Fair Work Act 2009
s.185—Enterprise agreement

Albury Wodonga Community College Limited
(AG2021/7969)

ALBURY WODONGA COMMUNITY COLLEGE ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2022 – 2025

Educational services

COMMISSIONER MATHESON

SYDNEY, 11 NOVEMBER 2021

Application for approval of the Albury Wodonga Community College Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025.

[1] An application has been made for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the Albury Wodonga Community College Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025 (Agreement). The application was made by Albury Wodonga Community College Limited (Applicant) pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (Act). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] I observe that certain provisions of the Agreement may be inconsistent with the National Employment Standards (NES). However, noting clauses 45.1 and 7.1 of the Agreement, I am satisfied that the NES apply as a minimum standard to the Agreement.

[3] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached at Annexure A of this decision (Undertakings). The views of each person I know is a bargaining representative for the Agreement have been sought. I am satisfied that the effect of accepting the Undertakings is not likely to:

- (a) cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement; or
- (b) result in substantial changes to the Agreement.

[4] Pursuant to s.190(3) of the Act, I accept the Undertakings.

[5] Subject to the Undertakings, and on the basis of the materials before the Commission, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of ss.186, 187, 188 and 190 of the Act as are relevant to the application for approval of the Agreement have been met.

[6] The Independent Education Union of Australia, being a bargaining representative for the Agreement, has given notice under s.183 of the Act that it wants the Agreement to cover it. In accordance with s.201(2) of the Act, I note that the Agreement covers the organisation.

[7] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54(b) of the Act and clause 2.1 of the Agreement, will operate from 1 January 2022. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is four years from the date of approval.

FWC Matter No.:

AG2021/7969 - Application by Albury Wodonga Community College Limited

Applicant: Albury Wodonga Community College Limited (ABN 28 368 867 854) on behalf of the Employer (Company) as listed in Clause 3 of the Agreement.

Section 185 – Application for approval of a single enterprise agreement

Undertaking – Section 190

I, Rodney Steven Wangman, Chief Executive Officer/Company Secretary have the authority given to me by Albury Wodonga Community College Limited to give the following undertakings with respect to the Albury Wodonga Community College Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025 ("the Agreement"):

The Albury Wodonga Community College undertakes to:

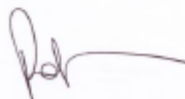

1. Increase all proposed Enterprise Agreement rates (Levels 1 – 18) by $0.30/hour (in Year 2022) as referenced in Schedule B.6 Salary table.
2. Insert a sentence to increase the minimum engagement for a casual General Employee to 3 hours in Clause 21.5(a)(i);
3. To amend the first and second row in the table at clause 27.2(a) to read as follows:

Monday to Saturday* - first 2 hours
Monday to Saturday* - after 2 hours
4. To amend clause 31.5 to read as follows:

(a) afternoon shift means any shift finishing after 6pm and at or before midnight;
5. To add the following clause entitlement into the Enterprise Agreement

"We will provide for a paid meal break for shiftworkers (being employees who work a shift that attracts the penalty rates in Clause 26.2) of at least 20 minutes no later than 5 hours after the starting time of each shift."
6. To continue all current employee salaries as now applies from Agreement approval until implementation of salary commencement as in Agreement Clause 23.2
7. To abide by any Award salary indexation decisions that occur between Agreement approval, and salary commencement as in Clause 23.2.

These undertakings are provided on the basis of issues raised by the Fair Work Commission in the application before the Fair Work Commission.

Signature – Rodney Wangman CEO/Company Secretary
Date 10th November 2021

Note - this agreement is to be read together with an undertaking given by the employer. The undertaking is taken to be a term of the agreement. A copy of it can be found at the end of this agreement.

4. Coverage

4.1 This Agreement covers:

- (a) the Company;
- (b) Teachers; and
- (c) General Employees, as defined in cl.3 (Definitions).

4.2 This Agreement does not cover:

- (a) Executive Managers appointed at Level 19 and above (Classifications); and
- (b) Supported Employees (adults with a disability) as part of the NDIS funded Business Services of the Aware support programs.

5. Relationship to Awards

This Agreement operates to the complete exclusion of all Awards which would otherwise apply to Employees covered by this Agreement including but not limited to the Educational Services (Schools) General Staff Award 2020, Educational Services (Post-Secondary Education) Award 2020 and the Educational Services (Teachers) Award 2020, including successor Awards.

6. No extra claims

The Company and Employees agree that the salary increases and other improvements in conditions of employment provided for by this Agreement are in settlement of all existing claims made by the Company and the Employees, and that no further claims will be made prior to the nominal expiry date as set out in cl.2.2.

7. The National Employment Standards

7.1 The National Employment Standards (NES) as contained in Part 2-2 of the Act are the minimum entitlements to which an Employee covered by this Agreement is entitled. This Agreement may provide ancillary or supplementary terms in respect of the NES.

7.2 This Agreement provides enterprise specific detail where it deals with a matter provided for in the NES.

8. Individual flexibility arrangements

8.1 The Company and an Employee(s) covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the Agreement if:

- (a) the Agreement deals with one or more of the following matters:
 - (i) arrangements about when work is performed; and
 - (ii) allowances;
- (b) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Company and Employee in relation to one or more of the matters mentioned in paragraph 8.1(a);
- (c) the employer and the employee must genuinely agree, without duress or coercion to any variation of an award provided for by an agreement.
- (d) an agreement under this clause can only be entered into after the individual Employee has commenced employment with the Company.

- 8.2 The Company must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:
- (a) are about permitted matters under s.172 of the Act; and
 - (b) are not unlawful terms under s.194 of the Act; and
 - (c) result in the Employee being Better Off Overall Test at the time the agreement is made than the Employee would be if no arrangement was made.
- 8.3 The Company must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:
- (a) is in writing; and
 - (b) includes the name of the Company and Employee; and
 - (c) is signed by the Company and Employee and if the Employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the Employee; and
 - (d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of the Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
 - (iii) how the Employee will be Better Off Overall Test in relation to the terms and conditions of their employment as a result of the arrangement; and
 - (iv) states the day on which the arrangement commences.
- 8.4 The Company must keep the agreement as a time and wages record and give a copy to the employee within 14 days after it is agreed.
- 8.5 The Company or Employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
- (a) by giving 28 days' written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
 - (b) if the Company and Employee agree in writing – at any time.

Note: If any of the requirements of s.144(4), which are reflected in the requirements of this clause are not met, then the agreement may be terminated by either the Company or the Employee, giving written notice of not more than 18 days (see s.145 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth)).

9. Requests for flexible working arrangements

Requests for flexible working arrangements is provided for in the NES.

Part 2 – Consultation and Dispute Resolution

10. Consultation about major workplace change

- 10.1 If the Company makes a definite decision to make major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have significant effects on Employees, the Company must:
- (a) give notice of the changes to all Employees who may be affected by them and their representatives (if any); and
 - (b) discuss with affected Employees and their representatives (if any):
 - (i) the introduction of the changes; and
 - (ii) their likely effect on Employees; and
 - (iii) measures to avoid or reduce the adverse effects of the changes on Employees; and
 - (c) commence discussions as soon as practicable after a definite decision has been made.
- 10.2 For the purposes of the discussion under cl.10.1(b), the Company must give in writing to the affected Employees and their representatives (if any) all relevant information about the changes including:
- (a) their nature; and
 - (b) their expected affect on Employees; and
 - (c) any other matters likely to affect Employees.
- 10.3 Clause 10.2 does not require the Company to disclose any confidential information if its disclosure would be contrary to the Company's interests.
- 10.4 If:
- (a) an affected Employee appoints, or affected Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation, and
 - (b) the Employee or Employees advise the Company of the identity of the representative,
- the Company must recognise the representative.
- 10.5 The Company must promptly consider any matters raised by the Employees or their representatives about the changes in the course of the discussion under cl.10.1(b).
- 10.6 In this clause, significant effects, on Employees, includes any of the following:
- (a) termination of the employment; or
 - (b) major changes in the composition, operation or size of the Company's workforce or to the skills required; or
 - (c) the loss of, or reduction in, job or promotion opportunities; or
 - (d) loss of, or reduction in, job tenure; or
 - (e) alteration of hours of work; or
 - (f) the need for Employees to be retrained or transferred to other work or locations; or
 - (g) job restructuring.
- 10.7 If a clause in this Agreement makes provision for alteration of any of the matters defined at cl.10.6, such alteration is taken not to have significant effect.

11. Consultation about changes to rosters or ordinary hours of work

- 11.1 This clause applies if the Company proposes to change the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of an Employee, other than an Employee whose working hours are irregular, sporadic or unpredictable.
- 11.2 The Company must consult with any Employees affected by the proposed change and their representatives (if any).
- 11.3 For the purpose of the consultation, the Company must:
- (a) provide to the Employees and representatives mentioned in cl.11.2 information about the proposed changes (for example, information about the nature of the change and when it is to begin); and
 - (b) invite the Employees to give their views about the impact of the proposed change on them (including any impact on their family or caring responsibilities) and also invite their representative (if any) to give their views about that impact.
- 11.4 If:
- (a) an affected Employee appoints, or affected Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation; and
 - (b) the Employee or Employees advise the Company of the identity of the representative;
- the Company must recognise the representative.
- 11.5 The Company must consider any views given under cl.11.3(b).
- 11.6 For the purposes of this clause, the Company's educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:
- (a) may operate on a term, semester or a school year basis, and
 - (b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and
 - (c) may change during the period of operation,
- is not a regular roster.
- 11.7 However, where a change to the Company's educational timetable directly results in a change:
- (a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of an Employee, or
 - (b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee's ordinary hours are required to be worked, or
 - (c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, cl.11.2 to 11.5 will apply.

12. Dispute resolution

- 12.1 All grievances, claims or disputes in relation to matters arising under this Agreement or the NES shall be dealt within the following manner. An Employee who is a party to a dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures of this clause.
- (a) Any grievance or dispute which arises shall, where possible, be settled by discussion between the Employee and the Employee’s representative, and Executive Management or Executive Management’s nominee.
 - (b) Should the matter not be resolved, it may be referred by either party to the FWC, or any person agreed between the parties, for conciliation.
 - (c) During the conciliation the FWC may:
 - (i) arrange conferences of the parties or their representatives at which the Commissioner is present;
 - (ii) require the attendance of the parties or their representatives;
 - (iii) arrange for the parties or their representatives to confer among themselves at conferences at which the Commission Member is not present; and
 - (iv) if requested by a party, make non-binding recommendations to settle the dispute. Such recommendation shall not be binding on the parties to the dispute and shall not affect any other remedies the party may have in relation to the dispute.
 - (d) In the event that the process outlined in cl.12.1(c) does not resolve the dispute, either party may ask the FWC to arbitrate the dispute and make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If the FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that the FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Div 3 of Part 5 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

- (e) An Employee who is a party to a dispute must, while the dispute is being resolved:
 - (i) continue to work in accordance with their contract of employment, unless the Employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to their health or safety; and
 - (ii) comply with any reasonable direction given by the Company to perform other available work, either at the same workplace or at another workplace.
- (f) In directing an Employee to perform other available work, the Company must have regard to:
 - (i) the provisions (if any) of the law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory dealing with occupational health and safety that apply to that Employee or that other work; and
 - (ii) whether that work is appropriate for the Employee to perform.

13. Public holidays

13.1 NES

Public holidays are as provided in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

An Employee is entitled to their respective State's public holidays for the State within which they work (refer Schedule D).

Payment for work on a public holiday

An Employee required to work on a public holiday will be paid at the rate of 250% for ordinary hours performed, unless the Company and the Employee have agreed to the Employee taking a day off instead of payment in which case the Employee will be paid at the ordinary time rate for work on the public holiday.

13.2 Substitution of public holidays

- (a) By agreement between the Company and an individual Employee, an alternate day may be taken as a public holiday in lieu of any of the days specified by the NES.
- (b) By agreement between the Company and An individual Employee, an alternate day may be taken as a public holiday in the workplace in lieu of any of the days specified by the NES or respective State Governments.
- (c) The agreement made pursuant to cl.13.2(a) or (b) will be recorded in writing and made available to the affected Employee/s.
- (d) Where substitution is agreed, the substituted day will be the public holiday for all purposes of this Agreement.

14. Payment of salary

Salary will be paid by credit transfer to the Employee's nominated financial institution account on a fortnightly basis.

15. Remuneration packaging

15.1 Upon receiving a written election for a remuneration packaging arrangement from the Employee and provided there is no additional cost to the Company, the Company is prepared to offer the Employee the opportunity to receive part of the Employee's remuneration in the form of non-cash benefits in line with legislation and Australian Taxation Office rulings until otherwise advised.

15.2 Any arrangement between the Company and the Employee in relation to remuneration packaging will be entered into by way of a subsidiary written agreement varying the Employee's conditions of employment.

16. Superannuation

16.1 Superannuation legislation

Anything within Superannuation legislation, including the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 (Cth), the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth) and the Superannuation (Resolution of Complaints) Act 1993 (Cth), that deals with the superannuation rights and obligations of Employers and Employees, will apply.

Under superannuation legislation, individual Employees have the opportunity to choose their own superannuation fund. The default fund is NGS Super.

16.2 Voluntary employee contributions

(a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an employee may, in writing, authorise the Company to pay on behalf of the employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the employee into the same superannuation fund as the Company makes the superannuation contributions provided for.

(b) An employee may adjust the amount the Company has authorised to pay from the wages of the employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice.

(c) The employer must pay the amount authorised no later than 28 days after the end of the month in which the deduction was authorised.

17. Accident pay

17.1 Entitlement

Where an Employee has an accepted claim and becomes entitled to compensation payments under the WIRC Act, the Company will pay the Employee accident make-up pay being an amount equivalent to the difference between:

- (a) The workers compensation payment paid by the employers' workers compensation insurer, and the employee's 'pre-injury average weekly earnings'.
- (b) Subject to this clause, accident make-up pay will only be paid for a maximum of 26 weeks, inclusive of school holidays, in respect of the same injury.

17.2 Accident make-up pay not payable

Accident make-up pay will not be payable:

- (a) if the Employee is on any form of paid leave; or
- (b) where the incapacity arises from an industrial disease contracted by a gradual process and, at the time of the incapacity, the Employee had been employed for less than four weeks.

17.3 Eligibility for accident make-up pay

In order for an Employee to be eligible for accident make-up pay in accordance with clause 17:

- (a) the Employee must have an accepted claim as advised to the Employer by the insurer,
- (b) the Employee must attend medical examinations by a registered health practitioner, as required by the Insurer in accordance with the relevant Act; and

- (c) the Employee must authorise the Employer to obtain any information concerning the injury or compensation payable with respect to the injury from the insurance company that is liable to pay such compensation.

17.4 Accident make-up pay ceases

An Employee will cease to be entitled to accident make-up pay if any of the following occur:

- (a) The employee stops receiving compensation payments under the WIRC Act;
- (b) there is a redemption by the Employee of weekly compensation payments by the payment of a lump sum benefit under the WIRC Act;
- (c) the Employee's employment with the Employer is terminated due to serious misconduct by the Employee;
- (d) the Employee resigns; or
- (e) the Employee dies.

18. Vehicle allowance

18.1 An Employee required by the Company to use the Employee's motor vehicle in the performance of duties must be paid the following allowances:

- (a) Motor car - $0.80 per kilometre with a maximum payment up to 400 kilometres per week.
- (b) Motorcycle - $0.27 per kilometre with a maximum payment up to 400 kilometres per week.

18.2 Travelling and other out of pocket expenses reasonably incurred by an Employee in the course of their duties and authorised in advance, shall be reimbursed by the Company.

18.3 Where the Company provides a motor vehicle as a discretionary benefit, the Company will pay all expenses for that vehicle including registration, leasing, insurances, running and maintenance costs.

18.4 The vehicle allowance (cl. 18.1) does not apply to positions with employment agreements providing an 'annualised vehicle allowance amount' paid fortnightly as part of the Employees remuneration.

19. Camp allowance

An Employee required to attend an overnight Company camp or excursion will be paid an allowance of $120 per night. Whilst hours an Employee may spend at camp form part of the ordinary hours of work of an Employee averaged over a 12 month period, the camp allowance acknowledges the inconvenience that attending a camp may cause.

Part 3 – Employment conditions

20. Minimum employment period

- 20.1 An Employee’s employment is contingent upon the satisfactory completion of a minimum employment period of six months, as defined by the Act.
- 20.2 If the Company is to terminate the employment of an Employee during the minimum employment period, then the Company does not need to comply with any performance or conduct management policies or procedures in place.

21. Types of employment

21.1 Employment Categories

An Employee will be employed in one of the following categories:

- (a) full-time employment;
- (b) part-time employment;
- (c) casual employment; or
- (d) fixed-term employment.

21.2 Terms of engagement

- (a) On appointment, the Company will provide the Employee (other than a casual Employee) with a letter of engagement stating:
 - (i) the classification and rate of salary applicable on commencement; and
 - (ii) the Employee’s face-to-face teaching load (as applicable for teaching staff); and
 - (iii) details of any Employee’s extra-curricular commitment; and
 - (iv) an outline of superannuation benefits available to the Employee.
- (b) For a part-time Employee, the letter of engagement will include the Employee’s teaching load (if applicable for teaching staff) expressed as a percentage of a full-time load in the Company and that the Employee’s extracurricular commitment will generally be, on balance, in the same proportion to their teaching load as that of a full-time Employee.
- (c) Where the Company engages the Employee on a fixed-term basis, the letter of engagement will state the reason the employment is fixed-term, the date of commencement and the period of the employment.

21.3 Full-time employment

A full-time Teacher is engaged to work an average of 38 ordinary hours per week, with the hours of work averaged over 12 months.

A full-time General Employee is engaged to work 38 hours per week or an average of 38 hours per week as per cl. 31 (ordinary Hours of Work).

21.4 Part-time employment

- (a) A part-time Employee is engaged to work on a regular basis for not more than 90% of the hours of a full-time Employee in the Company.
- (b) Where the Company requires a part-time Employee to work more than 90% of the hours of a full-time Employee, the Employee will be considered full-time and remunerated accordingly.
- (c) Where the Employee requests to work more than 90% of the hours of a full-time Employee, the Employee will be considered part-time and paid for the actual hours worked.
- (d) A part-time Employee will be paid pro rata of the rate that the Employee would be entitled to receive as a full-time Employee and is entitled to all entitlements on a pro rata basis as specified in cl.21.3.
- (e) The pro rata annual Teacher salary is calculated using the following formula. For the purpose of this formula, a full-time Teacher's face-to-face teaching hours are deemed to be (25) hours secondary (typically 5 hours per day by 5 days per week):
$$\frac{\text{Hours of face-to-face teaching} \times \text{Annual Salary}}{\text{Hours of full-time teacher's face-to-face teaching}}$$
- (f) A part-time Teacher will undertake a proportionate number of other duties normally expected of a full-time Teacher.
- (g) Teaching load and days of attendance may be varied by mutual consent between the Company and the Teacher at any time.
- (h) The Company may vary the teaching load or days of attendance, where such a variation is required as a result of a change in funding, enrolment or curriculum, by providing seven term weeks' notice in writing, or where the change would result in a reduction in salary, the salary is maintained for a period of seven term weeks.

21.5 Casual employment

- (a) Casual employment means employment on a day-to-day basis:
 - (i) for a period of not less than two hours for each engagement and not more than four consecutive weeks, or
 - (ii) for up to one full Company school term, by agreement between the Company and the Employee.
- (b) The rates of pay for a casual Employee are contained in Schedule B (Employee Salaries) plus 25%.
- (c) A casual Employee is not entitled to any of the following benefits under this Agreement:
 - (i) notice of termination of employment;
 - (ii) redundancy;
 - (iii) remuneration packaging;
 - (iv) annual leave;
 - (v) annual leave loading;
 - (vi) paid public holidays;
 - (vii) paid personal/carer's leave;
 - (viii) paid compassionate leave;
 - (ix) paid family and domestic violence leave;
 - (x) paid parental leave;
 - (xi) pro rata payment of salary inclusive of annual leave;
 - (xii) infectious diseases leave;
 - (xiii) examination leave and study assistance;
 - (xiv) military reserve leave; and
 - (xv) qualification conferral leave.
- (d) Casual conversion – The right for casual employees to become permanent employees is provided for in the NES.

21.6 Fixed-term employment

- (a) An Employee may be employed for a fixed period of time of up to 12 months to:
 - (i) undertake a specified project for which funding has been made available;
 - (ii) undertake a specified task which has a limited period of operation; or
 - (iii) replace an Employee who is on leave, performing other duties temporarily or whose employment has terminated. Provided that where the replacement arrangement extends beyond 12 months, the fixed term employment may be extended by a further period to cover the absence.
- (b) A fixed-term Employee is not entitled to any of the following benefits under this Agreement:
 - (i) redundancy, unless the contract of employment is terminated for the reason for redundancy after the Employee has provided continuous service for not less than 12 months;
 - (ii) examination leave and study assistance;
 - (iii) qualification conferral leave; and
 - (iv) military service leave.

22. Classifications

The Company will classify an Employee in accordance with Schedule A (Classifications).

22.1 Teacher recognition of previous service

- (a) On appointment, a Teacher will be classified and placed on the appropriate level (level 10-18) on the salary scale in Schedule B (Salaries), according to qualifications and teaching experience. Teaching experience does not include employment as a teacher in a TAFE program (unless the Teacher is employed to teach a Vocational and Educational Training (VET) program) or as a teacher in an English Language School.
- (b) In the case of a casual Teacher, the equivalent of a full-time year of teaching service is 200 full casual days in Australian schools.

22.2 Teacher progression

- (a) A Teacher who is two year trained will commence on Level 10 of the salary scale in Schedule B (Salaries) and progress according to normal years of service to Level 18 of the scale.
- (b) A Teacher who is three year trained will commence on Level 11 of the salary scale in Schedule B (Salaries) and progress according to normal years of service to Level 18 of the scale.
- (c) A Teacher who is four year trained will commence on Level 12 of the salary scale in Schedule B (Salaries) and progress according to normal years of service to Level 18 of the scale.
- (d) A Teacher who is five year trained will commence on Level 13 of the salary scale in Schedule B (Salaries) and progress according to normal years of service to Level 18 of the scale.
- (e) A part-time Teacher employed at more than 50% of a full-time teaching load will progress to the next level 10-18 on the salary scale. A part-time Teacher employed at 50% or less of a full-time teaching load will remain at the level on the salary scale for 24 months before progressing to the next level 10-18 on the salary scale.

22.3 Teachers and General Employees - Evidence of qualifications

- (a) The Company may require an Employee to provide documentary evidence of qualifications and teaching experience. If the Company considers that the Employee has not provided satisfactory evidence, and advises the Employee in writing to this effect, then the Company may decline to recognise the relevant qualification or experience until such evidence is provided. Provided that the Company will not unreasonably refuse to recognise the qualifications or teaching experience of an Employee.
- (b) An Employee will be classified and paid from the date satisfactory evidence is provided unless where a Teacher has completed further teaching experience with another Company (for example during unpaid leave) or additional qualifications after commencement of employment they will be entitled to be classified accordingly and back paid from the date of completion of the experience or qualification, provided the Employee provided satisfactory evidence to the Company within three months of completion.

23. Salary

- 23.1 The minimum rate of pay for a full-time Employee is provided by Schedule B (Salaries).
- 23.2 Salaries in Schedule B, are applied and commence from the first full pay period on or after 1 February of each year.
- 23.3 General Employee positions subject to ‘years of service’. Progression will occur within the month of original appointment for the occupational equivalent as listed in this agreement.

24. Allowances

Schedule C (Allowances) specifies the allowances available under this Agreement.

25. Higher duties – General Employees

25.1 Company direction

The Company may direct and approve a General Employee to temporarily perform duties applicable to a classification higher than their current classification.

25.2 Entitlement – More than five days

Where the General Employee is approved to perform such duties for more than five (5) days that constitute the whole or substantially the whole type of duties which would attract the higher classification, the General Employee will be paid the rate of pay applicable to the higher classification for the whole pay period during which the duties are performed.

25.3 Base rate of pay

For the purposes of the NES, the base rate of pay of a General Employee receiving an annual salary under this clause comprises the portion of the annual salary equivalent to the relevant rate of pay in Schedule B and excludes any incentive-based payments, bonuses, loadings, monetary allowances, overtime and penalties.

26. Penalty rates – General Employees

26.1 Definitions

The following shift definitions apply:

- (a) day shift is a shift which starts and finishes wholly within the spread of ordinary hours identified in cl.31.4;
- (b) afternoon shift is a shift which is not a day shift and which finishes after the ordinary hours identified in cl.31.5, and at or before midnight.

26.2 Payment for shift work

- (a) A General Employee working an afternoon shift will be paid 115% of the minimum hourly rate.

26.3 Saturday and Sunday work

- (a) A General Employee required to work ordinary hours 7am – 6pm on a Saturday or Sunday will be paid the following:
 - (i) 150% of the minimum hourly rate for ordinary hours worked on a Saturday; and
 - (ii) 200% of the minimum hourly rate for ordinary hours worked on a Sunday.

26.4 Application of highest single penalty or overtime rate

The penalty rates within cl.26.2 (Payment for shift work) relating to afternoon shifts, and cl.26.3 (Saturday and Sunday work) and in cl.27 (Overtime) are not cumulative. Where a General Employee is entitled to more than one penalty or overtime rate, the General Employee will be entitled to the highest single penalty rate.

27. Overtime – General Employees

27.1 Definition of overtime

Overtime is any authorised work performed outside of or in excess of the ordinary or rostered hours.

27.2 Overtime rates

- (a) Where a General Employee works overtime, the Company must pay the General Employee overtime rates as follows:

For overtime worked on	Overtime rate % of minimum hourly rate
Monday – Saturday * - first 3 hours	150
Monday to Saturday * - after 3 hours	200
Sunday *	200
Public holidays	250

* A nursing services General Employee rostered to work overtime on a Saturday or Sunday will be paid 150% of the minimum hourly rate for all time worked.

- (b) Overtime will be calculated daily.

27.3 Reasonable additional hours – part-time General Employees

- (a) The Company may require a part-time General Employee to work reasonable additional hours in accordance with this clause.
- (b) The General Employee will be paid for all additional hours at the applicable casual hourly rate of pay for all hours worked that:
 - (i) fall within the applicable daily spread of hours in cl.31.4;
 - (ii) do not result in the General Employee working more than eight hours on that day; and
 - (iii) do not result in the General Employee whose hours are averaged working more than the allowed maximum weekly ordinary hours during the averaging period.
- (c) The General Employee will be paid for all additional hours at the applicable overtime rate in cl.27.2 (Overtime rates) for all hours worked that:
 - (i) are outside the applicable daily spread of hours in cl.31.4; and
 - (ii) result in the General Employee working more than eight hours on that day; or
 - (iii) result in the General Employee whose hours are averaged, working more than the allowed maximum weekly ordinary hours during the averaging period.
- (d) Where additional hours are worked on a day the General Employee is already attending for work, the minimum casual engagement of two hours will not apply, unless the additional hours do not a but the rostered workday in which instance the minimum engagement of 2 hours shall apply.
- (e) Additional hours worked by a part-time General Employee in accordance with this clause do not accrue leave entitlements under this Agreement or the NES.

27.4 Time off instead of payment for overtime

- (a) A General Employee and the Company may agree in writing to the General Employee taking time off instead of being paid for a particular amount of overtime that has been worked by the General Employee.
- (b) Any amount of overtime that has been worked by a General Employee in a particular pay period and that is to be taken as time off instead of the General Employee being paid for it must be the subject of a separate agreement under cl.28.
- (c) An agreement must state each of the following:
 - (i) the number of overtime hours to which it applies and when those hours were worked;
 - (ii) that the Company and the General Employee agree that the General Employee may take time off instead of being paid for the overtime;
 - (iii) that, if the General Employee requests at any time, the Company must pay the General Employee for overtime covered by the agreement but not taken as time off, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked;
 - (iv) that any payment mentioned in cl.28 must be made in the next pay period following the request.
- (d) The period of time off that a General Employee is entitled to take is the same as the number of overtime hours worked.
- (e) Time off must be taken:
 - (i) within the period of six months after the overtime is worked; and
 - (ii) at a time or times within that period of six months agreed by the General Employee and the Company.

- (f) If the General Employee requests at any time, to be paid for overtime covered by an agreement under this clause but not taken as time off, the Company must pay the General Employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following the request, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- (g) If the time off for overtime that has been worked is not taken within the period of six months, the Company:
 - (i) must pay the General Employee for the overtime, in the next pay period following those six months, at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.
- (h) The Company must keep a copy of any agreement under cl.28 as an employee record.
- (i) The Company will not exert undue influence or undue pressure on a General Employee in relation to a decision by the General Employee to make, or not make, an agreement to take time off instead of payment for overtime.
- (j) A General Employee may, under s.65 of the Act, request to take time off, at a time or times, specified in the request or to be subsequently agreed by the Company and the General Employee, instead of being paid for overtime worked by the General Employee. If the Company agrees to the request a separate written agreement will be required for overtime that has been worked.

Note: If a General Employee makes a request under s.65 of the Act for a change in working arrangements, the Company may only refuse that request on reasonable business grounds (see s.65(5) of the Act).

- (k) If, on the termination of the General Employee’s employment, time off for overtime worked by the General Employee which cl.27.4 applies has not been taken, the Company must pay the General Employee for the overtime at the overtime rate applicable to the overtime when worked.

Note: Under s.345(1) of the Act, a person must not knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation about the workplace rights of another person.

27.5 Make-up time

A General Employee may elect, with the consent of the Company, to work make-up time under which the General Employee takes time off during ordinary hours, and works those hours at a later time, during the spread of ordinary hours provided in this Agreement.

28. Annualised salaries – General Employees

28.1 Applying an annual salary

The Company may pay a General Employee an annual salary in satisfaction of any or all of the following provisions of the Agreement:

- (a) cl.23 (Salary) and Schedule B;
- (b) cl.24 (Allowances) and Schedule C;
- (c) cl.26 (Penalty rates) and cl.27 (Overtime); and
- (d) cl.35.2 (Payment for annual leave loading).

28.2 Advice of annualised salary

Where an annualised salary is paid, the company must advise the General Employee in writing of the annualised salary that is payable and which of the provisions of this Agreement will be satisfied by payment of the annualised salary.

28.3 Annualised salary not to disadvantage General Employees

- (a) The annual salary must be not less than the amount the General Employee would have received under Schedule B for the work performed over the year for which the salary is paid (or if the employment ceases earlier over such lesser period as has been worked).
- (b) The annualised salary of the General Employee must be reviewed by the Company at least every three months to ensure that the compensation is appropriate having regard to the Agreement provisions which are satisfied by the payment of the annualised salary. An underpayment of salary will be rectified in the next pay period.

29. Termination of employment

29.1 NES notice of termination by the Company of a General Employee or notice of termination by a General Employee to the Company

Notice of termination by either the Company or a General Employee is provided for in the NES.

29.2 Notice of termination by the Company – Teachers

The employment of a Teacher (other than a casual Teacher) will not be terminated without at least seven term weeks' notice. The payment of seven weeks' salary instead of notice or part notice and part payment instead of notice, provided that the total weeks' notice and weeks' payment instead, equals seven weeks.

29.3 Notice of termination by a Teacher

The notice of termination required to be given by a Teacher is the same as that required of the Company.

29.4 Job search entitlement

Where the Company has given notice of termination to an Employee, an Employee must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the Employee after consultation with the Company.

29.5 Statement of service

Upon the termination of employment of an Employee, the Company will provide upon the request of the Employee, a statement of service setting out:

- (a) the commencement and cessation dates of employment; and
- (b) for a casual Employee, the number of days of duty worked by the Employee during the period of engagement.

30. Redundancy – All Employees

30.1 Redundancy pay is provided for in the NES.

The following redundancy pay scale will apply instead of the provisions in the NES:

30.2 If the Employee is under 45 years of age when made redundant, redundancy pay will be in accordance with the following scale:

Period of Continuous Service	Redundancy Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	4 weeks
2 years and less than 3 years	7 weeks
3 years and less than 4 years	10 weeks
4 years and less than 5 years	12 weeks
5 years and less than 6 years	14 weeks
6 years and less than 8 years	18 weeks
8 years and more	20 weeks

30.3 If the Employee is 45 years of age or over when made redundant, redundancy pay will be in accordance with the following scale:

Period of Continuous Service	Redundancy Pay
Less than 1 year	Nil
1 year and less than 2 years	5 weeks
2 years and less than 3 years	8.75 weeks
3 years and less than 4 years	12.5 weeks
4 years and less than 5 years	15 weeks
5 years and less than 6 years	17.5 weeks
6 years and less than 8 years	22.5 weeks
8 years and more	25 weeks

30.4 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an Employee is transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the Employee would have been entitled to under the NES if the employment had been terminated and the Company may, at the Company's option, make payment instead of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

30.5 Employee leaving during notice period

An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the NES period of notice. The Employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

30.6 Job search entitlement

- (a) An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of NES notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) At the request of the Company, the Employee must produce proof of attendance at an interview.

30.7 Part-time Employees

If a part-time Employee's hours are reduced, without their consent, by more than 25%, then the Employee will be entitled to the provisions of this clause.

31. Ordinary hours of work

31.1 Application

This clause provides for enterprise specific detail and supplements the NES that deals with maximum weekly hours.

31.2 Averaging the hours of work

Notwithstanding the NES, and due to the operational requirements of the Company, the ordinary hours of a Teacher may be averaged over a 12-month period, which is usually the Company year.

31.3 Teacher arrangements for the ordinary hours of work

- (a) The ordinary hours of work for a Teacher during Teacher Term Weeks are variable. In return, a Teacher is not generally required to attend during periods when the students are not present, subject to the needs of the Company with regard to professional development, student-free days and other activities requiring the Teacher's attendance.
- (b) The maximum number of days that the Teacher will be required to attend during Term weeks and Non-term weeks will be 195 in each School year.
- (c) The following circumstances are not included when calculating the 195 attendance days in the ordinary hours of work for a Teacher:
 - (i) co-curricular activities that are conducted on a weekend;
 - (ii) school-related overseas and interstate trips, conferences and similar activities undertaken by mutual consent during Non-term weeks;
 - (iii) when the Teacher appointed to a leadership position is performing duties in Non-term weeks that are directly associated with the leadership position; and

- (iv) exceptional circumstances, such as the requirement to provide pastoral care to students in the event of a tragedy in the School community, in which a Teacher may be recalled to perform duties relating to their position.
- (d) Generally, the Company will provide written notice of the Teacher Term Weeks and days in Non-term weeks on which the Teachers are required to attend, six months in advance of the requirement to attend.

31.4 Arrangements for the ordinary hours of work - General Employees

The ordinary hours of work for General Employees will be worked on no more than five days in any seven days and may be worked on any day from Monday to Friday between 7.00am and 6.00pm. The NES provides the maximum weekly hours for an employee as 38 hours per week, plus reasonable additional hours.

31.5 Ordinary hours for shift work – General Employees

Shift workers - The following definitions will apply:

- (a) afternoon shift means any shift finishing after 7.00 pm and at or before midnight;
- (b) night shift means any shift finishing after midnight, and at or before 7.00 am; and
- (c) permanent night shift means a night shift which does not rotate with another shift or shifts or day work and which continues for a period of not less than 4 consecutive weeks.
- (d) The ordinary hours for shift work will:
 - (i) be worked continuously each shift (except for broken shifts and meal breaks);
 - (ii) not exceed 10 hours, inclusive of a meal break in any single shift; and
 - (iii) be rostered in accordance with cl.31.6.

A paid meal break for shift workers (being employees who work a shift approved and within the requirements of clause 31.5) of at least 20 minutes must be allowed no later than 5 hours after the starting time of each shift.

31.6 Rostering

- (a) For General Employees working to a roster, a roster showing normal starting and finishing times and the name of each General Employee will be prepared by the Company and will be displayed in a place conveniently accessible to the General Employees at least seven days before the commencement of the roster period.
- (b) A General Employee may be rostered to work on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday and will be paid the appropriate penalty rates (Schedule B).

31.7 Altering the roster

- (a) A roster may be altered by mutual consent at any time or by amendment of the roster by the Company on seven days' notice.
- (b) Despite cl.31.6, a roster may be altered at any time to enable the functions of the Company to be carried out where another General Employee is absent from work due to illness or in an emergency. In such circumstances, unless agreed between the Company and the General Employee, a General Employee must be given 48 hours' notice of a change to a rostered shift. If 48 hours' notice is not provided, the General Employee will be entitled to be paid 150% of the minimum hourly rate instead of any other penalty that may apply.
- (c) Where the alteration requires a General Employee to work on a day which would otherwise have been the General Employee's day off, the day off instead will be arranged by mutual consent.

31.8 Teacher Annual and Non-term weeks

The annual salary and any applicable allowances payable are paid in full satisfaction of a Teacher's entitlements for the Teacher School Year or a proportion of the Teacher School Year. The Teacher's absence from School during Non-term weeks is deemed to include their entitlement to annual leave.

31.9 Graduates and mentors

- (a) The full-time graduate Teacher will be released from duty six (6) days per annum in their first year of teaching. A part-time Teacher will be released on a proportionate basis. The timing of such release will be agreed between the Company and the graduate.
- (b) A Company-appointed mentor will be entitled to be released from duty for five (5) days per annum when they are assigned a full-time graduate. Where a mentor is appointed a part-time graduate, they will be released on a proportionate basis, based on the fraction of the graduate. The timing of such release will be agreed between the Company and the mentor.

32. Breaks

32.1 Entitlement

An Employee will be entitled to an unpaid meal break of not less than 30 consecutive minutes, which commences no later than five hours after the Employee commenced work on that day.

32.2 Rest break

- (a) An Employee is entitled to a rest break of 10 minutes for each period of 3 hours worked, with a maximum of 2 rest breaks per shift.
- (b) Where the Employee has an entitlement to 2 rest breaks, in place of the two 10 minute rest breaks:
 - (i) the Company and the Employee may agree to one rest break of 20 minutes; or
 - (ii) the Company may require one rest break of 20 minutes, where the Employee is engaged in classroom support services.
- (c) A rest break:
 - (i) will be counted as time worked;
 - (ii) will be taken at a time suitable to the Company; and
 - (iii) will not be taken adjacent to a meal break, unless the Employee and the Company agree.

Part 4 – Leave

33. Annual Leave

33.1 NES

Annual leave is as provided for by the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

33.2 General Employees designated Company shutdown

- (i) The Company has designated during the Christmas Non-term weeks a shutdown period in which the operations of the Company are closed or operate at minimum staffing levels. A General Employee is required to take two (2) weeks of their annual leave during shutdown periods observed by the Company with the dates advised to all General Employees at least six (6) months in advance. Refer Schedule D.
- (ii) The Company and a General Employee may agree in writing to the General Employee taking a period of paid annual leave before the General Employee has accrued an entitlement to leave.

33.3 Teacher timing of annual leave

A Teacher must take annual leave during Non-term weeks. Leave must generally be taken, in the case of a Teacher whose employment with the Company is continuing into the next school year in the four-week period immediately following the final Teacher Term Week of the current Teacher School Year, unless otherwise agreed with the Company.

33.4 Teacher re-crediting of annual leave

A Teacher may only take annual leave re-credited in accordance with the NES during Non-term weeks.

34. Teacher pro rata payment of salary (inclusive of annual leave and leave loading)

34.1 Entitlement

This clause provides enterprise specific detail (and incorporates the NES entitlement with respect to annual leave). A Teacher will be entitled on termination of employment to a payment calculated in accordance with this clause.

34.2 Application

The provisions of this clause will apply:

- (a) in the calculation of payment in regard to pro rata salary where a Teacher's employment ceases; or
- (b) in the calculation of payment in regard to pro rata salary if:
 - (i) a Teacher commenced employment after the School Service Date;
 - (ii) a Teacher has taken leave without pay of more than two Teacher Term Weeks since the School Service Date; or
 - (iii) the hours which a Teacher has worked at the School have varied since the School Service Date.

34.3 Teachers who commence employment after the commencement of the Teacher School Year

A Teacher who commences employment after the usual date of commencement at the beginning of any Teacher School Year, will be paid from the date the Teacher commences, provided the Teacher must be paid an amount calculated pursuant to this clause at the end of the Teacher School Year and will not receive any salary or other payment until the commencement of the next Teacher School Year.

34.4 Teachers who take approved leave without pay

Where a Teacher takes approved leave without pay for a period which (in total) exceeds more than two Teacher Term Weeks in any year, the Teacher will be paid an amount calculated in accordance with this clause as follows:

- (a) if the leave without pay commences and concludes in the same Teacher School Year, the payment will be calculated and made at the conclusion of the last school term or final semester in that year; and
- (b) if the leave without pay is to conclude in a Teacher School Year following the Teacher School Year in which the leave commenced:
 - (i) at the commencement of the leave, a payment will be calculated and made in respect of the Teacher School Year in which the leave commences; or
 - (ii) at the end of the last school term or final semester in that year in which the leave concludes, a payment will be calculated and made in respect of that Teacher School Year.

If the Teacher returns early from leave any payment under this clause will be taken into account in calculating the amount owed to the Teacher at the end of the Teacher School Year.

34.5 Calculation of payments

For the purpose of this clause:

- (a) any period of paid birth-related or adoption-related leave is not included in the calculation of 's' or 'd' in this formula below.

$$P = \frac{s \times c}{b} - d$$

where

- P is the payment due
- s is the total salary paid in respect of Teacher Term Weeks worked, or part thereof, since the School Service Date or the date of employment in circumstances where the Teacher has been employed by the Company since the School Service Date
- b is the number of Teacher Term Weeks, or part thereof in the Teacher School Year
- c is the number of Non-term weeks, or part thereof, in the Teacher School Year
- d is the salary paid in respect of Non-term weeks (or part thereof) in the Teacher School Year that have occurred since the School Service Date or date of employment in circumstances where the Teacher commenced employment after the School Service Date

34.6 Purpose of formula

The formula in cl.34.5 is intended to be used to calculate the pro rata salary inclusive of annual leave owing to a Teacher in respect of the Teacher School Year, in which the formula is applied.

35. Annual leave loading

35.1 NES

This clause provides for enterprise specific detail and supplements the NES that deals with annual leave.

35.2 Entitlement

- (i) All Employees (other than Casuals) of the Company are entitled to annual leave loading of 17.5% on four weeks' annual leave. The loading will normally be paid in each salary payment throughout the year by increasing the annual rate of pay by 1.4%. Schedule B as shown, salaries have 1.4% included.

36. Community service leave

36.1 NES

Community service leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

36.2 Jury service leave

- (a) An Employee who is required to appear and/or serve as a juror will be entitled to be granted leave for the period during which attendance at court is required.
- (b) An Employee must notify the Company as soon as possible of the date upon which the Employee is required to attend for jury service.
- (c) An Employee must provide the Company with written proof of the requirement to attend for jury service and an estimate of the duration of the absence from duty.
- (d) The Employee must inform the Company immediately of any change to the known period of absence and provide the Company with written proof of the payments made by the Court Authorities with respect to jury service.
- (e) Subject to cl.36.2(b), (c) and (d), the Company will reimburse an Employee granted leave pursuant to cl.36.2(a) an amount equal to the difference between the amount paid in respect of the Employee's attendance for such jury service and the amount of salary the Employee would have received had the Employee not been on jury service.

37. Compassionate leave

37.1 Entitlement

Compassionate leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

37.2 Accessing leave

An Employee may take:

- (a) up to three (3) days' paid leave per occasion when a member of the Employee's immediate family or household dies; or
- (b) up to two (2) day's paid leave per occasion when a member of the Employee's immediate family or household contracts or develops a personal injury or illness that poses a serious threat to life.

37.3 Taking leave

Compassionate leave may be taken in a single unbroken period or in separate periods of one day each or as agreed by the Company and the Employee.

37.4 Evidence

The Employee is entitled to compassionate leave only if the Employee gives the Company any evidence that the Company reasonably requires of the illness, injury or death.

38. Examination leave and study assistance

An Employee will be granted leave with pay to attend compulsory examinations in an approved relevant course of study. The Company may provide study assistance to an Employee undertaking an Executive Manager approved course of study. An Employee will be granted leave without pay for the purpose of attending any compulsory residential school which is part of an approved relevant course of study.

39. Family and domestic violence leave

39.1 NES

Unpaid family and domestic violence leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

39.2 Definitions

- (a) In this clause:

family and domestic violence means violent, threatening or other abusive behaviour by a family member of an Employee that seeks to coerce or control the Employee and that causes them harm or to be fearful.

family member means:

- (i) a spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the Employee; or
 - (ii) a child, parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of a spouse or de facto partner of the Employee; or
 - (iii) a person related to the Employee according to Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander kinship rules.
- (b) A reference to a spouse or de facto partner in the definition of family member in clause 39.2(a) includes a former spouse or de facto partner.

39.3 Entitlement to paid and unpaid leave

- (a) Each year, for the purpose of dealing with family and domestic violence, as follows:
 - (i) a full-time Employee is entitled to twenty (20) days of paid leave,
 - (ii) a part-time Employee is entitled to a total of twenty (20) days of leave comprising paid and unpaid leave. The paid leave entitlement is pro rata of twenty (20) days of paid leave based on the part-time Employee's ordinary hours of work,
 - (iii) a casual Employee is entitled to twenty (20) days of unpaid leave.
- (b) The entitlement in cl.39.3(a) to deal with family and domestic violence:
 - (i) is available in full at the start of each 12-month period of the Employee's employment; and
 - (ii) does not accumulate from year to year.

Note 1. A period of family and domestic violence leave may be less than a day by agreement between the Employee and the Company.

Note 2. The Company and the Employee may agree that the Employee may take more than twenty (20) days' family and domestic violence leave.

Note 3. If, during the period of operation of this Agreement, the NES is amended to provide paid and/or unpaid family and/or domestic violence leave, then the leave entitlement in cl.39.3(a) will be offset against the NES leave entitlement, should this not be prohibited by the NES.

39.4 Taking leave

An Employee may take leave under this clause to deal with family and domestic violence if the Employee:

- (a) is experiencing family and domestic violence; and
- (b) needs to do something to deal with the impact of the family and domestic violence and it is impractical for the Employee to do that thing outside their ordinary hours of work.

Note: The reasons for which an Employee may take leave include making arrangements for their safety or the safety of a family member (including relocation), attending court hearings, or accessing police services.

- (c) An Employee subjected to family violence is entitled to family violence leave for the purpose of:
 - (i) attending legal proceedings, counselling, appointments with a medical or legal practitioner;
 - (ii) relocation or making other safety arrangements; or
 - (iii) other activities reasonably associated with the experience of family violence.
- (d) Family violence leave may be taken as consecutive or single days, including half days.

39.5 Service and continuity

The time an Employee is on unpaid leave under this clause to deal with family and domestic violence does not count as service but does not break the Employee's continuity of service.

39.6 Notice and evidence requirements

(a) Notice

An Employee must give the Company notice of the taking of leave by the Employee under this clause. The notice:

- (i) must be given to the Company as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started); and
- (ii) must advise the Company of the period, or expected period, of the leave.

(b) Evidence

An Employee who has given the Company notice of the taking of leave under cl.39.4 (a)(b) must, if required by the Company, give the Company evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for the purpose specified in cl.39.4(c). Such evidence may include a document issued by the police service, a court, a doctor (including a medical certificate), district nurse, maternal and child health care nurse, a family violence support service or a lawyer, or the employee may provide a statutory declaration.

39.7 Confidentiality

- (a) The Company must take steps to ensure information concerning any notice an Employee has given, or evidence an Employee has provided under cl.39.6(b) is treated confidentially, as far as it is reasonably practicable to do so.
- (b) Nothing in cl.39.7(a) prevents the Company from disclosing information provided by an Employee if the disclosure is required by an Australian law or is necessary to protect the life, health or safety of the Employee or another person.

Note: Information concerning an Employee’s experience of family and domestic violence is sensitive and if mishandled can have adverse consequences for the Employee. The Company should consult with such Employees regarding the handling of this information.

39.8 Compliance

An Employee is not entitled to take leave under this clause unless the Employee complies with this clause.

40. Infectious diseases leave

Where an Employee contracts an infectious disease prescribed in cl.40 through contact in the workplace, they are entitled to paid leave, without such leave being deducted from their personal (sick) leave up to a maximum of 4 weeks.

In order to be eligible, an employee must provide to their employer a medical certificate which specifically names the disease and length of leave required. The employee shall request in writing that the leave not be debited against sick leave.

An employer will then need to be satisfied that the infectious disease was contracted through contact in the workplace e.g. if there has been an outbreak of chicken pox in the workplace.

|---------------------|--------------------|
| (a) German measles | (b) Chickenpox |
| (c) Measles | (d) Mumps |
| (e) Scarlet fever | (f) Whooping cough |
| (g) Rheumatic fever | (h) Hepatitis |
| (i) Glandular fever | |

41. Long service leave

Long service leave is as provided by the NES or the relevant State Long Service Leave Acts (or successor(s)) and is paid on the basis of where the employee is working.

42. Military Reserve leave

An Employee who is a member of the Australian Military Reserve or other Australian military forces shall be granted unpaid leave for the purposes of attending any compulsory camp or posting.

43. Parental leave

43.1 NES

Parental leave is as provided for by the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

43.2 Notice of termination to a replacement Employee

An Employee replacing an Employee granted parental leave will not be entitled to more than four weeks' notice of termination of employment. The notice of termination provisions will be specified in writing at the time the replacement Employee is employed.

43.3 Increase in entitlements

- (a) An Employee is entitled to up to 24 months unpaid parental leave, where the Employee has or will have responsibility for the care of a child. The 24 month period of leave is an automatic entitlement and to avoid any doubt, 24 months is the total amount of unpaid parental leave which can be taken.

43.4 Variation of period of parental leave

- (a) Subject to the relevant provisions of the NES, the period of parental leave may be shortened by written agreement between the Company and the Employee.
- (b) Subject to the relevant provisions of the NES, where an Employee has commenced a period of parental leave of up to 12 months, the Employee:
 - (i) may extend the period of parental leave once by giving the Company four weeks' written notice before the end of the period stating the period by which the leave is extended; and
 - (ii) may further extend the period of parental leave by agreement with the Company.

43.5 Where an Employee elects to take a period of parental leave greater than 12 months but less than 24 months and wishes to extend this period up to a maximum of 24 months the Company requires the Employee to notify of their intention to extend the period of parental leave at least four weeks prior to the expiration of the initial period of leave for consideration.

43.6 A period of unpaid parental leave does not break the Employee's continuity of employment.

43.7 Casual Employee

- (a) The Company must not fail to re-engage a regular casual Employee because:
 - (i) The Employee or the Employee’s spouse or de facto partner is pregnant; or
 - (ii) the Employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.
- The rights of the Company in relation to the engagement and re-engagement of a casual Employee are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

44. Paid parental leave

44.1 Application

- (a) This clause does not apply to a casual Employee.
- (b) This clause applies to an Employee who is entitled to, and takes, unpaid parental leave in accordance with the NES and cl.43 (Parental leave).
- (c) A fixed-term Employee who is entitled to unpaid parental leave in accordance with the NES and cl.43 will be entitled to paid parental leave as provided for in cl.44, but only for the period the fixed-term Employee is employed by the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, if a fixed term Employee’s contract comes to its cessation date during the period of paid parent leave, no amount of outstanding parental leave will be paid out.
- (d) The period of paid birth-related or paid adoption-related leave, including any period of concurrent leave, counts as a period of service under the Agreement.

44.2 Birth-related leave for the primary carer

- (a) An Employee, who gives birth and has completed at least 12 months’ continuous service with the Company as at the date or the expected date of birth of the Employee’s child, is entitled to 16 weeks of leave with pay to be responsible for the care of the child which must commence at or around the time of the birth of the child.
- (b) If the Employee takes less than 16 weeks of leave with pay, the Employee will be paid for the period of leave taken.
- (c) The period of leave with pay comprises paid birth-related leave and annual leave that accrues during the birth-related leave.
- (d) Employer superannuation contributions will be paid to accumulation superannuation funds during periods of paid and unpaid parental leave for periods of leave to a maximum of 52 weeks.
- (e) An Employee must have completed a minimum of 12 months’ continuous service, if returning from parental leave, before being eligible for a payment pursuant to this clause for the birth of a second or subsequent child.

44.3 Adoption-related leave

- (a) An Employee, who has completed at least 12 months’ continuous service with the Company as at the date of placement of the Employee’s child, is entitled to 16 weeks of leave with pay to be responsible for the care of the child which must commence at or around the time of placement.
- (b) If the Employee takes less than 16 weeks of leave with pay, the Employee will be paid for the period of leave taken.
- (c) The period of leave with pay comprises paid birth-related leave/adoption-related leave and annual leave that accrues during the birth-related leave/adoption-related leave.

- (d) Employer superannuation contributions will be paid to accumulation superannuation funds during periods of paid and unpaid parental leave for periods of leave to a maximum of 52 weeks.
- (e) An Employee must have completed a minimum of 12 months' continuous service, if returning from parental leave, before being eligible for a payment pursuant to this clause for the adoption of a second or subsequent child.

44.4 Partner leave

An Employee, spouse or de-facto partner who has given birth or has adopted a child and has completed at least 12 months continuous service with the Company as at the date of the birth or placement of the child, is entitled to be paid for 10 days of concurrent leave within the first 4 months of the child being born or placed, will be paid at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for those ten days.

44.5 Payment arrangements

- (a) The payments in cl.44.2 and 44.3:
 - (i) are not payable during a period of paid leave;
 - (ii) are paid at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay.
- (b) The payment in cl.44.2 may be paid during the period that the Employee is in receipt of payment under the Australian Government's Paid Parental Leave Scheme.
- (c) Where the Company employs both parents of a child, only one Employee will be entitled to paid leave pursuant to cl.44.2.
- (d) An Employee must have completed a minimum of 12 months' continuous service, if returning from parental leave, before being eligible for a payment pursuant to this clause for the birth or placement of a second or subsequent child.

45. Personal/carer's leave

45.1 Entitlement

Personal/carer's leave is as provided for in the NES except where this Agreement provides ancillary or supplementary terms.

45.2 Paid leave

- (a) An Employee other than a casual Employee is entitled to a paid personal/carer's leave entitlement, which includes both sick and carer's leave.
- (b) Paid personal leave is taken due to a personal illness or injury.
- (c) Paid carer's leave is taken to provide care or support to a member of the Employee's immediate family or a member of the Employee's household, who requires care or support because of a personal illness or injury or an unexpected emergency affecting the member.

45.3 Amount of paid leave

- (a) Except for a Teacher engaged on a fixed term basis, upon commencement of employment a new full-time Employee shall be credited with an accrued entitlement of 15 days personal/carer's leave, representing the accrual for the first year of continuous service.
- (b) A new part-time Employee not engaged on a fixed term basis shall be credited with a pro-rata equivalent entitlement of personal/carer's leave assessed on the basis of the Employee's part-time prescribed hours.
- (c) Upon the employee's anniversary date, 15 days will be credited annually.

45.4 Unpaid carer’s leave

Where the Employee has exhausted the paid personal/carer’s leave entitlement, the Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Company and the Employee.

45.6 Unpaid carer’s leave for casual Employees

A casual Employee may take up to two days’ unpaid carer’s leave per permissible occasion. Unpaid carer’s leave may be taken as a single, unbroken period of up to two days, or any separate period as agreed by the Company and the Employee.

45.7 Notice and evidentiary requirements

- (a) An Employee must notify the Company of the Employee’s absence as soon as reasonably practicable. The notice must be to the effect that the Employee requires the leave because of a personal illness or injury or to provide care or support to a member of the Employee’s Immediate Family or household as the member is suffering either a personal illness or injury or an unexpected emergency.
- (b) An Employee is entitled to personal/carer’s leave provided that:
 - (i) the Employee produces a medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Company for any absence of more than two consecutive days;
 - (ii) the Employee produces a medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration to the Company where the number of days of paid personal/carer’s leave already taken without the production of a medical certificate or a statutory declaration exceeds five days in one year.

46. Qualification and conferral leave

An Employee will be granted leave with pay for up to one day for the purpose of having a degree/diploma or other qualification conferred in an approved relevant course of study.

47. Leave without pay

An Employee may apply for leave without pay which may be granted at the discretion of the Executive Manager.

2025 1 st Year	$4760	$2380
2025 2 nd Year	$7110	$3550

- (b) The allowances provided for in C.1.5 will increase as per schedule from the first full pay period commencing on or after the new school year in 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025.
- (c) Where the position of leadership is shared, the payments may also be shared.
- (d) A Teacher may only hold one (1) responsibility allowance at a time.

C.1.6 Supervision of student teachers

Where a Teacher supervises a student teacher with the permission of the Executive Principal, the Teacher shall receive all payments made by the student teacher’s Training Institution for such supervision.

C.1.7 Assistant Heads of School

Eligibility

- (a) A responsibility allowance will be paid to a Teacher where the Company requires the appointment of an Assistant Head of School and corresponding leadership duties additional to those usually required of Teachers by the Company.
- (b) An allowance is linked to an individual Teacher and paid in addition to the Classification Level (as determined by qualifications).
- (c) The Executive Principal of Indie Schools approves annually, positions of Assistant Heads of School. Heads of Schools make recommendations to the Executive Principal.

C.1.8 Notification

- (a) The Executive Principal will provide written advice to a Teacher in receipt of an allowance of the position Level, its tenure, the duties required and the allowance to be paid.

C.1.9 Amount

- (a) The following allowances apply for Assistant Heads of School:

Indie School Size of operations	30-50 students enrolled at census	50-70 students enrolled at census	70+ students enrolled at census
2022	$5,000	$7,500	$10,000
2023	$5,125	$7,690	$10,250
2024	$5,250	$7,880	$10,510

IN THE FAIR WORK COMMISSION

FWC Matter No.:

AG2021/7969 - Application by Albury Wodonga Community College Limited

Applicant: Albury Wodonga Community College Limited (ABN 28 368 867 854) on behalf of the Employer (Company) as listed in Clause 3 of the Agreement.

Section 185 – Application for approval of a single enterprise agreement

Undertaking – Section 190

I, Rodney Steven Wangman, Chief Executive Officer/Company Secretary have the authority given to me by Albury Wodonga Community College Limited to give the following undertakings with respect to the Albury Wodonga Community College Enterprise Agreement 2022 – 2025 ("the Agreement"):

The Albury Wodonga Community College undertakes to:

1. Increase all proposed Enterprise Agreement rates (Levels 1 – 18) by $0.30/hour (in Year 2022) as referenced in Schedule B.6 Salary table.
2. Insert a sentence to increase the minimum engagement for a casual General Employee to 3 hours in Clause 21.5(a)(i);
3. To amend the first and second row in the table at clause 27.2(a) to read as follows:

Monday to Saturday* - first 2 hours
Monday to Saturday* - after 2 hours
4. To amend clause 31.5 to read as follows:

(a) afternoon shift means any shift finishing after 6pm and at or before midnight;
5. To add the following clause entitlement into the Enterprise Agreement

“We will provide for a paid meal break for shiftworkers (being employees who work a shift that attracts the penalty rates in Clause 26.2) of at least 20 minutes no later than 5 hours after the starting time of each shift.”
6. To continue all current employee salaries as now applies from Agreement approval until implementation of salary commencement as in Agreement Clause 23.2
7. To abide by any Award salary indexation decisions that occur between Agreement approval, and salary commencement as in Clause 23.2.

These undertakings are provided on the basis of issues raised by the Fair Work Commission in the application before the Fair Work Commission.
