[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Ruyton Girls’ School Agreement 2015 (the Agreement). Dear Commissioner Wilson,

I refer to the email sent in relation to clause 8.5(a) of the proposed Ruyton Girls’ School Agreement 2015 (the Agreement) in relation to Agreement Flexibility, which states:

“8.5 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

   (a) by giving seven (7) term weeks’ written notice to the other party to the arrangement.”

You have advised that Section 203(6)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act) requires that any flexibility term must require the employer to ensure that any such agreement must be able to be terminated by either party with written notice of not more than 28 days.

Ruyton Girls’ School hereby undertakes that an arrangement entered into in accordance with clause 8.5(a) of the Agreement may be terminated by giving 28 days written notice to the other party.

Yours sincerely

5. Relationship to Awards

This Agreement operates to the complete exclusion of all Awards which would otherwise apply to Employees covered by this Agreement including but not limited to the Educational Services (Schools) General Staff Award 2010 and the Educational Services (Teachers) Award 2010.

6. No extra claims

The Employer and Employees agree that the salary increase and other improvements in conditions of employment provided for by this Agreement are in settlement of all existing claims made by the Employer and the Employees, and that no further claims will be made prior to the nominal expiry date as set out in cl.2.2 hereof.

7. The National Employment Standards

7.1 The National Employment Standards (NES) as contained in Part 2-2 of the Act are the minimum entitlements to which an Employee covered by this Agreement is entitled. This Agreement may provide ancillary or supplementary terms in respect of the NES.

7.2 This Agreement provides enterprise specific detail where it deals with a matter provided for in the NES.

8. Agreement flexibility

8.1 An Employer and Employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the Agreement if:

(a) the Agreement deals with one or more of the following matters:

(i) arrangements about when work is performed;

(ii) overtime rates;

(iii) penalty rates;

(iv) allowances;

(v) leave loading; and
(b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a);

(c) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee. An agreement under this clause can only be entered into after the individual Employee has commenced employment with the Employer.

8.2 The Employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) are about permitted matters under s.172 of the Act; and
(b) are not unlawful terms under s.194 of the Act; and
(c) result in the Employee being better off overall at the time the agreement is made than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

8.3 The Employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) is in writing; and
(b) includes the name of the Employer and Employee; and
(c) is signed by the Employer and Employee and if the Employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee; and
(d) includes details of:

(i) the terms of the Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
(iii) how the Employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
(iv) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

8.4 The Employer must give the Employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

8.5 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) by giving seven (7) Term weeks’ written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
(b) if the Employer and Employee agree in writing — at any time.

Note: If any of the requirements of s.144(4), which are reflected in the requirements of this clause are not met, then the agreement may be terminated by either the Employee or the Employer, giving written notice of not more than 28 days (see s.145 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)).
Part 2—Consultation and Dispute Resolution

9. Consultation

9.1 This clause applies if the Employer:

(a) has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure, or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on Employees; or

(b) proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

In this clause: relevant Employees means the Employees who may be affected by a change referred to in cl.9.1(a) or (b).

Consultation regarding major workplace change

9.2 For a major change referred to in cl.9.1(a):

(a) the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the decision to introduce the major change; and

(b) cl.9.3 to 9.9 apply.

9.3 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

9.4 If:

(a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and

(b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative,

the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must:

(a) discuss with the relevant Employees:

(i) the introduction of the change; and

(ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees; and

(iii) measures the Employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees; and

(b) for the purposes of the discussion — provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees:

(i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and
(ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and

(iii) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

9.6 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.7 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

9.8 If a clause in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in cl.9.2(a) and cl.9.3 and 9.5 are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:

(a) the termination of the employment of Employees; or

(b) major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer’s workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or

(c) the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or

(d) the alteration of hours of work; or

(e) the need to retrain Employees; or

(f) the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or

(g) the restructuring of jobs.

Consultation about changes to regular roster or hours of work

9.10 For a change referred to in cl.9.1(b):

(a) the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the proposed change; and

(b) cl.9.11 to 9.15 apply.

9.11 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

9.12 If:

(a) a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and

(b) the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative,

the Employer must recognise the representative.
9.13 The Employer must:

(a) discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change; and

(b) for the purposes of the discussion, provide to the relevant Employees:

(i) information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the Employee’s regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence), and

(ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees; and

(iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees; and

(c) invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

9.14 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.15 The Employer must give genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

9.16 For the purposes of cl.9.11 to 9.15, the Employer’s educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:

(a) may operate on a term, semester of a School year basis, and

(b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and

(c) may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster.

9.17 However, where a change to the Employer’s educational timetable directly results in a change:

(a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or

(b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee’s ordinary hours are required to be worked, or

(c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, cll.9.11 to 9.15 will apply.

In this clause: relevant Employees means the Employees who may be affected by a change referred to in cl.9.1.
10. Dispute resolution

10.1 If a dispute relates to:

(a) a matter arising under the Agreement, or

(b) the NES,

this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

10.2 However, a dispute in relation to a contravention (or alleged contravention) of subsection 65(5) of the Act may be referred to the FWC, where the FWC will attempt to resolve the dispute using one or more of the following methods: mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation. In the event that a dispute is not resolved by one of these methods, and all methods have been attempted by the FWC, the consent of both parties is required before the FWC may arbitrate the dispute.

Note: Subsections 65(5) state that an employer may refuse a request for flexible working arrangements, only on reasonable business grounds.

10.3 An Employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

10.4 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

10.5 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

10.6 The FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages:

(a) the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute using one of more of the following methods: mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion and making a recommendation; and

(b) if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the FWC may then:

(i) in relation to the NES, arbitrate the dispute, or

(ii) in relation to all other matters in the Agreement, arbitrate the dispute only with the consent of both parties, and make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

10.7 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:

(a) an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
(b) an Employee must comply with a direction given by the Employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:

(i) the work is not safe; or

(ii) the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (Vic) would not permit the work to be performed; or

(iii) the work is not appropriate for the Employee to perform; or

(iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the Employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

10.8 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this clause.

Part 3—Conditions for all Employees

11. Remuneration packaging

11.1 Upon receiving a written election for a remuneration packaging arrangement from the Employee and provided there is no additional cost to the Employer, the Employer is prepared to offer the Employee the opportunity to receive part of the Employee’s remuneration in the form of non-cash benefits in line with legislation and Australian Taxation Office rulings until otherwise advised.

11.2 Any arrangement between the Employer and the Employee in relation to remuneration packaging will be entered into by way of a subsidiary written agreement varying the Employee’s conditions of employment.

12. Minimum employment period

12.1 An Employee’s employment is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a minimum employment period of six months.

12.2 If the Employer is to terminate the employment of an Employee during the first six months of the Employee’s employment, the Employer does not need to comply with any due process, performance or conduct management policies or procedures in place from time to time or cl.29 – Performance and conduct management.

12.3 If the Employer is to terminate the Employee within the first six months of the Employee’s employment commencing, the Employee is entitled to two weeks’ notice or two weeks’ salary in lieu of notice.

12.4 If the Employee is to resign within the first six months of the Employee’s employment commencing, then the Employee is required to give two weeks’ notice.
13. Annual leave

13.1 Annual leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

13.2 Clauses 39 and 40 provide further details on conditions related to annual leave entitlements for Teachers.

13.3 Timing of annual leave

(a) A Teacher must take annual leave during Non-term weeks. An amount of leave must be taken during each of the shutdown periods following the end of terms 1, 2, 3 and 4, unless otherwise agreed with the Employer. The shutdown period may differ for individual Teachers, depending on work commitments and activities.

(b) Instead of the entitlement in the NES, a General Staff Employee has an entitlement to six weeks’ annual leave per year of continuous service. A General Staff Employee must generally take an amount of annual leave during a shutdown period. The Employer may require a General Staff Employee to take annual leave during Non-term weeks. The shutdown period is defined as a period where the Employer shuts down the business, or any part of the business, in which the general Staff Employee works.

(c) The Employer may designate some of the Non-term weeks as a shutdown period in which the operations of the School may be closed or operate at minimum staffing levels. Unless alternative arrangements are agreed between the Employer and individual General Staff Employee/s, General Staff Employees are required to take annual leave during shutdown periods observed by the School.

(d) A General Staff Employee may apply to the Principal not more than once per calendar year, to take a cash payment equal to up to a maximum of two weeks’ salary in lieu of two weeks’ annual leave, provided the agreement does not result in the general Staff Employee’s remaining accrued entitlement to paid annual leave being less than four weeks. The application must be made in writing at least one month before the payment is required and must coincide with a minimum of one week’s annual leave. The payment will be made in the normal monthly payroll cycle.

13.4 Crediting of annual leave

The Employer may allow a General Staff Employee to take annual leave before the leave has accrued. Where paid leave has been granted in excess of the accrued entitlement, and the General Staff Employee subsequently leaves, the Employer is entitled to deduct the amount of leave in advance still owing from any remuneration payable to the General Staff Employee upon termination of employment.

14. Personal/carer’s leave

14.1 Personal/carer’s leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.
An Employee other than a casual Employee is entitled to a paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, which includes both sick and carer’s leave.

For a full-time Employee, the personal/carer’s leave entitlement equates to 15 days per year of service. A part-time Employee is entitled to paid personal/carer’s leave on a pro rata basis based on the Employee’s ordinary hours of work.

Where a full-time Employee requires personal/carer’s leave in excess of the Employee’s accrued entitlement, the Employee is entitled to be paid personal/carer’s leave in advance of accrual as follows:

(a) six (6) days during the first term of employment, and a further three (3) days during each of the next three terms, if in the first year of employment with the Employer, or

(b) up to the annual entitlement of 15 days, if in the second or subsequent year of employment, provided that:

(i) the notice and evidentiary requirements are met, and

(ii) any paid leave provided in advance of accrual at the time of termination of employment is deducted from the Employee’s final payment.

Paid personal leave is taken due to a personal illness or injury.

Paid carer’s leave is taken to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate family or a member of the Employee’s household, who requires care or support because of a personal illness or injury or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

Where the Employee has exhausted the paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, the Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

where

- \( P \) is the payment due
- \( s \) is the total salary paid in respect of Term weeks worked, or part thereof, since the school service date or the date of employment in circumstances where the Teacher has been employed by the Employer since the school service date.
- \( b \) is the number of Term weeks, or part thereof in the School year

(d) At the Employer’s discretion, where the time off instead of overtime has not been taken in accordance with cl.54.2(c), the Employer may pay for the hours worked at the relevant overtime rate of pay or direct the Employee to take time off instead of overtime, provided the Employer provides the Employee with not less than four (4) weeks’ notice of the days to be taken as time of instead of overtime.

Schedule E — General Staff Classifications

E.1 Definitions

E.1.1 Definition 1: Supervision

Close supervision: clear and detailed instructions are provided. Tasks are covered by standard procedures. Deviations from procedures or unfamiliar situations are referred to higher levels. Work is regularly checked.

Routine supervision: direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods. Guidance on the approach to standard circumstances is provided in procedures, guidance on the approach to non-standard circumstances is provided by a supervisor. Checking is selective rather than constant.

General direction: direction is provided on the assignments to be undertaken, with the Employee determining the appropriate use of established methods, tasks and sequences. There is some scope to determine an approach in the absence of established procedures or detailed instructions, but guidance is readily available. When performance is checked, it is on assignment completion.

Broad direction: direction is provided in terms of objectives which may require the planning of staff, time and material resources for their completion. Limited detailed guidance will be available and the development or modification of procedures by the Employee may be required. Performance will be measured against objectives.

E.1.2 Definition 2: Qualifications

Within the Australian Qualifications Framework:

(a) Year 12

Completion of a senior secondary certificate of education, usually in Year 12 of secondary school.

(b) Trade certificate

Dear Commissioner Wilson,

I refer to the email sent in relation to clause 8.5(a) of the proposed Ruyton Girls’ School Agreement 2015 (the Agreement) in relation to Agreement Flexibility, which states:

“8.5 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

(a) by giving seven (7) term weeks’ written notice to the other party to the arrangement.”

You have advised that Section 203(6)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009 (the Act) requires that any flexibility term must require the employer to ensure that any such agreement must be able to be terminated by either party with written notice of not more than 28 days.

Ruyton Girls’ School hereby undertakes that an arrangement entered into in accordance with clause 8.5(a) of the Agreement may be terminated by giving 28 days written notice to the other party.

Yours sincerely

Linda Douglas
