Where the termination is due to the serious and wilful misconduct of the employee there is no entitlement to payment.

- (c) An employee who has completed at least eight years continuous employment at the time of the termination or resignation or cessation of their employment shall be entitled to pro-rata long service leave payment based on the employee's service and FTE at the time of the termination.

 - (iii) a leave period of a minimum of one term or, if more than that, two whole consecutive terms (i.e. not one and a half terms) is encouraged. Where an employee has insufficient entitlement to cover the entire term or terms the balance may be made up by taking approved leave without pay.

At the start of each school year each employee will be given the option of choosing either;
 - (i) To be paid their annual leave payment at the time of the scheduled leave; or
 - (ii) To be paid their annual leave in a lump sum at the end of the school year.

Irrespective of the method of payment chosen the periods of annual leave for a part time employee who works less than a full school year will be scheduled by the employer, with the intention that the annual leave due to an employee is taken within the calendar year in which it is accrued.

24. PERSONAL LEAVE

For absences of more than two consecutive days i.e. for the third consecutive day or part thereof, a medical certificate must be obtained by the employee and provided to the employer on, or as close to, the first day back at work after the absence.

(b) Commencing Employees

Employees employed under this Agreement, other than casuals, Sessional Specialists (Clause 16) or employees engaged for a period of less than six (6) months, will be credited with a personal leave balance equal to one (1) working week (based on the employee's FTE) upon commencement of employment.

PROVIDED THAT a commencing employee credited with personal leave in accordance with the provisions of this clause will not accrue any further personal leave during the first six (6) months of their employment, and will revert to the accrual method prescribed by Division 7, sub-clause 96(2) of the Fair Work Act should their employment be ongoing beyond the initial six (6) months.

25. EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES LEAVE

- (a) Employees, other than Sessional Specialists, covered by this agreement are entitled to apply for additional paid leave for absences from work which have become necessary due to exceptional circumstances.
- (b) "Exceptional circumstances" means, for the purposes of this clause, extreme personal events, as a result of which the employee must take time of work, where it is not appropriate for the leave period to be deducted from an existing leave accrual or alternative entitlement. For example, absence due to/or to deal with instances of domestic violence or family breakdown, or absence due to an illness covered by a medical certificate and recognised by the School as an infectious condition (as defined by published OSHC and ELC Exclusion List).

PROVIDED THAT should a clause be incorporated into the Award during the life of this Agreement which deals with the same or similar matters, then this clause shall wholly prevail over the relevant Award clause or clauses (if more than one).

- (c) The entitlement to exceptional circumstances leave is limited to five (5) days per calendar year. For part time employees the exceptional circumstances leave entitlement shall be based on the employee's FTE at the time of taking the leave.
- (d) The exceptional circumstances leave entitlement does not accrue from year to year.
- (e) Applications for exceptional circumstances leave are to be directed to the Chief Operating Officer. The Chief Operating Officer may request supporting evidence of the need for the leave such as but not limited to, a medical certificate or statutory declaration.
- (f) Wherever possible, applications following School procedures, should be made in advance, though in certain circumstances the School accepts that applications may need to be made retrospectively.

26. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

- (a) Where a member of an employee's immediate family dies the employee shall be entitled to 5 days bereavement (compassionate) leave in accordance with the provisions set out in Sub-section 104(c) of the Fair Work Act 2009.

For the purposes of this clause "immediate family" means;

- (i) a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee; or
- (ii) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the employee.

27. STUDY LEAVE

- (a) Employees, other than Sessional Specialist, covered by this agreement are entitled to apply for up to two (2) additional days of paid leave to complete commitments associated with the requirements of a defined qualification as per the School's career competency program (however named).
- (b) The entitlement to study leave is limited to two work (2) days per school year.
- (c) "Work day" is defined as a normal day of work however that day is formally defined for that employee.
- (d) The study leave entitlement does not accrue from year to year.

28. SELF FUNDED LEAVE SCHEME

- (a) An employee who has completed a minimum of 12 months of continuous service with the employer and who is covered by this Agreement may elect to join the self-funded leave scheme offered by the employer.
- (b) The scheme allows employees to set aside an amount of money from their pay to fund additional leave. Employees may elect one, two or three calendar weeks (i.e. Monday to Sunday) of additional leave per calendar year.
- (c) An employee wishing to join the self-funded leave scheme for the first time, must make written application to the employer notifying them of their nominated arrangement. It is the School's preference that such a letter be lodged and the application officially approved by the end of February of the calendar year in which the employee wishes to join the scheme (nothing prevents an employee from making application in the preceding calendar year if they wish).
- (d) Employees electing to join at another time during the calendar year however will only be able to access a pro-rata accrual of their nominated self funded leave period by the end of that first year.
- (e) Employees participating in the scheme in the second and any subsequent consecutive calendar year must reach agreement with the employer on the quantum of additional leave (i.e. one, two or three calendar weeks) before the commencement of the calendar year. ~~If the employee fails to provide notice of the quantum required for the coming calendar year it will be assumed that the existing arrangement/quantum applies.~~
- (f) Once membership of the scheme is approved, the employee must remain in the scheme for the remainder of that calendar year.
- (g) The employer will give consideration to applications to join the scheme so long as operational requirements can be maintained to a standard acceptable to the School.
- (h) Self-funded leave must be taken in whole calendar weeks. Such calendar weeks may be non-consecutive however must all be completed (i.e. all self-funded leave taken) before the end of the calendar year.

- (i) The actual amount set aside from the employee's pay for the calendar year shall be calculated and agreed as part of the application process, and shall be paid to the employee as a lump sum when they proceed on the period of self-funded leave. For clarity, it is the annual deduction which is paid to the employee at the time of taking the leave, not the amount set aside at that time.

PROVIDED THAT, the employer is entitled to recoup any monies owed by the employee if the employee's employment with the employer ceases before the end of the calendar year in which the self funded leave arrangement applied. Such monies may be deducted from the employee's final pay, or where there are insufficient funds payable in the final pay to cover the debt, the employee's monthly pay.

- (j) Application for any period of self-funded leave is subject to approval, as is the timing of any leave period. However, as it is a condition of the self-funded leave scheme that the leave be taken within the calendar year in which it is funded it is, therefore, incumbent on both the employer and employee to identify suitable leave periods during the calendar year as part of the application and planning process.

If an employee fails to take part or all of their self-funded leave in any calendar year the balance of the money set aside to fund their untaken leave pay will be paid to the employee in the December pay. In such circumstances, the self-funded leave balance will be reduced to zero by 31 December of that year.

- (k) Self-funded leave is not annual leave, and accordingly there is no leave loading payable in connection to any period of self-funded leave.

29. PAYMENT OF WAGES

- (a) For the life of this Agreement this clause overrides clause 19 of the Educational Services (Schools) General Staff Award 2010.
- (b) Payment of wages shall be monthly by direct bank deposit to the institution and account of employee's choosing no later than 15th day of the month.
- (c) Employees covered by this Agreement who were employed prior to 1 January, 2002 and who are paid fortnightly will have the option of being paid in the existing manner for the life of this Agreement.

- (d) In the event of an employee suffering financial hardship as a direct result of the monthly pay frequency the employer will give consideration to increasing the pay frequency for the employee concerned for an agreed period in order to assist the employee in overcoming the financial hardship. Applications for relief under this clause should be directed to the Chief Operating Officer.
- (e) The parties agree that should, during the life of this Agreement, the frequency of payment for employees of the school covered by the Educational Services (Teachers) Award 2010 be varied the frequency of payment for employees covered by this Agreement will be adjusted accordingly and the details of the agreed adjustment recorded in a memorandum of understanding. In order to take effect the memorandum of understanding will need to be signed by the employer and the nominated employee representative and will remain in force for the remaining life of this Agreement.

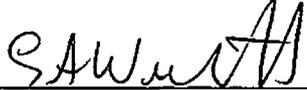

30. FUTURE NEGOTIATION TIMELINE

The Employer commits to communicating a proposed enterprise agreement negotiation timeline to general staff employees in February 2020 with negotiations to commence no later than May 2020.
