7 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

7.1 If a dispute relates to:
(a) a matter arising under the agreement; or
(b) the National Employment Standards;

this term sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

7.2 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.

7.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the employee or employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

7.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the FWC.

7.5 the FWC may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:
7.5.1 the FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and 7.5.2 if the FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the FWC may then:

(i) arbitrate the dispute; and
(ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act.

A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Div 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

7.6 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this term:
7.6.1 An Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and 7.6.2 An Employee must comply with a direction given by the Employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:

(i) the work is not safe; or
(ii) applicable occupational health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
(iii) the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
(iv) there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
7.7 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by the FWC in accordance with this term.

8 AGREEMENT FLEXIBILITY

8.1 An Employer and Employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the agreement if:

8.1.1 the agreement deals with 1 or more of the following matters:

(i) arrangements about when work is performed;

(ii) overtime rates;

(iii) penalty rates;

(iv) allowances;

(v) leave loading; and

8.1.2 the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Employer and Employee in relation to 1 or more of the matters mentioned in subclause 8.1.1; and 8.1.3 the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and Employee.

8.2 The Employer must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:

8.2.1 are about permitted matters under s.172 of the Act; and

8.2.2 are not unlawful terms under s.194 of the Act; and 8.2.3 result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.

8.3 The Employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

8.3.1 is in writing; and

8.3.2 includes the name of the Employer and Employee; and

8.3.3 is signed by the Employer and Employee and if the Employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee; and

8.3.4 includes details of:

(i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and

(ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and

(iv) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

8.4 The Employer must give the Employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

8.5 The Employer or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
8.5.1 by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or 8.5.2 if the Employer and Employee agree in writing — at any time.

9 \hspace{1em} \textbf{INTRODUCTION OF MAJOR CHANGE}

9.1 This clause applies if the Employer:

9.1.1 has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on the Employees; or 9.1.2 proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

\textbf{Major change}

the Employer must recognise the Representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must:

9.5.1 discuss with the relevant employees:

(i) the introduction of the change; and

(ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees; and

(iii) measures the Employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees; and

9.5.2 for the purposes of the discussion—provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees:

(i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and

(ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and

(iii) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

9.6 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.7 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

9.8 If a clause in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in clause cl.9.2.1, 9.3 and 9.5 are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on employees if it results in:

9.9.1 the termination of the employment of Employees; or 9.9.2 major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer's workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or 9.9.3 the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or 9.9.4 the alteration of hours of work; or 9.9.5 the need to retrain Employees; or 9.9.6 the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or 9.9.7 the restructuring of jobs.

Change to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

9.12 If:

9.12.1 a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a Representative for the purposes of consultation; and 9.12.2 the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the Representative;
the Employer must recognise the Representative.

9.13 The Employer must:

9.13.1 discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change; and 9.13.2 for the purposes of the discussion—provide to the relevant Employees:
   (i) information about the proposed change (for example, information about the nature of the change to the Employee's regular roster or ordinary hours of work and when that change is proposed to commence); and
   (ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees; and
   (iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees; and

9.13.3 invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

9.14 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.
9.15 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

9.16 For the purposes of cl 9.10 to 9.15, a School's educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:
   9.16.1 may operate on a term, semester or a School Year basis, and 9.16.2 ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and 9.16.3 may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster.

9.17 However, where a change to a School's educational timetable directly results in a change to:
   9.17.1 the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or 9.17.2 the spread of hours over which the Employee's ordinary hours are required to be worked, or 9.17.3 the days over which the Employee is required to work,

15.2 This clause does not reproduce Division 7 of Part 2-2 of the Act in full.

15.3 Entitlement

15.3.1 An Employee is entitled to a paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, which includes both sick and carer’s leave.

15.3.2 For Full Time Employees, the personal/carer’s leave entitlement equates to 15 days per year of service. A Part Time Employee is entitled to personal/carer’s leave on a pro rata basis.

15.3.3 Paid sick leave is taken by the Employee because of a personal illness or injury affecting the Employee.

15.3.4 Paid carer’s leave is taken by the Employee to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or a member of the Employee’s household, who requires care or support because of a personal illness, injury, or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

15.3.5 Where the Employee has exhausted the paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, the Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

15.3.6 A Casual Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

15.3.7 Personal/carer’s leave accrues as follows:

(i) in the first year of service, six days during the first term worked and thereafter, three days at the commencement of each subsequent school term; and

(ii) in the second and subsequent year of service, 15 days at the commencement of that year.

15.3.8 An Employee must notify the Employer of the Employee’s absence as soon as reasonably practicable. The notice must be to the effect that the Employee requires the leave because of a personal illness or injury or to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household as the member is suffering either a personal illness or injury or an unexpected emergency.

15.3.9 An Employee is entitled to sick leave provided that:

15.3.10 An Employee is entitled to carer’s leave provided that:

(i) The Employee produces, if required by the School, a medical certificate from a Registered Health Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Employer stating the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another. In normal circumstances, an Employee is not entitled to take carer’s leave where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

16  COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

16.1 Compassionate leave is in accordance with the NES (Ch 2, Pt 2-2, Div 7), except where more favourable terms are provided in this Agreement.

16.3.2 This leave may be taken in a single unbroken period or in separate periods of one day each or as agreed by the Employer and the Employee.

16.3.3 The Employee is entitled to compassionate leave only if the Employee gives the Employer any evidence that the Employer reasonably requires of the illness, injury or death.

16.3.4 The Employee may apply for additional leave on compassionate grounds. The granting of such leave will be at the discretion of the Principal. For the avoidance of any doubt, any additional leave where granted, will be leave without pay.

17  SPECIAL LEAVE
17.1 An Employee is entitled to request special leave, which is taken from the Employee's entitlement to personal/carer's leave.

17.2 An Employee may request one day of special leave per year. This entitlement is non-cumulative.

17.4.1 make a request for special leave in writing and provide the reason for requesting the leave;
17.4.2 make the request not less than 48 hours prior to the proposed commencement time of the leave, unless in the opinion of the College, such notice would not be reasonable; and 17.4.3 take special leave as a full day or as a half-day.

17.5 Special leave may be approved at the complete discretion of the Principal or delegate.

18 LEAVE TO DEAL WITH FAMILY AND DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

18.1 This clause applies to all Employees, including casuals.

18.2 Definitions

18.2.1 In this clause:

family and domestic violence means violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a family member of an Employee that seeks to coerce or control the Employee and that causes them harm or to be fearful.

family member means:

(i) a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the Employee; or

(ii) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the Employee; or
(iii) a person related to the Employee according to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander kinship rules.

18.2.2 A reference to a spouse or de facto partner in the definition of family member in clause 18.2.1 includes a former spouse or de facto partner.

18.3 Entitlement to leave

18.3.1 Subject to clause 18.9, each year, for the purpose of dealing with family and domestic violence:

(i) a full-time Employee is entitled to 5 days of paid leave
(ii) a part-time Employee is entitled to a total of 5 days of leave comprising paid and unpaid leave. The paid leave entitlement is pro rata of 5 days of paid leave based on the part-time Employee’s ordinary hours of work
(iii) a casual Employee is entitled to 5 days of unpaid leave.

18.3.2 The entitlement in clause 18.3.1 to deal with family and domestic violence:

(i) is available in full at the start of each 12 month period of the Employee’s employment; and
(ii) does not accumulate from year to year.

Note: A period of leave to deal with family and domestic violence may be less than a day by agreement between the Employee and the Employer.

18.4 Taking leave

An Employee may take leave to deal with family and domestic violence if the Employee:

18.4.1 is experiencing family and domestic violence; and 18.4.2 needs to do something to deal with the impact of the family and domestic violence and it is impractical for the Employee to do that thing outside their ordinary hours of work.

Note: The reasons for which an Employee may take leave include making arrangements for their safety or the safety of a family member (including relocation), attending court hearings, or accessing police services.

18.5 Special leave

In accordance with cl.17, an Employee may request special leave to act as a support person for someone experiencing family and domestic violence.

18.6 Service and continuity

The time an Employee is on unpaid leave under this clause to deal with family and domestic violence does not count as service but does not break the Employee’s continuity of service.

18.7 Notice and evidence requirements

18.7.1 Notice

An Employee must give their Employer notice of the taking of leave by the Employee under clause 18. The notice:
must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and

(ii) must advise the Employer of the period, or expected period, of the leave.

18.7.2 Evidence
An Employee who has given their Employer notice of the taking of leave under clause 18 must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for the purpose specified in clause 18.4.

Note: Depending on the circumstances such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court or a family violence support service, or a statutory declaration.

18.8 Confidentiality

18.8.1 Employers must take steps to ensure information concerning any notice an Employee has given, or evidence an Employee has provided under clause 18.7 is treated confidentially, as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so.

18.8.2 Nothing in clause 18 prevents an Employer from disclosing information provided by an Employee if the disclosure is required by an Australian law or is necessary to protect the life, health or safety of the Employee or another person.

Note: Information concerning an Employee's experience of family and domestic violence is sensitive and if mishandled can have adverse consequences for the employee. Employers should consult with such employees regarding the handling of this information.

18.9 Compliance
An Employee is not entitled to take leave under clause 18 unless the Employee complies with clause 18.

18.10 Interaction with NES
If, during the period of operation of this Agreement, the NES are amended to provide paid and/or unpaid family and/or domestic violence leave, then the leave entitlement in clause 18.3 will be offset against the NES leave entitlement, should this not be prohibited by the NES.

18.11 This clause ceases to apply on 31 December 2021.

19 INFECTIOUS DISEASES LEAVE

19.1 An Employee who is suffering from one of the infectious diseases will be granted special leave without deduction of pay provided the Employer is satisfied on medical advice that the Employee has contracted the disease through a contact at the School and the disease is evident in the School:

- German measles
- Chickenpox
20.1 An Employee is entitled to public holidays in accordance with the NES (Ch 2, Pt 2-2, Div 10).

20.2 Public holidays that occur during a period of leave for Employees in accordance with cl. 44 and 53, do not create an additional entitlement.

20.3 By agreement between the Employer and the majority of Employees, an alternative day may be taken as the public holiday in lieu of any of the specified days.

20.4 The Employer and an Employee may agree to the Employee taking another day as the public holiday in lieu of the specified day.

20.5 An agreement made in accordance with cl.20.3 or 20.4 must be recorded in writing and made available to every affected Employee. Any such agreement must be recorded in the time and wages records kept by the Employer.

21 PARENTAL LEAVE

21.1 An Employee is entitled to parental leave in accordance with the NES (Ch 2, Pt 2-2, Div 5) except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

21.2 An Employee, who is entitled to parental leave pursuant to the NES, is automatically entitled to a total of 24 months parental leave when the employee has primary responsibility for the care of the child.

21.3 Paid parental leave

An Employee, who is entitled to and takes parental leave pursuant to the NES, and is the primary care giver of the child, shall be entitled to payment, at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay, for fourteen weeks of the period of parental leave, which includes any annual leave that may accrue during this time, the paid parental leave must commence within six weeks of the child being born/adopted.

21.4 Paid partner leave
An Employee, who is not the primary care giver of the child, is entitled to be paid for ten days of the concurrent leave period. The ten days may be taken in up to two separate blocks, and must be taken within six weeks of the child being born/adopted.

21.5 Paid parental leave and paid partner leave will count as service for the purpose of accruing leave under this Agreement. Superannuation is also payable in respect of paid parental leave and paid partner leave.

21.6 A parental leave payment under clause 21.3 or 21.4 will not be made in relation to a second or subsequent period of parental leave unless the Employee has provided 12 months of continuous service since the last period of parental leave.

21.7 Where the College employs both parents of the child, only one parent will be entitled to a paid parental leave under clause 21.3 but the other parent will be eligible to receive paid partner leave under clause 21.4.

22 LONG SERVICE LEAVE

22.1 An Employee is entitled to long service leave in accordance with the NES or the Long Service Leave Act 2018 (Vic), as applicable. This Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

22.2 An employee is entitled to 13 weeks Long Service Leave upon the completion of 10 years of continuous employment with the Employer. An employee is entitled to additional six and a half weeks’ Long Service Leave for each additional five years of continuous employment with the Employer. An employee accrues Long Service Leave at the rate of 1.3 weeks per year of continuous employment.

22.3 An employee is entitled to take pro rata long service leave upon the completion of seven years of continuous employment.

22.4 Accrued long service leave will be paid in lieu where an Employee's employment is terminated after seven years of continuous employment.

22.5 An Employee, whose service has been all full-time or all at the same part-time fraction, is paid during long service leave at the Employee’s normal salary.

22.6 An employee, whose time fraction has varied during service, is paid at a proportionate rate during long service leave. The rate is determined by calculating an average of the Employee's time fractions over the period of eligible service. However, where the NES provides an Employee with a higher entitlement for long service leave, the NES entitlement will apply.

22.7 Illness on Long Service Leave
An Employer may require an Employee who claims personal leave whilst on long service leave, to be examined by a Registered Health Practitioner who is reasonably accessible to the Employee. Subject to the requirements of 22.8, on production of a supporting medical certificate an Employee who becomes ill whilst on long service leave is entitled to have the period of illness treated as sick leave but only to the extent that the Employee is entitled to sick leave.

22.8 The Employee’s application under 22.7:

i. must be received by the Employer during the period of illness or injury;

ii. must be accompanied by a medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration attesting to the illness or injury and the duration of that illness or injury; and

iii. must indicate whether the Employee wishes to extend the long service leave by the period of the illness or injury or whether the Employee will return from long service leave as planned with the period of illness or injury increasing the Employee’s accrued long service leave entitlement.

23 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

An Employee may apply for leave without pay which may be granted at the discretion of the Principal. An Employee agrees that entitlements under this Agreement do not accrue during any period of leave without pay.

24 ACCIDENT COMPENSATION AND ACCIDENT MAKE-UP PAY

24.1 Subject to cl.24.2, where an Employee becomes entitled to compensation payments under the WIRC Act, the Employer who is liable to pay the compensation will pay to the Employee accident make-up pay being an amount equivalent to the difference between:

(i) the amount of compensation payable under the WIRC Act and, in respect of an Employee who is partially incapacitated, any wages earned by that Employee; and

(ii) the amount that would have been payable under the Agreement (including the Employee’s entitlement to Employer contributions to Superannuation) if the Employee had been performing his or her normal duties.

24.2 Accident make-up pay will be paid for a maximum of 39 weeks, inclusive of non-attendance time, in respect of the same injury. Accident make-up pay will not be payable if the Employee is on any form of paid leave.

24.3 If an Employee is absent from work because of an illness or injury, for which the Employee is receiving compensation payments pursuant to the WIRC Act, then the Employee does not accrue any of the following entitlements under the Agreement or under the WIRC Act (where relevant) for the duration of any such absence:

(i) annual leave; or
(ii) paid personal/carer’s leave.

24.4 An Employee will cease to be entitled to accident make-up pay on the date upon which any of the following occur:

(a) the Employee ceases to have an entitlement to receive weekly payments under the WIRC Act;
(b) the Employee’s employment is lawfully terminated by the Employer for any reason;
(c) the Employee resigns; or
(d) the Employee dies.

25 WITHHOLDING OF MONIES

In the event that an Employee does not provide the full notice required by cl.11, 47 and 54, the Employer is entitled to withhold from any monies owing to the Employee an amount equal to the remuneration that the Employee would have earned for the number of weeks or days of the notice period that the Employee did not work.

26 REDUNDANCY

26.1 Definition

Redundancy occurs where the Employer has made a definite decision that the Employer no longer wishes the job that the Employee has been doing done by anyone and that decision leads to the termination of employment of the Employee, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

26.2 Redundancy Disputes

26.2.1 Where a redundancy dispute arises, and if it has not already done so, an Employer must provide the affected Employee(s) and the Employee’s representative (if requested by any affected Employee) in good time, with relevant information:

- the reasons for any proposed redundancy;
- the number and categories of Employees likely to be affected; and
- the period over which any proposed redundancies are intended to be undertaken.

26.2.2 Where a redundancy dispute arises and discussions occur in accordance with this clause, the Employer will, as early as possible, consult on measures taken to avert or to minimise any proposed redundancies and measures to mitigate the adverse effects of any proposed redundancies on the Employees concerned.

26.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an Employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out above the Employee will be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the Employee would have been entitled to if the Employee's employment had been terminated. The Employer may, at its discretion, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

26.4 Severance Pay

The severance payment for an Employee will be in accordance with the following:

Week's pay means the ordinary time rate of pay for the Employee concerned

For the purposes of this clause continuous service will be calculated to include all service for which paid leave or accident make-up pay was applicable but will not include any period of unpaid leave except at the discretion of the Employer. Unpaid leave does not count as service but will not break continuity of employment.

26.5 Leaving during notice
An Employee, whose employment is terminated for reasons of redundancy, may terminate the Employee's employment during the period of notice and, if so, will be entitled to the same benefits and payments under cl.26.4 had the Employee remained with the Employer until the expiry of such notice. In such circumstances the Employee will not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

26.7 Time off during notice period
i. During the period of notice of termination an Employee will be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

ii. If the Employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Employee may be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the Employee may not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

52.18

Note: Where an Employee takes leave without pay in excess of ten days, this period is excluded from the Employee's Attendance Time or Working Weeks, as appropriate.

27.3 An Employer may pay leave loading to the Employee with the first salary payment in December of that year at the rate of pay applicable on 1 December or to the Employee with each salary payment throughout the School Year by increasing the annual rate of pay as at 1 February of that year, or as subsequently varied, by 1.3425 per cent.

31.5 Subject to this clause, an Employer will reimburse an Employee granted leave pursuant to 31.1 an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of the Employee's attendance for such jury service and the amount of salary the Employee would have received had the Employee not been on jury service.

All other fees and levies apply.

40.3 Fee discounts do not apply to Casual Staff or Fixed Term Employees.

40.4 An Employee will not be entitled to fee discounts when on any period of unpaid leave, including but not limited to parental leave.
PART 3 – CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR TEACHERS

41 CLASSIFICATION AND SALARY

41.1 Schedule 1A sets out the classification structure and progression arrangements.

41.2 Schedule 1B sets out the salary for a Teacher, including a Casual Teacher.

41.3 The Salary specified in Schedule 1B is in compensation for all hours worked under this Agreement.

42 HOURS OF WORK

42.1 The ordinary hours of work for a Full Time Teacher are 38 hours per week averaged over a period of 12 months. The averaging period will be the School Year, except that where this Agreement comes into effect from a date other than the first day of the School Year, the first period of averaging will be for the remainder of that School Year.

42.2 Where a Teacher is employed for part only of a School Year, averaging will be over the period of employment in that School Year.

42.3 In addition, a Teacher is required to work such reasonable additional hours as are necessary to perform the Teacher’s duties.

42.4 The Employer will determine the ordinary scheduled class time hours per week and the professional duties to be allocated to the Teacher. The College shall attempt to provide as far as possible for equitable workloads across teaching staff and observe general industry standards.

42.5 Graduate teachers in their first year of teaching will be allocated reduced teaching responsibilities that will take into account the need for induction, meeting registration requirements and familiarising themselves with the demands of the profession. The College will aim to reduce the scheduled class time allocation to 0.9FTE. Where this is not possible due to timetable constraints, the College will provide additional support to assist the graduate in their first year.

43 WORKLOAD

43.1 Scheduled class time

43.1.1 Scheduled class time includes regular rostered academic and pastoral teaching sessions in a documented course of study approved by the Employer for which the Teacher has prime responsibility for educational delivery and includes direct student instruction, assessment and reporting.

43.1.2 Further to cl.43.1.1, scheduled class time does not include chapel, assembly, homeroom duties, sport and private study, all for which an appropriate allowance is given. Furthermore, the following items, including but not limited to co-curricular activities, House activities, special events, excursions/camps, extras, meetings, parent teacher interviews, curriculum development, assessment, reporting, professional development and yard duties are not included in scheduled class time as these are part of a Teacher’s professional expectations.

43.1.3 Unless otherwise agreed,
i. A Full-time primary Teacher will be allocated a maximum of 42 hours of scheduled class time per two week cycle;

ii. A full-time secondary Teacher will be allocated a maximum of 36 hours of scheduled class time per two week cycle;

iii. For a Teacher who teaches across primary and secondary an attempt will be made to reflect the primary/secondary balance within the load;

iv. A part-time Teacher will be allocated a pro rata amount of scheduled class time.

43:1.4 In a situation of an uneven semester load and/or the allocation of classes is more than the limits provided for in cl.43.1.3, this will be agreed with the Teacher, and there will be a reduction in yard duties and/or extras allocation.

43.2 Extras

43.2.1 An extra is any class, yard duty or morning homeroom duty taken by a Teacher which is in addition to a Teacher's normal scheduled class time, yard duties or morning homeroom.

43.2.2 Unless a Teacher agrees to perform additional extras, a Full-time Teacher can be required to take up to a maximum of 22 hours of extras over any one School Year, provided that:

i. A Teacher will not be required to take more than the equivalent of two extras per timetable cycle. This excludes 'top-up' extras for Teachers who are under allotted and in-lieu extras.

ii. A teaching period equates to 1.0 of an extra, a yard duty equates to 0.5 of an extra and a homeroom duty equates to 0.25 of an extra.

iii. Co-curricular events including but not limited to sports days, House activities, excursions/camps, in-school activities, special events, requests for special arrangements, parent teacher meetings, afternoon homeroom, scheduled meetings, curriculum preparation, assessment, reporting and professional development are professional duties and will not count as extras.

iv. A Part-time Teacher will be allocated a pro rata amount of extras.

43.3 Class sizes

43.3.1 A class will not contain more than 30 students, unless otherwise agreed by the Teacher.

44 NON ATTENDANCE TIME

44.1 A Teacher, other than as required under Schedule 1C.2.1, is not required or requested to attend at the School during Non Attendance Time but is required to perform such professional duties as are determined by the Teacher as being reasonably necessary to enable the proper performance of the Teacher's role. The Teacher's role is defined by the Employer.

44.2 Non Attendance Time is not a period of authorised leave for the purpose of the Act.

44.3 Where a Teacher takes unpaid leave for more than ten (10) days during Attendance Time, the number of weeks of paid Non Attendance Time will be reduced by the number of weeks taken. The entitlement to paid Non Attendance Time during the School Year will be calculated pursuant to the formula in cl.44.4.
44.4 If a Teacher's employment is terminated or a Teacher resigns prior to the end of term 4 in any School Year or a Teacher is employed for part only of a School Year, the Teacher is entitled to a payment for Non Attendance Time in recognition of the averaging of hours of work under this Agreement, pursuant to the following formula:

\text{Teacher's Attendance Time}^\ast \text{ (weeks)} \times \frac{\text{Non Attendance Time (weeks)}}{\text{School's Attendance Time (weeks)}} - \frac{\text{Non Attendance Time already taken (weeks)}}{}

*periods of leave without pay deducted

45 ANNUAL LEAVE

45.1 Annual Leave is in accordance with the NES (Ch2, Pt 2-2, Div 6 of the Act), except where more ancillary terms are provided in this Agreement.

45.2 This clause does not reproduce Division 6 of Part 2-2 of the Act in full.

45.3 A Teacher is entitled to four weeks' annual leave for every 12 months of continuous service on a pro rata and cumulative basis.

45.4 A Teacher must take an amount of annual leave during each of the shutdown periods following the end of term 1, 2, 3 and 4. The shut down period may differ for individual Teachers, depending on work commitments and activities. The shut down is defined as a period where the Employer shuts down the business, or any part of the business, in which the Teacher works.

45.5 A Teacher and the Employer may agree in writing that the Teacher performs duties during all or part of the shut down period and defer taking the equivalent period of annual leave to another time.

45.6 A Teacher will take all accrued annual leave during the shut down period.

45.7 If a Teacher's employment is terminated or a Teacher resigns prior to the end of term 4 in any School Year or a Teacher is employed for part only of a School Year, the Teacher is entitled to annual leave, pursuant to the following formula:

\text{Teacher's Attendance Time (weeks)} \times \frac{\text{Annual leave (weeks)}}{\text{School's Attendance time (weeks)}} - \text{already taken (weeks)}

46 CAMP ALLOWANCE

46.1 Subject to the exception in clause 46.2, a Teacher required to attend an overnight School Camp will be paid an allowance of $50 per night.

46.2 The allowance in clause 46.1 is not payable to a Teacher who voluntarily attends an overnight School Camp and their attendance is in excess of the required number of teachers for student/teacher ratios as determined by the College.

47 NOTICE OF TERMINATION

47.1 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a Teacher serving the Minimum Employment Period pursuant to cl.11, or a Teacher wishes to resign during the Minimum Employment Period, the period of notice is specified by cl.11.
47.2 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a Teacher, where the Teacher has had five or more years’ continuous service with the Employer, the Employer will give a full term’s notice in writing or full payment in lieu.

47.3 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a Teacher, where the Teacher has had more than six months’ continuous service but less than five years’ continuous service with the Employer, the Employer will give seven weeks’ notice in writing, wholly within the one school term or full payment in lieu.

47.4 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a Fixed Term Teacher, who is replacing another Teacher on parental leave, the Employer will give the Fixed Term Teacher four weeks’ notice if the Teacher being replaced provides notice to the Employer pursuant to clause 11 that the Teacher being replaced wishes to return from parental leave.

47.5 Payment in lieu is calculated by taking the amount of salary and rates of pay in Schedules 1B that a Teacher would have received by working during the notice period if the Teacher’s employment had not been terminated.

47.6 Subject to c.11 – Minimum Employment Period, a Teacher must provide the Employer with a minimum of seven (7) weeks’ notice in writing with such notice to be given wholly within the one school term.

47.7 The notice period in this clause and in cl.11 – Minimum Employment Period do not apply where the Teacher is guilty of serious misconduct.

47.8 If a Teacher does not provide the Employer with the full notice of termination required in accordance with this clause, the Employer will withhold monies owed to the Teacher in accordance with cl.25.

PART 4 CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT FOR SCHOOL SUPPORT STAFF

48 CLASSIFICATION AND SALARIES

48.1 Schedule 2A sets out the classification structure for School Support Staff.

48.2 Schedule 2B sets out the salary of School Support Staff entitled to school holidays.

48.3 Schedule 2C sets out the salary for School Support Staff entitled to four weeks’ annual leave.

49 HOURS OF WORK

49.1 The ordinary hours of work for full time School Support Staff will be 38 hours per week.

49.2 The ordinary hours of work may be averaged over a fortnight or a four-week period.

49.3 The ordinary hours of work of a School Support Staff Employee will be performed:

49.3.1 between 7am and 6pm on Monday to Friday for an ancillary, clerical and administration Employee; and 49.3.2 between 6am and 6pm on Monday to Friday, and 6am and 12noon on Saturday for a grounds and maintenance staff Employee.

49.4 The Employer may request a part-time School Support Staff Employee to work reasonable additional hours, if the Employee agrees to the request the provisions of this clause will apply.

49.4.1 Where the School Support Staff Employee's hours are averaged:
   (i) the School Support Staff Employee will be paid for all such additional hours at the casual hourly rate of pay, provided that the additional hours fall within the applicable daily spread of hours in clause 49.3, do not result in the School Support Staff Employee working more than eight hours on that day, and do not result in the School Support Staff Employee working more than the allowed maximum weekly ordinary hours during the averaging period; and
   (ii) in all other cases the School Support Staff Employee will be entitled to payment at the appropriate overtime rate of pay for any additional hours worked.

49.4.2 Where the School Support Staff Employee’s hours are not averaged:
   (i) the School Support Staff Employee will be paid for all such additional hours at the casual hourly rate of pay, provided that the additional hours worked fall within the applicable daily spread of hours in clause 49.3, and do not result in the School Support Staff Employee working more than eight hours on that day; and
   (ii) in all other cases the School Support Staff Employee will be entitled to payment at the appropriate overtime rate of pay for any additional hours worked.

49.4.3 Where additional hours are worked on a day the School Support Staff Employee is already attending for work, the minimum casual engagement of two hours will not apply.

49.4.4 Additional hours worked by a part-time School Support Staff Employee in accordance with this clause do not accrue leave entitlements under this award or the NES.

50 OVERTIME

50.1 Overtime rates

50.1.1 A School Support Staff Employee will be paid overtime for all pre-approved work performed outside of or in excess of the ordinary hours detailed under clause 49 as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time worked</th>
<th>Overtime rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Monday—Friday</td>
<td>150% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first 3 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay after that</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Saturday</td>
<td>150% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay for the first 3 hours and 200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay after that</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Sunday</td>
<td>200% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Public holidays</td>
<td>250% of the ordinary hourly rate of pay</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
50.1.2 Overtime will be calculated daily.

50.2 Time off instead of payment for overtime

50.2.1 A Support Staff Employee and the Employer may agree in writing to the Support Staff Employee taking time off instead of being paid for a particular amount of overtime that has been worked by the Support Staff Employee.

50.2.2 Any amount of overtime that has been worked by a Support Staff Employee in a particular pay period and that is to be taken as time off instead of the Support Staff Employee being paid for it must be the subject of a separate agreement under clause 50.2.

50.2.3 An agreement must state each of the following:

(i) the number of overtime hours to which it applies and when those hours were worked;
(ii) that the Employer and the Support Staff Employee agree that the Support Staff Employee may take time off instead of being paid for the overtime;
(iii) that, if the Support Staff Employee requests at any time, the Employer must pay the Support Staff Employee, for overtime covered by the agreement but not taken as time off, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked;
(iv) that any payment mentioned in subparagraph (iii) must be made in the next pay period following the request.

50.2.4 The period of time off that a Support Staff Employee is entitled to take is the same as the number of overtime hours worked.

EXAMPLE: By making an agreement under clause 50.2 an employee who worked 2 overtime hours is entitled to 2 hours' time off.

50.2.5 Time off must be taken:

(i) within the period of 6 months after the overtime is worked; and
(ii) at a time or times within that period of 6 months agreed by the Support Staff Employee and Employer.

50.2.6 If the Support Staff Employee requests at any time, to be paid for overtime covered by an agreement under clause 50.2 but not taken as time off, the Employer must pay the Support Staff Employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following the request, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

50.2.7 If time off for overtime that has been worked is not taken within the period of 6 months mentioned in subclause 50.2.5, the Employer must pay the Support Staff Employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following those 6 months, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

50.2.8 The Employer must keep a copy of any agreement under clause 50.2 as an employee record.

50.2.9 The Employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on a Support Staff Employee in relation to a decision by the Support Staff
Employee to make, or not make, an agreement to take time off instead of payment for overtime.

50.2.10 If, on the termination of the employee’s employment, time off for overtime worked by the employee to which clause 50.2 applies has not been taken, the employer must pay the employee for the overtime at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

50.3 Make-up time
A Support Staff Employee may elect, with the consent of the Employer, to work make-up time under which the Support Staff Employee takes time off during ordinary hours, and works those hours at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours provided in the Agreement.

51 MEAL BREAK

51.1 The Employer is required to provide an unpaid meal break of not less than 30 consecutive minutes to a School Support Staff member who is engaged or rostered to work for five or more hours on a day. Such meal break will start no later than five hours after the employee commenced work on that day.

51.2 A School Support Staff member is entitled to a paid morning tea break of 15 minutes.

52 ANNUAL LEAVE

52.1 Annual Leave is in accordance with the NES (Ch 2, Pt 2-2, Div 6 of the Act), except where ancillary terms are provided in this Agreement.

52.2 This clause does not reproduce Division 6 of Part 2-2 of the Act in full.

52.3 School Support Staff are entitled to four weeks’ annual leave for every 12 months of continuous service on a pro-rata and cumulative basis.

52.4 School Support Staff must generally take an amount of annual leave during a shut down period. The shut down is defined as a period where the Employer shuts down the business, or any part of the business, in which the School Support worker is employed.

52.5 Where a School Support Staff member has not accrued sufficient annual leave to be taken during the shut down period, the School Support Staff member will be entitled to leave which will be unpaid.

52.6 A School Support Staff Employee in receipt of four weeks annual leave will not have to take annual leave during the close down period between Christmas Day and New Year’s Day. For the avoidance of doubt, this clause does not apply to a Support Staff Employee in receipt of school holidays and engaged pursuant to Sch.2B.

53 SCHOOL HOLIDAYS

53.1 A School Support Staff member is entitled to School Holidays, which is inclusive of annual leave, if specified at the time of employment or during a period of employment.

53.2 The salary for a School Support Staff member in Schedule 2B takes this period of additional leave into account.

53.3 A School Support Staff member is entitled to public holidays that fall during this period of additional leave but they do not create any additional entitlements.

53.4 A School Support Staff member who is employed for part only of a School Year or who takes leave without pay in excess of 10 working days in any School Year, will be paid on a pro rata basis during School Holidays with the calculation based upon the proportion of weeks worked at the rate of pay applicable at the time of the School Holidays or at the time that employment is terminated. The formula to calculate an entitlement to School Holidays in accordance with this clause is as follows:

\text{Number of working weeks excluding paid holiday periods} - \frac{3}{3} \cdot \text{School Holidays already paid}

54 NOTICE OF TERMINATION

54.1 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of School Support Staff serving the Minimum Employment Period pursuant to cl.11, or a School Support Staff member wishes to resign during the Minimum Employment Period, the period of notice is specified by cl.11.

54.2 Where the Employer wishes to terminate the employment of a School Support Staff Member, who has had more than six months' continuous service with the Employer, four weeks' notice in writing, or full payment in lieu, will be provided to the School Support Staff member. Where a School Support Staff member is entitled to School Holidays, notice is to be given wholly within the one school term.

54.3 Payment in lieu of notice is calculated by taking the amount of salary and rates of pay in Schedule 2B or 2C that a School Support Staff member would have received by working during the notice period if the School Support Staff member's employment had not been terminated.

54.4 A School Support Staff member, who has had more than six months' continuous employment with the Employer, must provide the Employer with a minimum of four weeks' notice in writing. Where a School Support Staff member is entitled to School Holidays, notice is to be given wholly within the one school term.

54.5 In addition to the period of notice specified in cl. 54, a School Support Staff member over 45 years of age at the time of being given notice of termination by the Employer, with not less than 5 years of continuous service will be entitled to an additional week's notice.

54.6 The notice period in this clause and in cl.11 do not apply where the School Support Staff member is guilty of serious misconduct.

54.7 If an Employee does not provide the Employer with the full notice of termination required in accordance with this clause, the Employer will withhold monies owed to the Employee in accordance with cl.25.

1C.1.2 The rate of pay is linked to a position of responsibility rather than tied to an individual Teacher.

1C.2 Notification

1C.2.1 The Principal will provide a Teacher with a position of responsibility, a position description, its tenure and the amount to be paid. Teachers with positions of responsibility may be requested to attend the school during periods of non-attendance time as part of normal professional expectations. This should not exceed more than five days, except for Heads of Schools where this is fifteen days, with sufficient notice to be given with dates to be determined at least one term in advance. 1C.3.2 The level of additional responsibility can be categorised as either administrative, pastoral care or educational leadership, or a combination of these.

1C.3.3 The assignment of a position to a particular level of responsibility will reflect the graduation of responsibilities exercised in the College, whether administrative, pastoral care or educational leadership. Level 4 is the most significant level of responsibility.

Example:
- Head of Faculty (medium) or Primary Subject Coordinator

Example:
- Director
- Head of School
SCHEDULE 2 – CLASSIFICATION STRUCTURE - SCHOOL SUPPORT STAFF (EMPLOYEES OTHER THAN TEACHERS COVERED BY THIS INCLUDING ANCILLARY STAFF, CLERICAL AND ADMINISTRATION STAFF, AND GROUNDS AND MAINTENANCE STAFF)

2A.1 CLASSIFYING SCHOOL SUPPORT STAFF

2A.1.1 Employees covered by this agreement and not covered by schedule 1 shall be classified in one of the Bands 1 to 3 according to clause 2A.2 of schedule 2. The Employer will classify the position of employment in accordance with the general work description and qualifications based upon the principal functions of the position required to be exercised by the Employee, as determined by the Employer.

2A.1.2 Upon commencement of employment, the Employer will advise the Employee in writing of the classification level of the Employee’s position of employment and of any change to the Employee’s classification level.

2A.2 BANDS

2A.2.1 Band 1

(a) General Work Description

The Employee undertakes routine tasks that are usually carried out under close supervision and direction. Work that carries some degree of independence will generally involve a limited number of tasks performed on a regular basis where priorities are clear, procedures are well established and direction is readily available. Work is regularly checked.

In the first year of service, the Employee applies knowledge and skills to a limited range of tasks.

With experience, the Employee applies knowledge and skills to a wider range of tasks and is responsible for assuring the quality of the Employee’s work. An experienced employee at band 1 will have the ability to exercise limited judgement within clearly defined guidelines and well-established practices that relate specifically to the tasks performed and may be able to exercise some degree of autonomy and discretion.

With significant experience, the Employee is required to demonstrate expertise and possibly work with little direct supervision.

(b) Qualifications

Qualification requirements do not operate at band 1. Certification requirements may be required to legally perform specific tasks – e.g. driver’s license, first aid, safe food handling.

(c) Supervision

The Employee receives direct supervision and does not carry responsibility for the work of others. More experienced employees will provide basic guidance and advice to others relating to tasks within the work area.
With experience, the Employee is required to perform a wider range of tasks under routine supervision. Direction is provided on the tasks to be undertaken with some latitude to rearrange sequences and discriminate between established methods.

(d) Judgement, Problem Solving and Decision Making

Problems can usually be solved by reference to well documented procedures and instructions and clearly established practices. Assistance is readily available when problems arise.

(e) Positions

- Administration Assistant
- First Aid Attendant
- Language/LOTE Assistant
- Library Assistant
- Reception
- Teacher Assistant/Integration Aide

2A.2.2 Band 2

This may include the supervision and coordination of other education support class staff within the work area or educational program. Input in identifying training needs and development within the work area and accountability for a single function or operation of a work area are a feature of this band.

The Employee will provide support to teachers and students that is beyond the routine support provided at band 1 and may undertake medical intervention support tasks or other specialised student/teacher support roles.

Performs technical tasks that require a sound knowledge of basic technical and/or scientific principles.

(b) Qualifications

In addition to the knowledge and skills required at band 1, the Employee is required to undertake duties requiring additional experience or knowledge either as a result of qualifications or experience or both.

(c) Supervision

Supervision and coordination would be limited to ensuring routine tasks are performed to required standards. The Employee may be responsible for the allocation of work, coordinating workflow, checking the progress of work, the quality of work and problem solving.

The Employee would normally be responsible to a manager. Performance is checked when reporting to a supervisor or by employee feedback, rather than by monitoring each task outcome.

The Employee exercises judgement to determine when advice should be sought. The Employee is required to use initiative, exercise discretion and perform work to a high level.

(d) Judgement, Problem Solving and Decision Making
At this level, problems are easily identified; choice of solution is clear; information readily available and usually reliable; and outcomes predictable. The Employee exercises judgement on work methods and has scope to identify a problem, recommend or instigate changes to work practices, determine the strategic option or solution to a problem and provide input into developing and changing College policy.

2A.2.3 Band 3

(a) General Work Description

Range 3 is distinguished by the introduction of management responsibility and accountability for the delivery of professional support services. The Employee seeks to gain cooperation from other staff members or members of the school community to achieve specific objectives. Direction on targets and goals is provided but the position will have some degree of latitude in determining how they are achieved. This latitude will generally be limited by standard procedures and school policy. Deviation from standard procedures and school policy will require guidance and direction from senior management.

The Employee is required to develop and coordinate strategies across a range of functional areas that impact upon administration or operation of the College and the achievement of the College’s objectives. Tasks are of a complex nature. The Employee may be responsible for:

- Applying skills and knowledge to a range of different and complex tasks, using significant initiative and discretion;
- Managing established procedures to handle/direct/control tasks, using significant initiative and discretion;
- Interpreting procedure and policy and ensuring compliance with rules and regulations;
- Providing key support and timely advice to the Principal or Principal’s delegate;
- Providing support to the Principal and/or the Principal’s delegate/s with regular progress reports;

(b) Qualifications

The Employee requires specialist, professional and/or technical knowledge, understanding and expertise related to the tasks of the work area. The Employee has the skills required to do the job either because of qualifications or experience or both. This is the minimum band for positions that carry a mandatory qualification requirement.

(c) Supervision

The Employee is provided with broad direction on targets and goals by the Principal or Principal’s delegate. The Employee will have some latitude in determining how the targets and goals are achieved, which would generally be limited by standard procedures and policies. The Principal or Principal's delegate may intervene in relation to the determination of priorities, deadline and operating strategies.

(d) Judgement, Problem Solving and Decision Making

At this level, problems may not always be easily identifiable; solutions may be unclear and require application of knowledge and skills to guide choices. Complex sets of rules, activities or procedures may be applied in particular cases and the employee may make recommendations to senior staff. Research may be required and outcomes may not always be predictable.
(e) Positions

- Executive Assistant to the Principal
- Personal Assistant to the Deputy Principal
