Minimum Wages and Related Matters

18. Classifications

All employees must be classified according to the structure set out in Schedule A – Classifications and paid the minimum wage in clause 19 – Minimum Wages. The employer must advise an employee in writing of their classification and of any changes to their classification.

19. Minimum Wages

19.1 Absorption of National Minimum Wage Order or Other Award Increases

(e) An agreement under this clause must be signed by the employer and employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, by the employee's parent or guardian.

(f) The payment must not be less than the amount that would have been payable had the employee taken the leave at the time the payment is made.

(g) An agreement must not result in the employee's remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 20 days (pro-rata for part time employees).
(h) The maximum amount of accrued paid annual leave that may be cashed out in any period of 12 months is 20 days (pro-rata for part time employees).

(i) The employer must keep a copy of any agreement under this clause as an employee record.

(b) However, a direction by the employer under paragraph (a):

(i) is of no effect if it would result at any time in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than 30 days (pro-rata for part time employees) when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 32.5, 32.6 or 32.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; and

(ii) must not require the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; and

(c) The employee must take paid annual leave in accordance with a direction under paragraph (a) that is in effect.

(d) An employee to whom a direction has been given under paragraph (a) may request to take a period of paid annual leave as if the direction had not been given.

32.7 Excessive leave accruals: request by employee for leave

(a) If an employee has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an employer under clause 32.5(b) but agreement is not reached (including because the employer refuses to confer), the employee may give a written notice to the employer requesting to take one or more periods of paid annual leave.
(b) However, an employee may only give a notice to the employer under paragraph (a) if:

(i) the employee has had an excessive leave accrual for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and

(ii) the employee has not been given a direction under clause 32.6(a) that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 32.5, 32.6 or 32.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account, would eliminate the employee’s excessive leave accrual.

(c) A notice given by an employee under paragraph (a) must not:

(i) if granted, result in the employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being at any time less than 30 days (pro-rata for part time employees) when any other paid annual leave arrangements (whether made under clause 32.5, 32.6 or 32.7 or otherwise agreed by the employer and employee) are taken into account; or

(ii) provide for the employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; or

No detrimental action will be taken against an employee on the basis that they have accessed Family and Domestic Violence Leave.

40.2 Definition of Family and Domestic Violence

(a) For the purpose of this clause, family and domestic violence is defined as any violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a person against a member of the person’s family or household (current or former). To avoid doubt, this definition includes behaviour that:

i. is physically or sexually abusive; or

ii. is emotionally or psychologically abusive; or

iii. is economically abusive; or

iv. is threatening; or

v. is coercive; or

vi. in any other way controls or dominates the family or household member and causes that person to feel fear for their safety or wellbeing or that of another person; or

(b) causes a child to hear or witness, or otherwise be exposed to the effects of, such behaviour.

40.3 Family and Domestic Violence Leave

(a) A permanent employee, experiencing family and domestic violence is entitled to 5 non-accruing days per year of paid family and domestic violence leave for the purpose of:

i. attending legal proceedings, counselling, appointments with a medical or legal practitioner; or

ii. relocation or making other safety arrangements; or

iii. other activities associated with the experience of family and domestic violence.

(b) This leave will be in addition to existing leave entitlements, may be taken as consecutive or single days or as a fraction of a day, and can be taken without prior approval in emergency situations.

40.4 Notice and Evidentiary Requirements

(a) The employer shall give the employee notice as soon as reasonably practicable of their request to take leave under this clause.

(b) If required by the employer, the employee must provide evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is for the purpose as set out in Clause 40.3(a). Such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court, a doctor (including a medical certificate), district nurse, maternal and child health care nurse, a family violence support service, a lawyer or a statutory declaration.
(c) The employer will take all reasonable measures to ensure that any personal information provided by the employee concerning an employee's experience of family and domestic violence is kept confidential. The employer will consider the employee's wishes in regard to the confidential storage of personal information in relation to this clause.

40.5 Individual Support

(a) In order to provide support to an employee experiencing family and domestic violence and to provide a safe work environment to all employees, the employer will consider a reasonable request, from an employee experiencing family and domestic violence for:

i. temporary changes to their span of hours or pattern or hours and/or shift patterns subject to operational requirements; or

ii. a change to their telephone number or email address to avoid harassing contact;
or

(b) Accommodating employees who are subject to family and domestic violence may have an impact on the normal operational requirements of the employer. In the event of such an occurrence, the employer will negotiate with affected employees to achieve safe and workable outcomes.

(c) Any change under 40.5(a) will only apply for the period that the employee reasonably requires the change as a result of experiencing family or domestic violence. The employee direct the employee to take the leave. The employer will provide reasonable notice if a direction to take leave is required.

(c) Prior to authorising the deduction necessary to purchase the additional leave requested, the employer will provide the employee with a written agreement detailing the calculations supporting the amount to be deducted from the employee's pay over the relevant leave period.

An example of this calculation is as follows:

An employee wants to take an additional 2 weeks leave over 12 months. Once the application to accrue additional leave is approved, the employee's pay is reduced by the cost of the 2 weeks leave.

The cost of the 2 weeks leave is 3.85% (i.e. 52.18). This means the employee will be paid 96.15% of their normal full time salary.
Employees who have entered into an agreement to purchase additional annual leave will be given the opportunity to review such arrangements annually, and to amend or withdraw from such arrangements.

41.2 An employee will not be able to take purchased leave in advance and can only request to take the amount of leave that they have accrued.

41.3 An employee can only take purchased leave on application and approval by the employer.

41.4 No leave loading under Clause 32 - Annual Leave is payable on purchased leave.
