Either party may seek the assistance of a representative. In normal circumstances, the matter should not be referred by either party to the FWA prior to the completion of Steps 1 and 2.

- that for the period of paternity leave he will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with his contract of employment.

20.9.3 The Employee will not be in breach of 20.9.2 if the failure to give the required period of notice is because of the birth occurring earlier than expected, the death of the mother of the child, or other compelling circumstances.

20.10 Adoption Leave

20.10.1 An Employee must give written notice to his or her Employer of the Employee's intention to apply for adoption leave as soon as reasonably

- b) if the Employee receives a placement notice about the placement after the end of the period of 8 weeks after receiving the placement approval notice - as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the placement notice.

20.10.4 A notice under 20.10.1, 20.10.2 or 20.10.3 must be given to the Employee's Employer as soon as reasonably practicable where the Employee cannot comply due to the day that the placement is expected to start or any other compelling reason.

20.10.5 An Employee must provide a written application to his or her Employer for short adoption leave, stating the first and last dates of the period no later than

Employee remains entitled to at the stated day is cancelled with effect from that day.

20.10.10 An Employee seeking to adopt a child is entitled to unpaid leave for the purpose of attending any compulsory interviews or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure. The Employee and the Employer should agree on the length of the unpaid leave. Where agreement cannot be reached, the Employee is entitled to take up to two days' unpaid leave. Where paid leave is available to the Employee, the Employer may require the Employee to take such leave instead.

20.11 Parental Leave and Other Entitlements

An Employee may in lieu of or in conjunction with parental leave, access any annual leave or long service leave entitlements which the Employee has accrued subject to the total amount of leave not exceeding 52 weeks or a longer period as agreed under clause 20.6.2.

20.12 Transfer to a Safe Job

20.12.1 Subject to 20.12.2 and 20.12.3, where an Employee is pregnant and, in the opinion of a medical practitioner, illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the Employee make it inadvisable for the Employee to continue at her present work, the Employee will, if the Employer deems it practicable, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

20.12.2 This subclause applies to an Employee if

- a) the Employee is entitled to ordinary maternity leave; and
- b) the Employee has already complied with the documentation requirements under 20.7; and
- c) the Employee gives her Employer a medical certificate from a medical practitioner containing a statement to the effect that, in the medical practitioner's opinion, the Employee is fit to work, but that it is inadvisable for her to continue in her present position for a stated period because of:

- (i) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy; or
- (ii) hazards connected with that position.

20.12.3 If the Employer does not think it to be reasonably practicable to transfer the Employee to a safe job:

- a) the Employee may take leave, at the rate of pay and conditions attaching to the job held prior to taking leave, immediately for a period ending at the time mentioned in 20.12.4(b); or 20.13.2 Subject to the relevant provisions of the Act, the period of ordinary maternity leave, long paternity leave or long adoption leave may be shortened by written agreement between the Employer and the Employee.

20.13.3 To avoid doubt, this subclause does not apply to the right to request provision in 20.6.2.

20.14 Returning to Work After a Period of Parental Leave

20.14.1 An Employee will notify the Employer of the Employee's intention to return to work after a period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the leave.

20.14.2 An Employee will be entitled to the position which the Employee held immediately before proceeding on parental leave. In the case of an Employee transferred to a safe job pursuant to clause 20.12, the Employee will be entitled to return to the position the Employee held immediately before such transfer. A Part Time Teacher will be entitled to the same time fraction.

20.14.3 Where such position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the Employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the Employee will be entitled to a position as nearly comparable in status and pay to that of the Employee's former position.

20.14.4 For the purposes of this clause, position includes a position of responsibility for an Employee who is a Teacher but does not necessarily include the same classes and/or subjects.

20.15 Replacement Employees

20.15.1 A replacement Employee is an Employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an Employee proceeding on parental leave.

20.15.2 Before an Employer engages a replacement Employee, the Employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the Employee who is being replaced.

20.16 Communication During Parental Leave

20.16.1 Where an Employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the Employer shall take reasonable steps to:

- a) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave; and
- b) provide an opportunity for the Employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the Employee held before commencing parental leave.

20.16.2 The Employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that will affect the Employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the Employee intends to return to work and whether the Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

20.16.3 The Employee shall also notify the Employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with 20.16.1.

21. LONG SERVICE LEAVE

21.1 Entitlement

- 21.1.1 An Employee is entitled to long service leave in accordance with the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic.) as amended from time to time. This Agreement will prevail over the Act in the event of any inconsistency.
- 21.1.2 An Employee is entitled to long service leave of thirteen weeks at their ordinary rate of pay upon the completion of ten years of continuous employment. An Employee is entitled to an additional six and a half weeks' long service leave for each additional five years of continuous employment with the Employer.
- 21.1.3 Ordinary pay is the pay an Employee is entitled to receive at the time the Employee takes long service leave for working their normal weekly hours at their ordinary time rate of pay.
- 21.1.4 An Employee is entitled to access accumulated pro rata long service leave entitlements upon the completion of 7 years' continuous service, provided such leave is taken during a whole school term and not less than one full term of leave is taken. This provision has the express effect of overriding the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic.).
- 21.1.5 In the event that the accrued leave taken pursuant to clause 21.1.4 is less than the period of the school term, the Employee will take the remaining weeks as leave without pay. The Employer will, if requested, spread the payment across the full term of leave.
- 21.1.6 Accrued long service leave will be paid in lieu where an Employee's employment is terminated after 7 years of continuous employment.
- 21.1.7 An Employee, whose service has been all full-time or all at the same part-time fraction, is paid during long service leave at the Employee's ordinary pay.
- 21.1.8 An Employee whose time fraction has varied during service is paid at a proportionate rate during long service leave. The rate is determined by calculating an average of the Employee's time fractions over the period of eligible service.
- 21.1.9 An Employee should give at least 6 months notice of taking Long Service, unless otherwise agreed between the Employer and the Employee. Long Service Leave will be taken at a mutually agreed time taking into consideration the needs of the Employee and the operational needs of the workplace.

21.2 Illness on Long Service Leave

- 21.2.1 An Employee, who becomes ill or suffers an injury during long service leave and has an entitlement to sick leave, is entitled to have the period of illness or injury treated as sick leave, pursuant to Clause 16 of this Agreement. The period of sick leave will be deducted from the Employee's personal leave credits and the long service leave will be recredited to the Employee. The Employer may require the Employee to be examined by a registered medical practitioner of the Employer's choice, provided the practitioner is reasonably accessible to the Employee.

21.2.2 The Employee's application under 21.2.1 must be received by the employer during the period of illness or injury and must be accompanied by a medical certificate from a Registered Health Practitioner or a statutory declaration attesting to the illness or the injury and the likely duration of the illness or injury.

21.2.3 At the time of making the application under 21.2.1, the Employee must indicate to the Employer whether the Employee wishes to extend the long service leave by the period of the illness or injury or to return from long service leave as planned with the period of illness or injury increasing the Employee's accrued long service leave entitlement.

21.3 Cashing Out Long Service Leave

21.3.1 Where the Employer and Employee agree, an Employee who is entitled to long service leave may request, in conjunction with the taking of a period of long service leave of not less than one full term, to cash out a proportion of their accrued long service leave. The Employee may cash out up to 50 per cent of the accrued long service entitlement. This provision has the express effect of overriding section 74 of the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic.)

22. LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

22.1 An Employee may apply for leave without pay which may be granted at the discretion of the Employer. An Employee agrees that entitlements under this Agreement do not accrue during any period of leave without pay. This provision expressly overrides the Long Service Leave Act 1992 (Vic).

22.2 An Employee may apply for leave without pay in conjunction with long service leave.

23. ACCIDENT COMPENSATION AND ACCIDENT MAKE-UP PAY

23.1 Where an Employee is incapacitated for work by reason of a work-related injury or illness and becomes entitled to receive weekly payments under the Accident Compensation Act 1985 (Vic), the Employer must pay to the Employee the difference between such weekly payments and the normal remuneration of the Employee for a period or periods in the aggregate of up to 39 weeks in respect of each such injury or illness but only for so much of that period as the Employee remains employed by the Employer.

23.2 If an Employee is absent from work because of a personal illness or injury, for which the Employee is receiving compensation payments pursuant to the Accident Compensation Act 1985 (Vic), then:

- a) the Employee does not accrue any of the following entitlements under this Agreement or under the Act (where relevant) for the duration of any such absence:
 - annual leave; or
 - paid personal/carer's leave; and
- b) the Employee, including a Teacher, is not entitled to any payment or benefit in respect of any Non Attendance Time for a Teacher or

- 23.3 In the event that an Employee, who is in receipt of weekly compensation payments pursuant to the Accident Compensation Act 1985 (Vic), has an entitlement to annual leave during a shut down period, the workers' compensation payments will cease and the Employee will take the accrued annual leave entitlement.
- 23.4 For the purposes of 23.3, the period of annual leave will not reduce the Employee's entitlement to such compensation payments or to accident make-up pay, if applicable.
- 23.5 Where an Employee returns to work in a partial capacity and is entitled to partial weekly compensation payments in accordance with the Accident Compensation Act 1985 (Vic), and where the Employee is entitled to annual leave at the part time rate of pay, the Employee will remain entitled to be paid the weekly compensation payments in accordance with the Act.

24. WITHHOLDING OF MONIES

If an Employee fails to give the full notice required by the relevant clauses 9, 39, 43, 47, and 52, the Employer is entitled to withhold from any monies owing to the Employee, an amount equal to the remuneration that the Employee would have earned for the number of weeks or days of the notice period that the Employee did not work.

25. REDUNDANCY

25.1 Definition

Redundancy occurs where the Employer has made a definite decision that the Employer no longer wishes the job that the Employee has been doing, to be done by anyone and that decision leads to the termination of employment of the Employee, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour.

25.2 Redundancy Disputes

25.2.1 Where a redundancy dispute arises, and if it has not already done so, an Employer must provide the affected Employee(s) and any employee representative (if requested by any affected Employee) in good time, with relevant information:

- a) the reasons for any proposed redundancy;
- b) the number and categories of Employees likely to be affected; and
- c) the period over which any proposed redundancies are intended to be undertaken mitigate the adverse affects of any proposed redundancies on the Employees concerned.

25.3 Transfer to Lower Paid Duties

Where an Employee is transferred to lower paid duties for reasons set out above the Employee will be entitled to the same period of notice of transfer as the Employee would have been entitled to if the Employee’s employment had been terminated. The Employer may, at its discretion, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the new lower ordinary time rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

25.4 Severance Pay

25.4.1 The severance payment for an Employee will be in accordance with the following:
