The parties want to eliminate by direct discussion and negotiation the issues of concern between Teachers and the Employer. The Teacher has the right to be accompanied by a nominee of his/her choice at all meetings as part of this procedure. The aim of these discussions is to reach a solution as quickly as possible.

23.2 Application

23.2.1 Parental leave applies to a Teacher, other than a Casual Teacher, unless the Casual Teacher is an eligible casual employee.

23.2.2 The Employer must not fail to re-engage a Casual Teacher, who is an eligible casual employee, because:

- (a) the Casual Teacher or the Casual Teacher's spouse is pregnant; or
- (b) the Casual Teacher is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

23.2.3 The rights of the Employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of a Casual Teacher are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

23.3 Definitions

23.3.1 The following terms are defined by the NES: child, spouse.

23.3.2 For the purposes of this clause, an eligible casual employee means a Casual Teacher:

- (a) who has been engaged by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment during a period of at least 12 months; and
- (b) who, but for an expected birth or an expected placement of a child, would have a reasonable expectation of continuing engagement by the Employer on a regular and systematic basis.

23.3.3 For the purposes of this clause, continuous service means service with the Employer as a Teacher during the whole of the period, including any period of authorised leave. For an eligible casual employee, continuous service means a period during which the eligible casual employee was engaged on a regular and systematic basis by the Employer and during the casual period, the Teacher had a reasonable expectation of continuing employment by the Employer.

23.4 Entitlement

23.4.1 A Teacher, upon the completion of 12 months of continuous service with the Employer is entitled to up to 12 months' unpaid parental leave (birth-related leave or adoption-related leave) in relation to the birth or adoption of a child. This includes:

- up to 52 weeks of unpaid birth-related or adopted-related leave to be the primary care-giver of the child; or
- up to eight weeks of unpaid parental leave, which is taken at the time that the Teacher's spouse takes parental leave (concurrent leave). The concurrent leave may be taken in separate periods, but, unless the Employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than two weeks.

- 23.4.2 In addition to the basic entitlement under cl.22.4.1, a Teacher is entitled to take up to another 52 weeks to be the primary caregiver of the child. This entitlement to 104 weeks' unpaid parental leave replaces the NES entitlement in ss.70 and 76 of the NES.
- 23.4.3 A period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Teacher's continuity of employment but it does not count as employment or service.
- 23.5 Right to request part-time work
- 23.5.1 Subject to cl.23.5.2, a Teacher entitled to parental leave pursuant to the provisions of the NES may request the Employer to allow the Teacher to return from a period of parental leave on a part-time basis until the child reaches school age to assist the Teacher in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.
- 23.5.2 An application pursuant to cl.23.5.1 must be made as soon as possible but no less than three (3) weeks prior to the date upon which the Teacher is due to return to work from parental leave.
- 23.5.3 The Employer shall consider any request made pursuant to cl.23.5.1 having regard to the Teacher's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the Teacher's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable business grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the Employer's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.
- 23.5.4 A Teacher's request and the Employer's decision made pursuant to cl.23.5.1 must be recorded in writing.
- 23.6 Returning to work after a period of parental leave
- 23.6.1 A Teacher will be entitled to the position which the Teacher held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of a Teacher transferred to a safe job pursuant to the NES, the Teacher will be entitled to return to the position the Teacher held immediately before such transfer. A Part Time Teacher will be entitled to the same time fraction.
- 23.6.2 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available for which the Teacher is qualified and is capable of performing, the Teacher will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the Teacher's former position.
- 23.6.3 For the purposes of this clause, position includes a position of responsibility for a Teacher but does not necessarily include the same classes and/or subjects.
- 23.7 Communication during parental leave
- 23.7.1 Where a Teacher is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the Employer shall take reasonable steps to:

Yarra Valley Grammar Agreement 2015

- 23.7.1.1 make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Teacher held before commencing parental leave; and
 - 23.7.1.2 provide an opportunity for the Teacher to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Teacher held before commencing parental leave.
- 23.7.2 The Teacher shall take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Teacher's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the Teacher intends to return to work and whether the Teacher intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.
- 23.7.3 The Teacher shall also notify the Employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with cl. 23.7.1.

24 PARENTAL ALLOWANCE

- 24.1 Where a Teacher is granted unpaid parental leave in accordance with the Act and clause 23 – Parental Leave of this Agreement to be the primary caregiver of a child, the Teacher is entitled to be paid a parental allowance:

 - (b) equivalent to 14 weeks' salary at the Teacher's ordinary rate of pay, provided that the Teacher takes a minimum of 14 weeks' unpaid adoption-related leave at or around the time of the placement of the child with the Teacher.

The period of leave should preferably be taken as one week or as five days, taken within 60 days of the birth or placement of the child.
- 24.5 A Teacher must have a minimum of 12 months' continuous service, if returning from parental leave, before being eligible for the payment of a further allowance pursuant to cl.24.1 or cl.24.4.

32 PERFORMANCE/CONDUCT REVIEW

32.1 Performance Evaluation and Review

If, as a result of performance evaluation, serious concerns are raised about a Teacher's employment for reasons related to performance (other than on the grounds of serious neglect of duty), then the Employer will:

33.3 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a Fixed Term Teacher, who is replacing another Teacher on parental leave, the Employer will give the Fixed Term Teacher four weeks' notice if the Teacher being replaced provides notice to the Employer pursuant to cl.23 that the Teacher being replaced wishes to return from parental leave.

Yarra Valley Grammar Agreement 2015

- 33.4 Payment in lieu is calculated by taking the amount of salary and rates of pay in Schedules 1B and 1D (if applicable) that a Teacher would have received by working during the notice period if the Teacher's employment had not been terminated.
- 33.5 A Teacher must provide the Employer with a minimum of seven weeks' notice in writing with such notice to be given wholly within the one school term.
- 33.6 If a Teacher fails to give the notice specified by cl.33.5, then the Employer may withhold from any monies due to the Teacher on termination under this Agreement or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the Teacher would have been paid under the Agreement in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the Teacher.
- 33.7 The notice period in this clause does not apply where the Teacher is guilty of serious misconduct.

34 REDUNDANCY

- 34.1 Definition
Redundancy occurs where the Employer has made a definite decision that the Employer no longer wishes the job that the Teacher has been doing done by anyone and that decision leads to the termination of employment of the Teacher, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.
- 34.2 Redundancy Disputes
- 34.2.1 Where a redundancy dispute arises, and if it has not already done so, an Employer must provide the affected Teacher(s) and the Teacher's representative (if requested by any affected Teacher) in good time, with relevant information:
the reasons for any proposed redundancy;
the number and categories of Teachers likely to be affected; and the period over which any proposed redundancies are intended to undertaken.
- 34.2.2 Where a redundancy dispute arises and discussions occur in accordance with this clause, the Employer will, as early as possible, consult on measures taken to avert or to minimise any proposed redundancies and measures to mitigate the adverse effects of any proposed redundancies on the Teachers concerned.
- 34.3 Transfer to lower paid duties
Where a Teacher is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out above the Teacher will be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the Teacher would have been entitled to if the Teacher's employment had been terminated. The Employer may, at its discretion, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.
- 34.4 Severance Pay
The severance payment for a Teacher will be in accordance with the following:

Yarra Valley Grammar Agreement 2015

Period of Continuous Service	Severance Pay (under 45 years)	Severance Pay (45 years and over)
Less than 1 year	Nil	Nil

10 years and over	18 weeks' pay	20 weeks' pay

Weeks' pay means the ordinary time rate of pay for the Teacher concerned

For the purposes of this clause, continuous service will be calculated to include all service for which paid leave was applicable but will not include any period of unpaid leave except at the discretion of the Employer.

34.5 Leaving during notice

A Teacher, whose employment is terminated for reasons of redundancy, may terminate the Teacher's employment during the period of notice and, if so, will be entitled to the same benefits and payments under clause 12 had the Teacher remained with the Employer until the expiry of such notice. In such circumstances the Teacher will not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

34.6 Alternative employment

The Employer, in a particular redundancy case, is not obliged to pay severance pay if the Employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for a Teacher acceptable to that Teacher.

34.7 Time off during notice period

- i. During the period of notice of termination a Teacher will be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment
- ii. If the Teacher has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Teacher may be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the Teacher may not receive payment for the time absent.
